British, Russ Agree On Laos Truce

Plan Calls For 14-Nation Parley After Cease-Fire

LONDON (UPI)—Britain and the Soviet Union, after weeks of negotiations, today announced agreement on a cease-fire in Laos and appealed to the warring factions to lay down their arms in the interest of international peace.

The announcements, made here and in Moscow, called for the reconvening of the international control commission for Laos and a 14-nation foreign ministers peace conference in Geneva on May 12.

In New Delhi, it was announced that the control commission would be reconvened Friday. The commission—comprised of India, Poland and Canada—would proceed to Laos to verify the cease-fire.

'SERIOUS THREAT'

Britain and the Soviet Union told the warring factions that failure to halt hostilities would pose a "serious threat to peace and security in Southeast Asia." The two governments acted in the cease-fire appeal as co-chairmen of the 1954 Geneva conference that settled the Indochina War.

They also urged the Laotian people to cooperate with the control commission.

The three-stage British plan for a settlement of the Laotian strife had the backing of the United States. Both governments stressed that a cease-fire must be in effect before the 14-nation conference can take place.

SATISFACTION

In Washington, State Department spokesman Lincoln White said the United States will not attend any conference on Laos until it is assured that a cease-fire is in force. However, he said "our initial reaction is one of satisfaction."

In addition to the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union, the proposed conference participants are France, Communist China, Laos, Cambodia, Communist North Viet Nam and South Viet Nam—all of which took part in the 1954 Geneva talks—plus India, Poland, Canada, Thailand and Burma.

Safe Burglars Scared Off, Leave Tools

Would-be burglars, apparently frightened away by police, left their tools on the ground and the heavy safe tied to a company truck Saturday night at Golden State Co., Ltd., 648 Lindaro Street, San Rafael.

Officer Arthur Newman, on patrol at 11:43 p.m., noticed a rear gate to the company yard was open. It had been closed when he passed about 11 o'clock.

Newman called for assistance. Capt. Joseph Brusatori, Sgt. Carl Selby and Officer Thomas Stephenson responded.

As the three entered the yard, they discovered a set of safe-breaking tools on the ground. A rubber hose had been tied to the rear bumper of a company truck, run through an open back door and looped around the safe in a rear office.

The rear door had been broken open, the officers reported.

The thieves apparently had already started to pull the safe out through the open door when frightened away. It had been moved about five feet, police said.

Frank H. McDougall of 776 Monticello Road, Terra Linda, the manager, was called. He found nothing had been stolen. But somebody had eaten part of a quart of coffee ice cream.

Store Robbed, Suspect Nabbed—In A Minute

The Cricket Liquor Store at 929 Fourth Street, San Rafael, was held up about 10:30 p.m. Saturday and the suspected robber caught moments later at Fourth and D Streets.

John Lee Morris Jr., 21, of 1897 Haight Street, San Francisco, was held in Marin County Jail today on armed robbery charge with no bail set.

Emanuel C. Pappas of 250 C Street, San Rafael, co-proprietor, was alone in the liquor store at the time of the hold-up. He told police a man entered with his hand inside his jacket as if holding a gun.

"I need your money bad enough to shoot you for it," the robber told Pappas.

Pappas took a $5 bill from the cash register and handed it to the robber, who grabbed it and fled on foot. Pappas then phoned police.

Within a minute of the hold-up, police were on the way to the store, reported Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa. Sgt. Carl Selby was the first to arrive.

As Selby began to interview Pappas, Officer Charles Hickey, approaching on Fourth Street in a patrol car, saw a man walking at Fourth and D Streets who fitted the description of the robber. Hickey swung to the curb and emerged from his car with drawn gun, ordering the man to surrender.

Morris gave up without a struggle. He had no gun, Officer Hickey discovered.

At the liquor store, Pappas readily identified Morris as the holdup man.

Morris told police that he was broke and hungry when he arrived in San Rafael while hitch-hiking to visit friends in Napa, Chief Chiesa reported. He said he did not think of holding up the liquor store until he saw only one person in it.

JOE, MOE BACK HOME

'Gator Kidnaping Case Is Closed

Police and Junior Museum officials wrote "closed" today on the Case of the Kidnapped Alligators.

And Joe ad Moe, the 'gators were back in their pool at the museum on San Rafael's Albert Park Lane, seemingly quite unconcerned over having spent a night in an apartment house laundry tub.

Three San Rafael boys, though, faced a bit of explaining.

The Great Alligator Kidnapping came to light yesterday morning after someone reported several window panes broken in the museum building. Police called Arthur C. Madsen Jr. of San Anselmo, assistant museum director, to take inventory.

Madsen and the officers found six panes in the auditorium door broken. Entering by way of the broken doors, someone prowled through the museum, thrown vegetables and fish from the animal kitchen onto floors and displays—and stole Joe (30 inches long) and Moe (24 inches) from the pool they share with a couple of dozen turtles.

Police combed the darinage canal that runs along Albert Park Lane, where Moe turned up last month after being missing nearly a year since a previous kidnapping. They found no alligator.

Later yesterday, a San Rafael woman called police. Her 10-year-old son, she said, was "nearly bitten" by one of two alligators in an apartment house laundry tub.

Sgt. Louis Foster, police juvenile officer, went to the apartment house, and there wrung confessions from three boys, aged 9, 10 and 11.

The boys said they threw rocks through the door panes, then reached through to open the door, and ransacked the building. The 11 and 9-year-old each lugged home an alligator. Both put them in a laundry tub in the apartment house where they live.

The 11-year-old's mother told police her son had told her "somebody gave them the alligators."

France Girds To Meet Rebel Invasion Threat

Coup Puts Army In Quandary

By ANDREW BOROWIEC

PARIS (AP) — The right-wing military putsch in Algiers has put the French army in an agonizing dilemma. The choice of whether to obey the president of the republic and fire if necessary on the mutineers or to pick up the banner of revolt to keep the army's oath and "Keep Algeria French."

The oath to maintain French rule over Algeria was solemnly proclaimed with rolling drums and blaring trumpets in the sunlit forum of Algiers after a similar coup in May 1958.

TO POWER

That coup brought President Charles de Gaulle to power.

Now the generals who helped de Gaulle three years ago accuse him of violating his pledge by his willingness to give Algeria independence if that is the choice of the Algerian people.

According to reports filtering from Algeria, the coup was staged by elite Foreign Legion paratroop regiments whose French officers bitterly oppose de Gaulle's Algerian policy.

Added to their dismay at the prospect of another French retreat was fear that Algeria's independence would end the Legion's existence.

OVERSEAS ONLY

According to the laws of France. Foreign Legion units can only be stationed in overseas possessions, loss of Algeria will leave France only a scattering of small islands overseas.

Apparently, shortly after the coup, other units of the French army were joining the revolt.

A great number of army career officers bitterly resent de Gaulle's self-determination plan and his willingness to negotiate with the Moslem rebels. They feel that French withdrawal from Algieria will be a death blow to the army's pride.

Draftees serving in Algeria did not oppose the 1958 coup, and there is little chance they will oppose their officers on a large scale. Thus the fate of the army is in the hands of its officers.

Some 500,000 French soldiers, sailors and airmen serve in Algeria. There are about

CITIES IN CRISIS—Map locates Algiers and Oran, cities where French rebels are reportedly in control, in relation to Paris, where government of President Charles de Gaulle has ordered drastic defense measures against rumored paratroop invasion.

Civilians Given Arms; All Airports Closed

PARIS (AP)—The French government again closed all the nation's airports late today, and renewed its call for vigilance against an airborne invasion by mutinous French forces in Algeria.

Premier Michel Debre issued orders for a repetition of the security steps invoked last night to guard against an attack by paratroopers serving the Algerian military junta. All runways were ordered blocked with trucks, buses and tanks until tomorrow morning. No planes could take off or land.

The air force was instructed to intercept all flights over the territory of metropolitan France. The dramatic move came as Frenchmen and France's major allies rallied behind President Charles de Gaulle in his struggle in the Algerian uprising.

French airmen and sailors in Algeria were reported defying the junta which claims to control all the vast territory.

Paris and other major cities resembled an armed camp. Reservists were called up to strengthen the defenses of France.

Reports reaching Paris said paratroopers controlled by the junta surrounded the airport outside Algiers where navy and air force planes are stationed.

The reports said the paratroopers moved in after the airmen and sailors demonstrated against the junta of Gen. Maurice Challe, himself an air force officer.

Another demonstration of air force discontent with the junta was the flight from Algeria of nine warplanes, including five jets, flew into France to join loyal units.

The rebellious French forces in the North African territory claimed more and more troops were flocking to their banner.

All France had been alerted for a paratroop invasion by the Algerian mutineers, and all plane flights in and out of the troubled country were halted last night. But as the hours passed without invasion, tension eased and planes began moving again. Tight security was maintained at all airfields.

The reservists were called up to augment regular troop units and to provide leadership for the hastily mobilized civil defense militia. Debre said military units will be "reinforced by individual callups which will permit the constitution of reserve units with regular officers."

Volunteers by the hundreds streamed to the Interior Ministry in Paris, clamoring for arms. They were given rifles or carbines and partial uniforms, organized into 10-man squads and sent out to guard public buildings.

As dawn broke over the French capital, thousands of tank-supported troops and security forces were on guard at key points.

Much of France went on a virtual war footing after Debre told a nationwide TV-radio audience last night that an attack from Algeria could come anytime. Rumors flew that 1,500 paratroopers in 30 planes had taken off from Algeria.

This morning the Interior Ministry announced that "fear of what could have happened during the night on the territory of metropolitan France did not materialize."

As public fear of an invasion subsided somewhat, most civilians went to work as usual.

The situation in Algeria remained confused. The insurgent junta claimed the whole army in Algeria had rallied to it. But the French government said Gen. de Pouilly, with hearquarters at Tlemcen, west of Oran, and still loyal to De Gaulle, reported he was in contact with all army detachments in western Algeria with the exception of those in Oran itself.

This would mean that most of the army in the Oran area is standing by de Gaulle. The insurgent junta, broadcasting

2 Returning From Israel Tell Of Trial

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Jerusalem was "electric" two days before the opening of the trial of Adolf Eichmann.

When the trial opened, students stopped their studies and "people were glued to their loudspeakers."

"There was a feeling in Kibbutz Mishmar Haemek of tremendous preoccupation, yet people went about their work and listened to the loudspeakers at eating times."

These are observations of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Wheelwright of Green Gulch Ranch, near Muir Beach, who returned yesterday from two weeks in Israel.

Kibbutz Mishmer Haemek, where they stayed, is about 100 miles from Jerusalem in the Jezreel Valley. A kibbutz Wheelwright said, is a cooperative community. The Wheelwrights were not allowed in the Eichmann courtroom. There was no space for visitors.

The Wheelwrights were guests in Israel of Amnon Levi, who, like Wheelwright, is a cattle breeder. Levi visited the

It read: "Sgt. Foster: We would like to have you visit our school Monday, April 23 at 7:30 p.m. for open house night. Signed, Third Grade."

Sergeant Foster would be happy to accept. But he's wondering what school.

OUT OF HIDING? — Fidel Castro finally—after a week of rumors as to his whereabouts and state of mental health—yesterday put in a four hour and 23 minute appearance on Cuban TV, blasting President John F. Kennedy and the United States. (AP Wirephoto)

'Death For Rebels,' Castro Cries Out In Attack On U.S.

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—A threat of firing squads hung today over hundreds of anti-Castro invaders and others rounded up as "counter-revolutionaries" during the ill-fated invasion of Cuba.

"Counter-revolutionaries must be shot," Fidel Castro announced in his first public appearance in Cuba for a week. "We have to act with hard hands. Don't let the terrorists entertain dreams that they can act with impunity while they persist in these plans. Let them not ask for clemency."

MARATHON

A Cuban audience watching the marathon television-radio broadcast last night in Havana cried "to the wall!"

Castro spoke for four hours and 23 minutes, vilifying the U. S. administration, President John F. Kennedy personally, the Central Intelligence Agency and the U. S. way of life. He compared Kennedy to Adolf Hitler, called him an "international bully" and the Administration "thugs" who threaten the world with war.

458 REBELS

What Castro had to say about the captured rebels—he said there are 458 of them—and others of the thousands rounded up in Cuba on charges of disloyalty to the Communist-dominated regime sent a chill through the Cuban community in exile in Florida.

There was a hint that Castro might spare some from the firing squads. He implied that clemency would depend on a pledge from the United States to end any attempt to oust communism from Cuba.

IMPERIALISTS

Castro put it this way:

"Now the imperialists are promoting a campaign in Latin America to seek clemency (for the invader captives). Certain rulers of Latin America are promoting a movement of condemnation (of Cuba) and a movement for clemency.

"We are going to tell them first to ask the CIA and the United States for clemency for the children who were murdered here, that they have clemency for the victims of their bombs, that the bringing of weapons to Cuba cease, that the supply of explosives stop."

Castro's appearance—he was an hour and a half late on the air—dispelled rumors that he had somehow been put out of commission during the invasion.

He appeared to be in good health. His speech was accompanied by his customary gestures. Occasionally he waved his arms or thumped the table with a clenched fist.

He asserted that his regime had "won over a reactionary, aggressive, brutal enemy.

"The threatt of Kennedy is much like that of Hitler," said Castro. "Hitler threatened small countries. Kennedy threatens small countries."

Should any new invasion attempt be launched, all Latin America would rise violently against the United States, Castro said, and he called for an end to the U. S. "empire."

Roundups of suspected Cubans were reported continuing in Havana, which had the look of a city of terror. Diplomatic sources, in telephone conversations with the United States, pictured a hushed and uneasy city full of fear.

Even the victory parades drew only sparse crowds after waves of weekend arrests kept people in their homes.

'Hard' Defense Policy Vowed By McNamara

NEW YORK (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said today shifts in military requirements and spending under the administration's reappraisal of defenses cannot be softened "to accommodate local or private interests."

Hard choices must be made and "pressures of special interest groups resisted," he said.

In his first formal address as secretary, the former Ford Motor Co. executive said, however, that steps were being taken to ease the impact on communities and industries of military contract cancellations and closing of bases.

AP LUNCHEON

McNama's views were in an address prepared for a luncheon of Associated Press members holding their annual meeting.

In developing the new pattern for defense, McNamara said, he received two basic instructions from President John F. Kennedy:

1. The defense program "must not be constructed within arbitrary budget ceilings."

2. While the size and form of the military organization were undergoing reappraisal to make sure they were adequate and up-to-date, "at the same time every possible effort must be made to eliminate waste, duplication and unjustifiable expenditure."

COMPLETED

The preliminary reappraisal has been completed and the results incorporated into the new budget proposals, McNamara said.

"Our predecessors did a thorough job in preparing their program. As a result of the work we were able to do, however, we have reached different conclusions in a number of areas," the secretary said.

He then listed points already contained in the Kennedy defense budget, among them increases in the Polaris submarine force, Minuteman missile production and long-range airlift for troops and cutbacks in other production items and base closings.

NO TEMPORIZING

"Further temporizing on experimental nuclear aircraft will be brought to a halt. The development program for the B-70 aircraft will be modified. It will be possible to cancel the last two squadrons in the Titan missile program," McNamara said.

"I cite these savings not because economy can be the primary objective of the Department of Defense. I do so rather to emphasize what can be accomplished if hard decisions are faced, if hard choices are made and if the pressures of special interest groups are resisted."

EICHMANN WITNESS

'Nazis Set Jews Back 200 Years'

JERUSALEM (AP)—A witness in Adolpf Eichmann's trial testified today that Nazi Germany wiped out "overnight" the fruits of a 200-year-old struggle by the Jews in Europe to improve their social and political position.

Eichmann, listening intently, began scribbling rapidly on a pad of paper in the prisoner's dock. He was one of the early members of the Nazi Party, joining it in 1931 when it was still outlawed in Austria.

The witness was Dr. Salo Wittmayer Baron, professor of Jewish history at Colunmbia University in New York City.

"The Nazi movement showed that, even in a highly developed country, it was possible to turn back the clock. The steady development from 200 years of struggle by the Jews was set back overnight," Baron said.

The period between the two world wars, he said, marked the "high point of Jewish emancipation in Europe."

The prosecution put Dr. Baron on the stand to delineate the social and political position of the Jews in Europe at the moment when the Nazis came to power, and to show the extent of the damage wreaked between 1933, when Adolf Hitler came to power, and 1945, when he committed suicide amid the ruins of the Third Reich.

Prior to his appearance on the witness stand, Eichmann's attorney, Dr. Robert Servatius, sharply questioned Capt. Avner Less of the Israeli police, who interrogated Eichmann over a period of eight months.

Less repeated that Eichmann's dictated statements—amounting to more than half a million words and now part of the court record—were given freely and not "under duress."

Servatius led Less through a series of questions about the circumstances of the tape-recorded testimony by Eichmann, part of which was played last week. He asked whether "undue influence" had been used on Eichmann, and whether he was told to answer questions about certain matters and not about others.

"I take it there is an intent behind these questions," said the president of the court, Supreme Court Justice Moshe Landau.

"May I ask the witness to answer, yes or no, whether there was any undue influence," Servatius said.

Less replied firmly, "no."

JFK Brother Joins Taylor In CIA Probe

NEW YORK (AP)—Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy is working with Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor in an investigation of the Central Intelligence Agency, the New York Times said today.

A Washington dispatch to the newspaper said President John F. Kennedy asked his brother to help investigate the CIA's part in the Cuban crisis and in all other aspects of the secret defense activities of the United States.

TAYLOR RECALLED

Taylor, former Army chief of staff, was recalled from retirement Saturday to conduct a survey of the organization and capacity of the United States to deal with such things as subversion, counterespionage and guerrilla warfare.

The Times story said in part: The CIA, which operates under the president and the National Security Council, "helped organize, train, finance and arm the recent unsuccessful efforts of the Cuban refugees to overthrow the Castro government."

TURNS TO BROTHER

The president turned to his brother to help with the investigation because of his confidence in the attorney general and because the CIA's role in the Cuban attack raised a number of highly sensitive political and international problems.

The failure of the Cuban uprising has been generally attributed to a faulty CIA intelligence estimate that the Cuban people were ready to revolt against the regime of Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

Reds Gaining In Laos; U.S. Advisers Missing

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—A new rebel advance southward toward Vientiane brought more key areas under pro-Communist control today. Three U. S. military advisers may have been captured in the latest military thrust.

Rebel troops yesterday pushed 30 miles south to Vang Vieng, a major government military headquarters 80 miles north of Vientiane on the north-south highway to Luang Prabang, the royal capital.

Government troops bolted before the rebel attack and at least 18 were reported killed. It was uncertain how far south the royal Lao troops withdrew and whether they were beaten from Vang Vieng or simply abandoned the town.

Reliable sources said the three unnamed American advisers have been missing since the thrust began. Uniformed U. S. advisers moved to front-line positions among loyal Laotian soldiers last week, hoping to bolster the sagging government forces.

Another American military man is believed held by the pro-Communist rebels. He is an Army major who bailed out when a U. S. military observation plane was shot down in March.

The leftist Pathet Lao forces now hold about one third of Laos and control its narrow waist. They dominate the north-south highway linking Vientiane with Luang Prabang.

Nerves Produce Variety Of Ills

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

Too many of us have been told, your trouble is nerves, just nerves.

Nervousness is not unusual. But it should not be dismissed lightly. More and more doctors are coming to the conclusion that nervous tension is the result of a chemical imbalance in the body.

Nerves can cause an upset stomach, pains in the chest, legs and other parts of the body. What causes these pains and the chemical imbalance in the body?

Your spine consists of 24 bone segments. These bones sit on top of each other. They have a hole in the center and through this hole passes your spinal cord and the nerves to all parts of your body.

A fall, a sudden twist or even poor posture may move one of these spinal segments or vertebrae slightly out of line. Nerves become pinched when this happens and a chemical imbalance can result. You begin to feel irritable and have pains and eventually break down in health.

Chiropractors use X-ray and other scientific instruments to determine whether your nervous tension is caused by a misaligned spine. They are well-trained to correct such defects and help restore you to health.

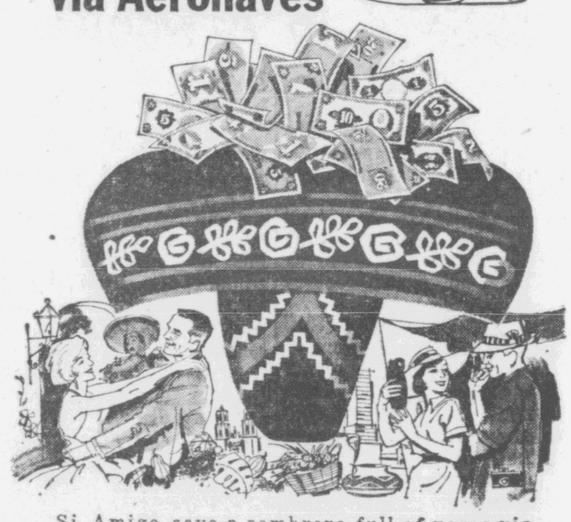

Dr. R. W. Pearce, D.C. practices the Palmer Method. His office is at 1628 Fifth Ave., San Rafael, GL 3-6201. (Adv.)

A Church Survey On U.S. Families

By LOUIS CASSELS
U.P. International

John and Ellen Jones are "active" church members.

They get up early every Sunday morning to bring their three children to the 9:15 family worship service at the Suburban Heights Presbyterian Church.

John was reared a Baptist, and Ellen grew up in the Episcopal Church. But they joined the Presbyterian Church when they moved into their new neighborhood, because it is close to their home, and most of thier children's playmates go to Sunday school there.

They have become, in their pastor's favorite phrase, deeply "involved" in the life of their congregation. John is an usher and was chairman of the every-member canvass last fall. Ellen teaches a Sunday school class, and never says no when she's asked to help with a church supper or a bake sale.

Recently one of the Jones' children was seriously injured in an accident. The pastor joined John and Ellen in their anxious vigil at the hospital. It was the first time he had had occasion to talk with them on a deeper level than polite conversation, about life and death and the meaning of the Christian faith.

He was startled to discover that John did not believe in life after death, and that Ellen was strongly attached to the idea of reincarnation. Neither of them had more than a vague conception of the Christian teaching about resurrection and eternal life.

The Jones are not an actual couple. They are a composite of 1,000 typical American Protestant families whose religious attitudes were studied in a four-year, nationwide survey initiated by the United Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

The survey was based on depth interviews conducted by professionally trained workers under the direction of Profs. Roy W. Fairchild of San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo and John Charles Wynn of Colgate Rochester Divinity School. The findings have just been published by Associated Press in a book entitled "Families in the Church: A Protestant Survey."

This is the most careful and comprehensive effort yet made to answer a question that has long haunted clergymen:

How real and how deep is the Christian commitment of the millions of Americans who have joined churches in the postwar "religious revival?"

In the words of Profs. Fairchild and Wynn, the findings are "sobering."

The people covered by this survey were mostly young or middle-aged parents who had, in a classic American pattern, "followed their children to church."

They were not casual members on the fringe of parish life. They were unusually faithful in church attendance, and willing workers in all kinds of congregational activities. Many were church officers or Sunday school teachers.

In such a group, if anywhere, one would expect to find thorough knowledge and profound personal commitment to the essential doctrines of the Christian faith.

But the researchers encountered mature and articulate faith in relatively few of the persons interviewed.

The vast majority were "vague and confused about the church and its beliefs."

"Misunderstandings about the distinctiveness of Christianity were rife," the authors report. "For many, if not most, the Christian faith was either coincidental with moralism, or else about the same as communion with nature."

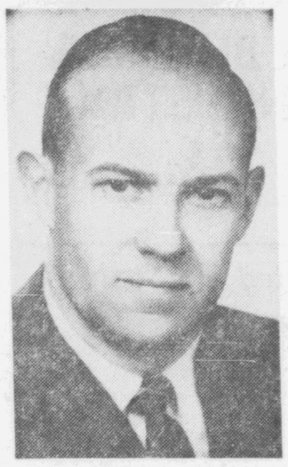

Many equated Christianity with "the American way of life." And there was a prevalent view that it is important to "have faith" but that it doesn't matter much in what or in whom.

A large majority looked upon the church as "a building with an employed staff and a scheduled program . . . engaged in the same basic business as other character-building agencies." Some said they joined the church because they wanted "a sense of belonging" or wanted to get their children into wholesome activities. Others gave their time and effort to the church in the civic-minded belief that it was "a good thing for a community to have—like substantial banks, swim clubs or a city dump."

The authors summed up the lesson of the survey in one sentence:

"It graphically showed how much additional Christian education is needed by even the active adults of our parish churches today."

The church members who were interviewed recognized this need for themselves. An "overwhelming majority" subscribed to a statement that "parents need as much help as children in understanding the Christian faith."

Marin Author Says 'Pastors Hate Graphs'

Dr. Roy Warren Fairchild, co-author of the recently published book "Families in the Church: A Protestant Survey," will be inaugurated Wednesday as full Professor of Christian education of the San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo.

Also to be inaugurated will be Dr. John R. Bodo as professor of practical theology. The ceremonies will take place at 8 p.m. at the first Presbyterian Church of San Anselmo.

Dr. Fairchild said his survey book was written with a minimum of graphs and charts because "pastors hate them." It was a tedious job to put most of the survey's material into narrative form, commented Dr. Fairchild, who said he plans to continue writing, but not right away.

He is a native of San Francisco and received his bachelor of arts degree from the University of California in 1943, his bachelor of divinity from the seminary at which he now teaches, his master of arts from the University of Chicago and his doctorate from the University of Southern California. His fields were primarily religion and psychology.

Dr. Fairchild taught psychology at Occidental College in Los Angeles for six years and was a Presbyterian University Pastor at the University of Southern California.

Sacramentan Leaps To Death Off Gate Span

Ernest Otto Gross, 61-year-old Sacramento railroad engineer, was talked out of jumping off the Golden Gate Bridge in 1959.

Saturday afternoon he tried again, this time successfully plunging to his death to become the 209th known suicide from the span.

In Gross's car, which he left in the southbound traffic lane, was a bottle of sleeping pills and a note which read:

"God bless all those who tried to help me. E. O. G."

On Dec. 28, 1959, Gross stood on a girder beneath the bridge for 20 minutes while two bridge painters persuaded him not to jump. At that time he told police he was without a family, lonely and despondent.

Mock Drunken Drivng Trial Set For Law Day

A mock jury trial, with a Marinwood radio announcer as the "drunken driver," will be presented before a student audience and jury in Marin Superior Court on May 1, as part of Marin's observance of Law Day.

Students from various high schools in the county will be invited to act as jurors and sit in as audience in the Superior Court of Judge N. Charles Brusatori. Richard V. Bettini, who is in charge of arranging the mock trial, said the method of selecting the jury has not yet been decided.

"The mock trial will be as authentic as possible," said Bettini. The facts of the case will be taken from an actual drunken driving case that was tried three times in Marin Municipal Court last year.

The case is the now-famous "stinger" trial, in which the defendant admitted gulping down four stingers just before hopping on his motor scooter. He toppled over on the Sausalito lateral and was charged with drunken driving.

In the mock trial, the accused will be radio announcer Jim Lang. He will be defended by Deputy Dist. Atty. Hadden Roth, who prosecuted the first "stinger" trial. Roth was one of several "guinea pigs" who swallowed four stingers to test the alcoholic effects of the drinks.

Prosecutor for the mock trial will be another deputy district attorney, Charles L. Convis.

The trial will be repeated twice on May 1, in morning and afternoon. Attorney Bettini will break in during the trial with a commentary to explain the mechanics and legalities of a jury trial to the students.

Planners To Consider New Shopping Center

A new shopping center, with a supermarket and several retail stores, is planned in the East San Rafael Assessment District.

The proposal will come before the San Rafael Planning Commission meeting tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. at the city hall.

Carlisle Rickards seeks architectural approval for the shopping center at the southeast corner of Belvedere and Vivian Streets. Walter Meinberger is presenting a master plan for office and retail stores in the area bounded by Belvedere, Alto and Larkspur Streets.

The planners will also hold public hearings on two rezoning requests. Spero Spiliotis wants duplex and garden apartment zoning for his property between Bayo Vista Way and Scenic Avenue. Henry Ghilotti seeks duplex zoning for property on Irwin Street near Hazel Court.

Other items on the agenda include the following:

Norma Dettmer wants to build a triplex on Fifth Avenue near Scenic.

Richard Stevenson wants four duplexes and one triplex on Elizabeth Way.

Several property owners seek variances on setback and fence height.

9 Items On Hub Agenda

San Anselmo city councilmen will meet at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the city hall with an agenda listing only nine items.

Mayor Carleton G. E. Little has not yet indicated when he would make public an audit survey which a San Francisco accounting firm made five weeks ago. The city council asked for the survey to find out what has been causing confusion and delays in the city's bookkeeping system.

Items listed on the agenda include a report on possible salary changes for the fire chief and police chief, advance vacation pay for employees, road improvement at the Miracle Mile and Sequoia Avenue intersection, and rezoning of property at 29 and 23 Belle Avenue from one-family to multiple dwelling.

Councilmen will also discuss formation of a citizen committee on downtown improvements, and the final map of Rafael Racquet Club subdivision.

Junior Grade 'Protection' Ring Broken

A thriving "insurance" business, masterminded by two 14-year-old Santa Venetia School eighth graders, was broken up Saturday when one of the clients complained about the cost of premiums.

The proprietors of the firm, according to Sheriff's Deputy Harvey Teague, were offering "insurance protection" to smaller boys for 25 cents a week.

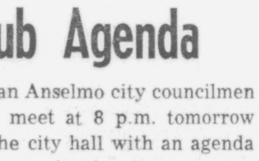

Clients were persuaded to take out the insurance as a guarantee against accidents. The business failed when one of their 13-year-old clients reported the shakedown to his father.

The boy said the two "insurance agents" threatened him with a club when he fell behind in his payments.

The two businessmen were turned over to their parents, Teague said. "I think something can be worked out with their fathers, he said.

NOVATO PASTOR SAYS:

'We Are Empty People In Midst Of Plenty'

Pastor Frank A. Smith told his congregation at the Loma Verde Community Baptist Church in Novato yesterday that "we are empty people in the midst of plenty."

Rev. Smith in his sermon entitled "A Thirsty Land," told the congregation that individuals are not listening for the word of God, and in a sense this causes a "thirst and hunger" that not only destroys individuals, but nations.

Rev. Smith said that "with remarkable insight Amos said, 'Behold, the days are coming, says the Lord God, when I will send a famine on the land: not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the Lord. They shall wander from sea to sea and from north to east; they shall run to and fro, to seek the word of the Lord, but they shall not find it.'

"In Amos' point of view there is a famine more serious than a lack of food, and there is a thirst more disastrous than lack of water. It is a lack in the land of the hearing of the word of God.

"Even very recent history reveals to us that this situation has sometimes developed within nations. The trial of Adolf Eichmann has one haunting question underlying everything else. How could this have happened in the Twentieth Century? How could people lay aside human considerations to follow a half-mad leader even to their own destruction? The beginning was all very innocent. The seeking for national prestige and power to revive a crumbling economy and bring unity to a demoralized people . . . too late comes the realization that man is a moral creature who loses his way and his idenity when he denies righteousness.

"If we consider our own lives against the times in which we live, we shall recognize symptoms of a famine of the Word of God. When the highest standard in the community is the standard set by the community itself; when success is enshrined without consideration of the means by which the success was obtained; when people are treated as things rather than as individuals with inalienable rights; when the increased pace of life places demands upon people who no longer have spiritual resources to meet these demands; then there is evidence that the Word of God is not being heard.

"We are empty people in the midst of plenty," said Rev. Smith.

He declared that "The very heart of the good news is that such a famine is of our own making. Food and water are available for thirsty souls. If we have eyes to see our real need then we can look toward the source of supply. The word of God speaks to us not only of a right relationship to one another as brothers, but also of a personal relationship to God himself. The soul that turns to its maker will find an inexhaustible supply. The prophet Isaiah has voiced God's open invitation, 'Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and he who has no money, come, buy and eat.' The drought is over; the famine is broken when we accept this invitation."

Marin Realtor Elected To Senior Membership In Appraiser Group

With honors being passed out this week to the real estate business, specific congratulations are due Marin realtor Edward P. Morphy, who has just been elected to senior membership in the American Society of Appraisers after approval by the society's international board of examiners. The appointment is considered a high honor in the profession.

Besides being vice president of the Bay Area chapter of the society, Morphy is also active on the legislation committee of the California Real Estate Assn. He was president of the Marin County Real Estate Board in 1959.

MORE ELBOW room needed, not for elbows alone, but for its entire builders hardware department, so Construction Supply Corp. of Greenbrae has leased part of the property of the Hutchinson Co. on the other side of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard East.

A new building to be erected may be ready for occupancy by September. Construction Supply's reinforcing steel department will remain on the present location.

PACIFIC AUTO SALES, which opened at 423 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, last July, has just opened a new location at 415 North Petaluma Boulevard, Petaluma, which may help to scotch any impression that used cars aren't selling.

The firm is a partnership of Ken Moore and Hy (Ho) Silver and now includes Perry Brown of Mill Valley, formerly with Ames Ford Sales.

WE'RE PLEASED to find that Mervyn R. Dowd of Kentfield has recognized talents above and beyond those exhibited by him and wife Bobbie in Ross Valley Playhouse productions where they regularly turn out professional performances.

He has made the President's Club six times but the Honor Table is open only to those members who write one million dollars of life insurance a year.

Has he ever been cast in "Double Indemnity," I wonder?

KURT MEIER, imported fabric dealer in Mill Valley who lists his shop as K. Myers simply because more people can find it under that spelling, has recently returned from Europe where he visited textile mills in Italy, France, Germany and Switzerland.

He's already embarked on purchases for the 1962 spring season which, he says, will see softer lines in women's wear.

NEWLY TEAMED up in the construction business are Clyde L. Miller, 1244 Cambridge Avenue, Novato, and James V. Olson, 700 Hilary Drive, Tiburon, as Miller and Olson Construction Co.

Both were previously foremen with the Crocker-McDevitt Enterprises and are local residents of long standing. They are engaging in commercial and residential construction and remodeling.

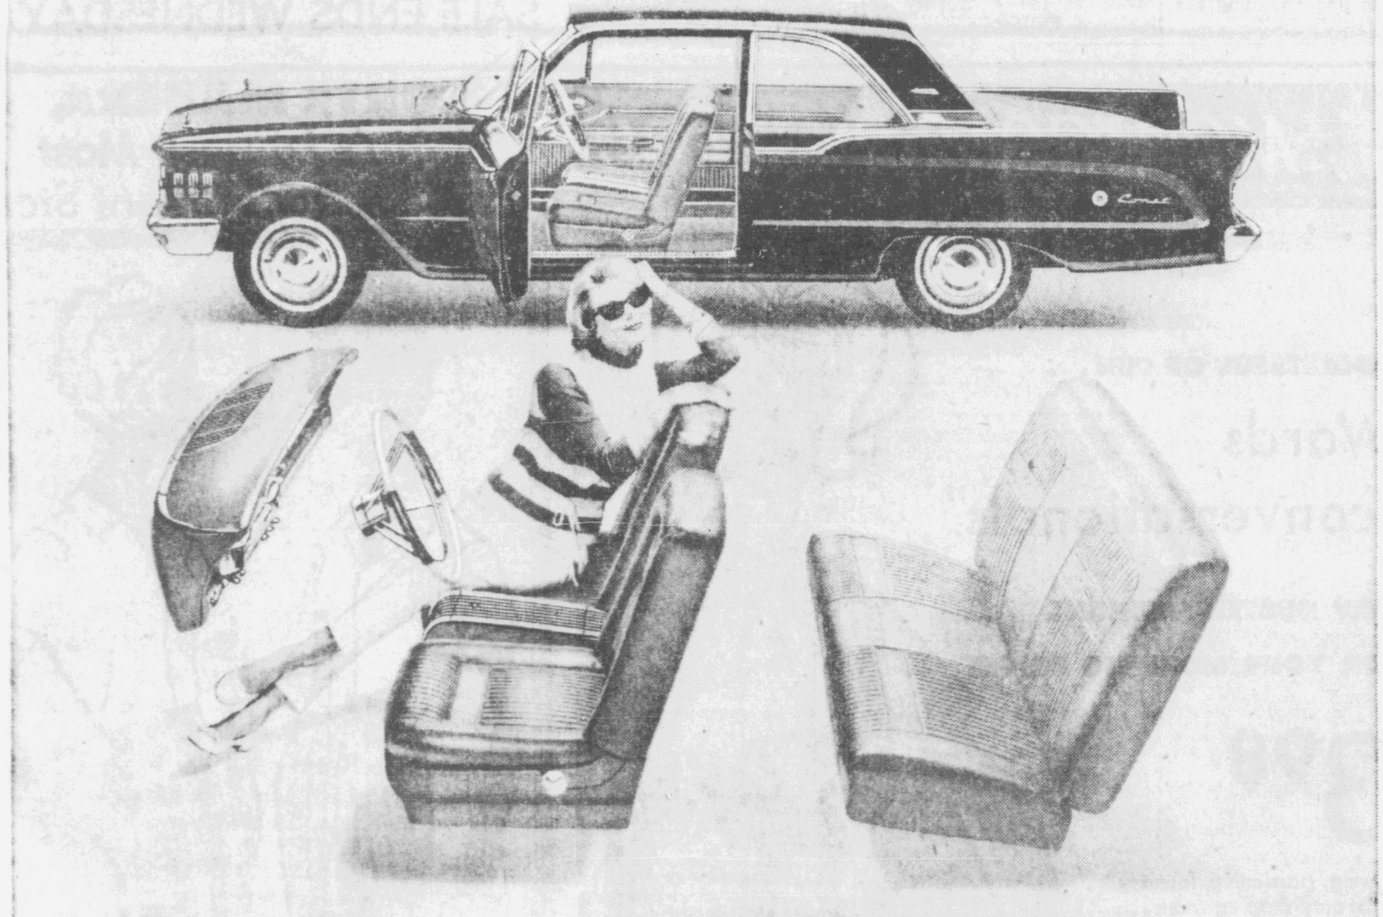

"THE HOUSE of a Thousand Smokes" might be a better name for Ludwig's Smoke Shop of San Anselmo that has now added to its fumidor collection imported cigarettes from countries ranging from A to Y in the alphabet, with Z omitted only because, I suppose, Zanzibar has none of its own making.

I'm told that 30 countries are represented in various blends that will never see the hoopla of TV commercials — from Argentina to Yugoslavia.

Machinists Walkout Now In Second Day

Bergman Manufacturing Co. in San Rafael was "virtually closed as a walkout of machinists continued for the second day.

Daniel T. Bergman, who operates the plant, said pickets were still at the plant gates. He had no comment to make on the walkout or what the disagreement was between management and Machinists Union 238.

Supervisory and clerical personnel were still working, Bergman said.

O. E. McNally, business representative of the union, also had no statement. He said Friday the union and company has been negotiating on a new agreement since before April 1 when the old contract expired.

The walkout began Friday and the plant was picketed over the weekend.

There are four species of wombats. Two have hairy noses and soft coats and two have bare noses and coarse fur which is sometimes made into doormats.

Mountain Play Still In Need Of Cast Members

The Mountain Play Assn. will present "Robin Hood" as its 44th annual production on two Sundays, May 14 and 21, at 2 p.m. at the Mountain Theater atop Mt. Tamalpais.

Advance ticket sales will benefit the National Foundation's new March of Dimes.

Writer-director Dan Totheroh has taken the legend of Robin Hood and his men and woven it into a pageant of history, romance and laughter. More persons are still needed to fill out the cast of 200, according to Totheroh.

Anyone who would like to play a villager, strolling player, one of the King's men or wearer of Lincoln green should contact publicity director Judy Noll in Tiburon.

Dan Scarlett of Mill Valley plays Robin Hood. Larry Allen of Mill Valley is Friar Tuck and Norma Christian of Sausalito is Lady Agnes.

Also in the cast are Elmer Collett of Mill Valley as King Richard, Catherine Mersereau of Belvedere as Ellen, Phillip Vizcarra of San Francisco as Will Scarlet, Victor Keppel of Tiburon as Alan-a-Dale, Mike O'Shaughnessy of San Rafael as Little John, Jim Patrick of San Rafael as Will Sutley.

Included in the production are colorful village dances, a broadsword conflict and archery contests.

Friends Chairman W. W. Schwarzer announced that William F. Pleasants will act as secretary and Mrs. Louis F. Hawkins as treasurer of the friends group.

Burglar Scorns The 200 Pennies

Grahl, of 1042 Third Street, Novato, stopped at the store yesterday to find the rear door ajar, he told police. Someone had pried at the lock, then smashed open the door sometime Saturday night.

The burglar apparently took nothing. The only cash in the store was 200 pennies. They were left untouched.

A Senorita Views American Customs

FROM MADRID—Amparo Huici, Tamalpais High School exchange student from Madrid, finds parental control of youngsters much less strict in America than in her native land. (Independent-Journal photo)

By BRUCE COLEMAN

In Spain the custom of chaperones for senoritas has been outmoded for 20 years, yet parental control is much more strict than in America.

Authority for this statement is Madrid's Amparo Huici, who is a Tamalpais High School senior under sponsorship of the American Field Service.

Miss Huici (pronounced "Whee-thee") said: "In my family they are not so strict but, yet, they have pretty much control. They always know who I am going with or who my sister is going with.

"They know when we are coming back. Here, the family life with the Pembertons (Miss Huici lives with the family of Dr. and Mrs. William H. Pemberton of 481 Summit Avenue, Mill Valley) is pretty much like mine.

"But, in talking to people of the school, I have found that they consider friends are like brothers and sisters.

"In many families, Americans give the children the idea of democracy and let them talk freely . . . in making a decision, children have almost as much power as parents.

"If they get that idea and practice it over and over, you will find out one day, when they are 18 or 19, the authority of the parents is kind of loose."

She also mentioned that American young people start to work at 13, earn money to buy a car or to go to the movies. "That makes you feel as if you had more power in your hands than you really do," said Miss Huici.

She has three Pemberton "foster sisters": Susan, 17; Laurie, 16, and Heather, 8.

The Spanish girl said that coming to Mill Valley from Madrid was like "coming to a jungle. I was a little scared to begin with, with the deer, flowers and birds."

Miss Huici said that interest in Spain among her schoolmates is rather limited. "You find people here have the idea of black and white. We're right and you're wrong. And they don't think another system could be good.

"For instance, they can't think that Franco is any good for Spain or Castro for Cuba. They just think that democracy is a good thing. They are not real interested in what happens abroad unless it is something like the Congo."

"Everybody asked me at first if I could sing or dance flamenco," Miss Huici said "or if I had a Spanish dress or castenets. I didn't have. No."

Miss Huici will leave Mill Valley June 24, will spend three weeks going through the states, and plans to attend university this fall in Madrid, to study either philosophy or law.

Supreme Court Rules Against Lawyers Mum On Red Links

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court ruled today that a state may refuse to admit to practice any lawyer who refuses to say whether he is a Communist.

The court split 5 to 4 in deciding two cases on this issue. Justice John M. Harlan spoke for the majority both times.

"We think it clear that the 14th Amendment's protection against arbritrary state action does not forbid a state from denying admission to a bar applicant so long as he refuses to provide unprivileged answers to questions having a substantial relevance to his qualifications," Harlan said.

One of the cases was brought to the court by George Anastaplo, a young University of Chicago instructor who has been trying for 10 years to become a member of the Illinois Bar.

Anastaplo refused as a matter of principle to answer questions about membership in the Communist Party, the Ku Klux Klan or the Silver Shirts.

The questions were posed by the committee on character and fitness for the First Appellate Court District in Illinois.

The other appeal was from Raphael Konigsberg, former Los Angeles social worker who won a previous high court decision in 1957.

The court held then that past membership in the Communist Party, if true, does not necessarily mean lack of good moral character. The decision was that the record did not justify keeping Konigsberg out of the California Bar.

But when the case went back to California's Bar Committee, Konigsberg again refused to answer questions as to his party membership.

Caliofrnia law requires that an applicant must be of good moral character and not advocate the violent overthrow of the U.S. government.

Harlan's opinions affirmed decisions of the Supreme Courts of Illinois and California denying admission to the two applicants.

THIS CRASH INJURED THREE—These two cars met head-on in Marin City Saturday, sending both drivers and a passenger to hospitals. The passenger, Virgie Wortham, 21, was one of two persons injured seriously in a rash of accidents on Marin streets and highways during the weekend. (Independent-Journal photo by Jim Kean)

Marin Has Bad Traffic Weekend— 18 Hurt In Accidents, 2 Seriously

A rash of traffic accidents injured 18 persons, two of them seriously, in Marin County over the weekend and this morning.

Three Marin City residents were injured in a head-on two-car collision in Marin City Saturday.

Reported in serious condition at Marin General Hospital was Virgie Wortham, 21, of 76 Cole Drive, Marin City. Mrs. Wortham was a passenger in a car driven by Barbara Jean Bailey, 62 Cole Drive, who was transferred from Marin General to Letterman Hospital in San Francisco after being treated for a cut knee.

Driver of the other car, Walter Lenoir, 36, of House 224, was given emergency treatment at Marin General Hospital, then booked at the county jail on a felony drunken driving charge. Freed on $525 bail, he is to appear in court at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday.

California Highway Patrolman Cecil Hooper said Lenoir was driving on the wrong side of Drake Avenue, when he ran into the other car near the Marin City bus depot.

Hospital attendants reported Mrs. Wortham suffering from serious internal injuries and severe cuts on the face.

Mrs. Catherine O'Brien, 38-year-old Petaluma school teacher, was in fair condition at Marin General Hospital after her car went over a bank and overturned on the Waldo Grade just north of the tunnel Saturday afternoon.

California Highway Patrol investigation indicated high winds knocked Mrs. O'Brien's small car out of control at 1:45 p.m. as she was southbound. She suffered a cut scalp and forehead and multiple scrapes and bruises.

Two accidents in close succession injured three persons and piled up traffic on the Waldo Grade during the commuter rush this morning.

Mrs. Jane Bartolucci of San Francisco, teacher at Olive School in Novato and wife of a doctor at Children's Hospital in San Francisco told the California Highway Patrol she swerved right to miss a dead animal on the highway at 7:25 a.m. Her car struck the bank and overturned, throwing Mrs. Bartolucci out. She received emergency treatment at Marin General Hospital and was transferred to Children's Hospital, with possible internal injuries.

Joseph R. Ball, Petaluma rancher, swung his truck left to miss the overturned Bartolucci car. An auto driven by John Peter McGuinness, San Francisco hair stylist, hit the left front bumper of the truck and it overturned. McGuinness suffered minor knee injuries for which he was treated at Marin General Hospital.

George Maes of San Francisco, Fairfax School District janitor and a passenger with McGuinness, was treated at the same hospital for a cut right temple and right leg injuries and transferred to Kaiser Hospital in San Francisco.

There was considerable southbound traffic holdup for 30 minutes due, as with a similar northbound mishap a week ago, solely to curious gawkers.

Mrs. Margarite Finney 46, of 30 Rosebank Avenue, Kentfield, medical records secretary at Ross General Hospital, suffered minor injuries to her neck and right leg when a car driven by her husband, Drayton K. Finney, was involved in a three-car accident on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in San Anselmo Saturday.

Mrs. Finney was given emergency treatment at Marin General Hospital.

San Anselmo police cited Clifton David Belknap, 19 of 4 Altena Street, San Rafael, for following too closely after he drove his auto in the rear end of the Finney auto near Mountain View Avenue at 12:15 p.m. Saturday. Finney's auto was pushed into an auto driven by Marjorie A. Stommel, 38, of Woodacre.

ANOTHER THREE-CAR accident, at 9:32 a.m. Saturday on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in San Anselmo, injured Charles Digesti, 48, of Fairfax.

A CAR DRIVEN BY JACK L. Neureuter, 23, of Oakland, westbound, ran into the rear of a car driven by Rene Neil Jeannett, 28, of Burlingame, police reported. Jeannett's car hit that driven by Digesti, who was treated in Marin General Hospital for neck hurts. Neureter was cited for following too closely.

The third San Anselmo accident, again on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard at 8:15 p.m. Saturday injured David J Frym, 19, of 760 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in the Hub City.

William Stuart Collins, 17, of 15 Del Norte Avenue, San Anselmo, attempting to make a left turn off of Sir Francis Drake, was hit by Frym's auto, police said. Frym suffered back pains and was checked by Marin General Hospital.

Tom Dickson, 31, of Fairfax, was treated at San Rafael General Hospital for a cut nose and scrapes on his hand after he was involved in an auto accident Saturday at 6:25 p.m. at 22 Bolinas Road, Fairfax. No details of the accident were available.

A SIX-YEAR-OLD CORTE Madera youth suffered minor injuries Saturday when he was struck by an auto and thrown about 20 feet in the air, Corte Madera police report.

TREATED IN MARIN GENERAL Hospital for abdominal pains was Gino Pomilia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dominic A. Pomilia of 111 Palm Avenue, Corte Madera.

David Gene Wallace, 16, of Boardwalk 1, Larkspur, told police he was driving on Palm Avenue between 20 to 30 miles per hour when the child ran in front of his vehicle. The accident happened in front of the Pomilia home.

Wallace was cited for driving without due caution.

Two women were injured in a Santa Venetia intersection crash Saturday night.

Driving a new compact car west on Madison Avenue, Barbara Marcia Dvorak, 20, of 581 Miller Creek Road, Marinwood, suffered cuts and bruises when her car was struck broadside by a pickup driven south on Edwards Avenue by Roy J. Johnson, 26, Novato decorator of 729 Sun Lane.

Johnson's aunt, Louise Brognone, 47, of San Francisco, was treated at San Rafael General Hospital for a mild concussion. Miss Dvorak was treated for an injured right arm.

Gloria Jean Mette, 19-year-old Sacramento secretary, ran wide on a curve of the Shoreline Highway near the Petaluma Road intersection yesterday morning and suffered minor bruises and scrapes as her car bounced off a bank. The California Highway Patrol cited her on speeding charge.

A 1/C Larry W. Field of the 78th Operational Maintenance Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base let his small sports car drift against the concrete guard rail at the south end of the Richardson Bay Bridge on Highway 101 at 4 p.m. yesterday as he was driving north.

Field told the California Highway Patrol that he thought he had napped briefly. He was treated at the base hospital for a cut over the left ear.

LYLE STEPLETON, 15, OF 64 PALM LANE, NOVATO, suffered a cut finger and bruised leg Saturday when the bike he was riding collided with a car.

Novato police reported the boy was riding on the sidewalk in front of 764 Diablo Street when Carl T. Hansen, 42, a custodian for the Dixie School District, backed his car out of his driveway. The boy was treated at Hamilton Air Force Base Hospital.

Frankfurter, Warren In Bitter Clash

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A bitter squabble broke out on the Supreme Court bench today between Chief Justice Earl Warren and Justice Felix Frankfurter.

Veteran court observers described it as the bitterest clash in open court between two justices in recent memory.

Warren accused Frankfurter of "degrading this court" and of delivering a "lecture . . . a closing argument by the prosecutor to the jury" in giving his reasons for dissenting in a criminal case ruling by the tribunal.

Warren's remarks came after Frankfurther said the tribunal had misinterpreted its appelate function "to turn a criminal appeal into a quest for error."

The clash came after Frankfurter had given his reason for opposing the court's decision to reverse the murder conviction of Willie Lee Stewart on grounds the prosecutor should not have alluded to previous trials in his questioning.

Frankfurter said the court had "plucked" an isolated episode which never was referred to again in the trial to reverse Stewart's conviction for the fatal shooting of a grocer during a 1953 robbery here.

When Frankfurtrer had finished, Warren said: "I must say though I didn't file an opinion in this case, that was not the dissenting opinion that was filed. This was a lecture, this was a closing argument by the prosecutor to the jury properly made in the conference room, but not in the courtroom."

'STONE TO ATOM AGE?'

An Expert Outlines Problems Of Africa

"The trouble in Africa is that it is trying to leap from the stone age to the atomic age in one jump," Donald Stokes, head of the San Francisco office of the British Information Service, told more than 150 members of the Northern Division of the California Library Assn. Saturday at Rubini's Restaurant in Fairfax.

"There is good reason to be sober about considering the world situation today," Stokes said.

Two great forces loose in the world today, he said, are communism and the desire of the "have not" nations to catch up with the "have."

Some of Stokes' comments on "areas of turmoil" were:

Ghana:

"Ghana was 20 to 30 years in preparation to self-government with blacks being trained in self-government positions . . . In spite of the preparation, Ghana has altered into a dictatorship."

British foreign policy:

"What we have done is set up a goal of creating independent countries throughout the world. We have not lost a country, except Ireland, with this policy."

Russia:

"The Russians are slowly learning that they must catch up in everything except heavy engineering."

Cuba:

"If the entire island sank into the Caribbean, there would be no permanent effect . . . The danger is in Castro's effect on the rest of South America."

Red China:

The British "feel that they can't ignore one quarter of the human race. If we do, all they will know will be fed to them through Russia. We must bring China into the rest of the world."

Laos and Vietnam:

"We are going to hear more bad news from Laos and Vietnam. The communists are not thinking of peace, but expansion. The Laos question cannot be settled on a military basis . . . We must show them that our way works best."

British Africa:

"Kenya, 70 years ago, was an uninhabited land. The British put in farms and brought better health standards and jobs for all. Then came the Mau Maus and the British decided to create a multi-racial society. I hope that Africa consolidates into larger areas, instead of little states. Little states throughout history have caused war."

President Kennedy's Peace Corps:

"The Peace Corps is a good idea if done properly. What those pepople need and want is supervision to show them a better way to dig the ditch, not help in digging the ditch."

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Lowering Of Bond Margin Would Aid Rapid Transit

Tomorrow will be a busy day for Marin Sen. John F. McCarthy.

Scheduled for hearings before legislative committees are his measures to establish a Golden Gate Transportation Commission, to regulate billboards along state highways, and to make some 17 changes, mostly technical, in Bay Area Rapid Transit District law.

But the bill which may be the most important of all for the Bay Area is one affecting its rapid transit bonds.

Tomorrow, the Senate Transportation Committee has agreed to hear McCarthy's bill which would lower the per centage by which a rapid transit bond issue must pass, from 66⅔ per cent to 60 per cent.

This is not a new idea. The East Bay Rapid Transit District was successful in lowering its needed bond majority from 66⅔ to 50 per cent, a mere majority, the same percentage needed to pass state bond issues.

We wouldn't want to say we would support lowering the Bay Area per centage that low. On the other hand, the need for rapid transit in the Bay Area is so great — and will become greater —and a system would directly affect so many millions of people, that we would hate to see it decided by a small minority.

Passage by 60 per cent means that for every two No votes, there would have to be three Yes votes. This seems fair; 50 per cent more would have to be for the bonds than against them.

At this point, we don't know how much money we are talking about. We don't know how big the bond issue will be. We don't know whether we will be for or against it when it is finally presented, with all its details and costs worked out. Perhaps, in our opinion, it won't be financially feasible.

That decision is in the future.

At present, because of the great importance of the project, we feel it should have every chance to succeed.

We hope Senator McCarthy is successful in his fight for a lower vote margin.

It's A Good Year Already

With all the talk about recession, business slowdown and such, it was a pleasure today to sit down to lunch with a group of men and women who are having an outstanding year in 1961.

February was a $1,000,000 larger month than February 1960 for multiple listed dwellings sold by Marin's Realtors. March was 61 per cent above March a year ago, we learned.

We were having lunch with 150 real estate brokers, all members of the Marin County Real Estate Board. It was our pleasure to have them as our guests in observance of national Realtors Week.

There was no gloomy talk at that luncheon. 1961 has started out spectacularly, and there is no letup in sight.

We know we can rely on their figures because, as Realtors, they are pledged to conduct their businesses to protect the public against fraud, misrepresentation and unethical conduct. They were sharing with us, as they share with prospective sellers and buyers, their experience, up-to-date information and knowledge.

We certainly enjoyed the luncheon and hope that the Realtors' successes this year presage a good year for all Marin.

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

Women May Still Outlive Men— But The Tortoise Beats Us All

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

It'll be even more of a woman's world when normal life expectancy reaches 100 years. Some doctors believe women then will outnumber the frail male 5-2. And they'll have no trouble electing a lady U. S. president.

At least four forms of animal life have exceeded the present 70-year biblical span of man: Giant tortoise, 152 years; box turtle, 123; swan, 102, and parrot, 80.

Elephants have been known to live to be 69, eagles 55, horses 50, toads 36, cobras 28, and English sparrows 23.

Ever wonder how much gold there is in the world? Well, if the known supply were melted into a solid cube, it would be the size of an eight-room house.

Safety note: An insurance company found you are less likely to have an accident working in a modern steel mill today than you are shopping in a supermarket.

Someone has figured out you can change a dollar 293 different ways, using halves, quarters, dimes, nickels and pennies.

Not Itemizing Phone Bill Legal?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I have mailed the following letter:

Public Utilities Commission
State Building
San Francisco

Attached is latest brochure enclosed with the current telephone bill, "TO SAVE MONEY, PHONE CALLS BY THE POUND."

The only difference between grapes and phone calls is that you can see the grapes that you buy.

My question is, Is it legal to expect payment for a bill that is not itemized?

I don't recall the public having any choice as to whether they wanted to pay "by the pound." I don't believe I am alone in saying I want an itemized bill — who feels there is possibility for error even in electronics and who feels the futility of not being able to check the bill as you do for groceries or anything else.

When it is public knowledge that local calls (if 50 or 60 miles is local) are not itemized, it encourages transients in the home to use the phone promiscuously. It also encourages longer calls because you do not realize what you are spending. And all parents like to have some check on their children's calls and contacts which they cannot control if they cannot pinpoint the calls.

The phone company's sweet-voiced, trained, placating reply was that I was practically alone in my thinking and their solution to the problem was to put my phone under lock. Before I do that, I'll do without a phone.

What Will Marin Do For Elderly?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

You recently printed a letter from Mrs. R. E. Sarraille questioning the need for low rent public housing for our elderly in Marin County.

The Housing Authority (and the Board of Supervisors we are sure) has no intent to propose any local extension of our present, nominal, federally-assisted housing program if our senior citizens can be adequately housed otherwise.

However, the results of our recent preliminary survey, which have been submitted to the supervisors, clearly indicate that many of the elderly residents of Marin County have serious housing problems that are not being met. Therefore, as the legally constituted public agency charged with responsibility for developing low rent housing in such instances, we feel obligated to bring this situation to the attention of the community.

There are some 10,000 people in Marin County over 65 years of age. Some 657 of these were sampled in our recent survey, 69 per cent of whom were found to have gross annual incomes under $2,000. However, only 36 per cent of the total questioned were able to find housing within their financial means.

Many of these reported deplorable housing conditions: ("Can't live in mountain cabin another winter—no bathroom —77 years old"; "Apartment over garage will be condemned — cold — 78 years old"; "Basement apartment on hillside—floor giving way—blind in one eye—81 years old"). One out of five of the elderly sampled is in poor health.

Our new 300-unit low rent housing project in Marin City, which is now fully occupied, has just met the needs of the lowest income families displaced in the redevelopment of Marin City. Already, without solicitation, we have received over 100 apparently eligible applications from low income families outside of Marin City—many of whom are elderly. This project cannot, nor was it intended to, meet the full county need for adequate housing for low income local residents.

Therefore, it seems reasonable for a county with such a high average income to give consideration to helping that small portion of its population that is less fortunate through reasons of advanced age, disability, economic insecurity, etc.

The program specifically designed to accomplish this worthwhile objective is the public housing program, which takes only two-tenths of one percent of the total federal budget (about one cent per day from the income tax of the $10,000 per year family), and no local funds.

There are many indications that the county is interested in our development of additional units designed with special consideration for our elderly citizens, just as it endorsed our recent work in Marin City—tangible evidence of the type of homes and service to Marin County that the Housing Authority can produce.

This is not a question of whether or not Marin is a "depressed area" as Mrs. Sarraille put it. The real question is, what can and will Marin do for its senior citizens?

Historic I-Js In Time Capsule

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

. . . . Our congregation celebrated its "Service of Entry" into its new church buildings Sunday, April 9.

Before the congregation entered, we filled a time capsule outside the church. This time capsule is to be opened by the pastor and congregation of Faith Lutheran in the year 2061. Together with historic documents of our own parish, we placed in this capsule a copy of the Independent-Journal for Saturday, April 8, and all four issues of your "A Century of Service," thus covering the past 100 years of history of Marin County for the benefit of our people living when this capsule is opened.

Men Are Bigger And Stronger But Women Live Much Longer

Men are stronger than women. They are also better baseball players, better warriors and better cooks. They are fine girl watchers.

However, women live longer. If this weakness of man could be overcome, man could have time to play more baseball, fight more wars and watch more girls.

There are secrets to long life. Mrs. Frances Silva Campbell, who is 78, and who has worked two hours daily at the Sausalito Public Library as janitress for the past 31 years, through four librarians, discloses one secret: Portuguese soup.

She says this soup has no other ingredients than potatoes, cabbage and big pieces of soup meat. The hardy Mrs. Campbell, who loves people and says "I was born and raised friendly," has no idea of retiring from her job.

MRS. K. W. PEDERSEN of Mill Valley says that smoking cigarillos keeps her youthful, but she also believes strongly in drinking rainwater as an assist to health. "It's good as gold," she says, "and doesn't need boiling."

When it rains she gathers all her pots and pans and sets them outside. Two rains ago she collected five gallons of rainwater. She stores the water in large jars. Mrs. Pedersen drinks it straight and also makes rainwater tea and coffee. Her friends also find it delightful, she said. The only trouble is—she runs out in summer.

TSVETKA DIMITROFF of Mill Valley, mother of Stephen Dimitroff, is a true Bulgarian.

She says that long life (she is about 80) comes from eating yogurt and fasting from meat eating. She eats meat on an average of once every three days.

Mrs. Dimitroff, who was born at Dobromirka (meaning good peace) when Bulgaria was yet under Turkish rule, refuses to speak English.

If a neighbor child is in the apple tree, she tells him to get out in Bulgarian and he understands. At the store she knows a few English words but says, in Bulgarian to her son who is translating, "The American dollar speaks any language. It speaks Bulgarian perfectly."

To her friends in Meier's Bakery, she speaks "half Bulgarian," her son adds. Mrs. Dimitroff came with her late husband and three boys to America 40 years ago with the idea the family would stay long enough to educate the boys.

WHEN THE BOYS grew up and didn't want to return to Bulgaria, Mrs. Dimitroff formed a block about learning to speak English and refused to speak it.

"After speaking the greetings and the pleasantries, what else is important?" Dimitroff said is his mother's belief. "She can't discuss philosophy but she doesn't care about philosophy."

Besides the Dimitroffs, there is but one other Bulgarian in the county and whom Mrs. Dimitroff rarely sees. For hello she says "Drasti." For goodbye "S-bogom," which translates "With God."

DANIEL DAGNEY and Hank Pierroz, Lytton Square girl watchers, say that girl watching keeps men young.

They have watching broken down into hours, days and types. Sunny days are the best watching days, the best times are at 8 a.m., coffee breaks and noon hours; corners are good. Banks have the most girls.

Girls who wear high heels are more fun to watch than those in flats. "They trip along," says Hank who watches, of course, only on his off days.

Khrushchev Seeking To Avoid Test Ban, Not Negotiate One

WASHINGTON — Nikita Khrushchev is taking the apparently irrevocable position that there can be no nuclear test-ban treaty unless the Soviets can veto inspection.

U. S. and British negotiators at the Geneva talks have been hoping against hope that the Soviet delegate was not making a final Kremlin demand when he insisted that the control commission be run by a committee of three who would have to agree unanimously before any action to verify the observance of the treaty could be taken.

Now the Soviet premier is committing himself personally and unreservedly to forbidding any investigation of an unexplained explosion without Soviet permission. The Soviets demand the right to say no at any time.

THUS KHRUSHCHEV dashes the patient hopes of the whole world for successful negotiation of a test ban or even a beginning of disarmament since, if the Soviets are to have a veto over verification, there can be no guarantee against isolation.

It was agreed that the control commission, to verify the observance of the test ban, would be made up of two Russians, two Westerners, and three officials from neutral countries. When there are earth tremors not explained by natural causes, suggesting a possible nuclear explosion, the control commission would have a duty to make a first-hand investigation to determine whether there has been a violation of the treaty.

AT THE GENEVA talks a year ago, the Soviets agreed that there should be a single, neutral administrrator.

Now Khrushchev rejects this provision and, instead, demands that it be headed by a committee of three.

And what of the reason which Khrushchev advances to explain his opposition to a single, neutral administrator? He puts his reason in this sentence:

"I will never entrust the security of the Soviet Union to any foreigner."

This may sound reasonable. No government leader wants to entrust the "security" of his country to a foreigner. But why would the orderly functioning of the test-ban control commission endanger the security of the Soviet Union?

TO DEMAND a veto-at-will over any verification destroys the pretense that Russia wants an inspectable test ban.

Surely a test-ban control commission must be free to function within the terms of the treaty.

At this point, Premier Khrushchev says he will tolerate no inspection against Soviet wishes at any time. This permits only one conclusion—that he is seeking to avoid a test-ban agreement, not negotiate one.

Burglar Wakes Sleeping Boy

A 10-year-old boy awoke early today to find a man prowling in his room, San Rafael police reported.

He awoke a second time to see the man kneeling beside the door. He called to his mother, Mrs. Sadie Irene Burwick. The intruder fled, police reported.

Edith J. Parsons, apartment house manager, called the police. Police report that $4 or $5 had been taken from Mrs. Burwick's purse while she slept.

"We went to Israel thinking it was unnecessary to dig this whole thing up again," said Wheelwright. "It had been done in Nurnberg and, if it were to be held, we felt it should not be in Israel.

"We came away feeling that everybody in the world should reconsider a thing as serious as this—that any human beings could try to exterminate any group of human beings.

"There was no place in the world where it would receive the unbiased attention it is receiving in Israel."

"I felt they wanted their children to hear this so they would keep the spirit of dedication alive," said Mrs. Wheelwright.

"Every hotel was crowded. All you heard was the trial. Jerusalem was electric."

At the Kibbutz where 700 people lived "there wasn't one person that hadn't lost some of his family," Wheelwright said. "They talked little of the trial but it was obvious that it was always in the back of their minds."

Near the end of the Feast of the Passover, Mrs. Wheelwright said, there was a minute of silence in memory of the six million people who were killed.

TV, Disaster Plan Top Agenda At NFL Meeting In S.F.

National Football League owners feel the fledgling American Football League has a better television arrangement than the older NFL. And they plan to do something about it during their annual meeting which began in San Francisco today.

Vic Morabito, owner of the San Francisco 49ers, said the NFL favors a package deal with a single television network. Last year it dealt with three.

Eleven teams, including the 49ers, had contracts with the Columbia Broadcasting System; one with the National Broadcasting co., and another with an organization called Sport Network, Morabito said.

Morabito said he and other NFL owners feel they would get a better break if they could arrange a package deal with one network like the AFL did in its opening season last year

The new thinking among some members is that during the late stages of the pennant race that some of the crucial games be televised nationally. Currently most games are on a regional basis.

"We would televise a game involving the two main contenders," said a spokesman. "It would go into 'open' territory. By that I mean that it would not go into NFL cities where games are being played. But some other cities where there are no NFL franchises."

Denver was mentioned as an example. Denver happens to be the home of a member of the AFL—the Broncos.

DISASTER PLAN

One of the major items on the agenda is a plan to protect its multi-million-dollar investment.

Representatives of clubs from Chicago, New York, Washington, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Cleveland, Minneapolis, Los Angeles, Detroit, Green Bay, Dallas, San Francisco and St. Louis gathered to set up a "disaster" plan and take care of other less urgent business.

The major problem will be to set up a plan to take care of the re-stocking of a club that might have its personnel wiped out in a disaster, such as an airplane crash.

"We must do something in case of a disaster," says Commissioner Pete Rozelle, who will preside at the first NFL meeting in his old home town. "Football as played in the National League is a multi-million-dollar enterprise and we must consider measures to protect it in the face of a possible disaster."

The league already has a financial set-up to handle such a problem. But now it is worried about the personnel re-stocking.

DRAFT SYSTEM

"I guess we probably would have to draft immediately from the other teams," says Morabito. "There would be 13 teams to draw from. So less than three players from each club would be needed to bring the team up to full numerical strength."

NFL teams usually carry 33 players.

It is believed that at least 10 of the 13 teams operating last year made money—most of them big money. Stock in the various clubs is selling at an all-time high. And the owners believe they should protect their investment by keeping the league going on a full schedule, despite any tragedy that might befall them.

There will be other items on the agenda, but they'll take second place.

It is probable that the rival new AFL will come in for some unofficial consideration. So far there hasn't been too much fireworks between the two organizations, although there is a big anti-trust suit on file by the AFL against the NFL.

Scribes Wrongfully Accuse Dark Of Panic In Two-Platoon Move

HANLEY

Politicians, particularly during political campaigns, constantly are screaming foul and charging their opponents with quoting them out of context.

Politics has no monopoly on such chicanery. Sports is a fertile field for such stuff. Columnists love the resultant controversies and, to tell the truth, so does the reading public.

Take, for instance, this mild example of a fellow being quoted out of context.

Some of our contemporaries tried to make it appear Alvin Dark got a bit panicky and reneged on everything he said during the spring when he shuffled his Giant lineup after two straight Cincinnati losses.

It's true the rookie manager did say in Arizon "We are going up or down with Willie McCovey on first base—Orlando Cepeda is not going back there in my thinking."

But he also tacked this pertinent qualification on that statement: "I don't see any reason to give five or six games away early in the season because someone is not hitting. The same applies to defense which is very important."

IT IS abundantly clear that Dark's McCovey-Cepeda statement when properly coupled in context with the qualification was not inconsistent with his lineup shuffle that sent Cepeda back to first in a platoon move of right handers against southpaw pitching.

Yet, some pundits conveniently forgot about the significant qualification in admonishing Dark for not literally living up to his spring statements.

TO MAKE his criticism sound even more authoritative, one writer took the liberty of rephrasing Dark's spring statement on McCovey and Cepeda. He quoted Dark as saying "Under no circumstances will Orlando return to first base."

The man didn't say that. In fact, we have yet to hear him employ such irrevocable phrases as "Under no circumstances." Dark doesn't talk that way.

The McCovey-Cepeda statement was not the only one thrown back at Dark by the pundits who strain so hard in trying to provoke controversies they are in constant danger of mental hernias.

FOLLOWING his announcement he planned to platoon southpaw swinging McCovey and rookies Tom Haller and Chuck Hiller against right handed pitching "at least for the time being," Dark was confronted with another of his spring statements.

He was reminded in typical pundit style that he implied he was an anti-platoon manager when he said in Arizona he would not hesitate using the H & H boys against left handed moundsmen.

But also in typical forgetfulness, the otherwise omniscient pundits made no mention of Dark's declaration that he could not place any percentage on any player "but there is no place on the club for a .210 hitter."

WHEN HE ordered the lineup shuffle, McCovey was batting .200, Haller .130 and Hiller .111.

So what was inconsistent about the man's actions and what he said during the spring? Nothing. The only inconsistencies exist in those hernia threatened minds which seemingly are only happy while trying desperately to provoke controversies when the facts say none exist.

Former Athletics Great Barry Dies

SHREWSBURY, Mass. (UPI)—Former shortstop Jack Barry of Connie Mack's old Philadelphia Athletics, "The man the Hall of Fame forgot," is dead at 73 after a lifetime in baseball.

Barry died late yesterday of lung cancer at his home here. He would have begun his 41st season as Holy Cross baseball coach last week but he was confined to his bed.

A member of Mack's famed $100,000 infield during pre-World War I days, Barry later became so successful as a college coach that he was nicknamed "The Knute Rockne of baseball." His Holy Cross teams had an amazing .800 winning percentages during his years as a coach.

Funeral services will be held here Wednesday.

VENTURI BLOWS LEAD, TIES

San Francisco's Ken Venturi blasted out from behind a tree and took a bogey on the 15th hole of yesterday's final round in the Houston Golf Classic. While he was having his troubles in the home stretch, Jay Hebert rallied to pick up five strokes over the last five holes to tie Venturi for first place with 72-hole cards of 276. They were meeting in an 18-hole playoff today with the winner to collect $7,000. (AP Wirephoto)

REDS' BROSNAN DELIBERATELY HITS BATSMEN

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Jim Brosnan, veteran relief pitcher for the Cincinnati Reds, says that on occasion he has been ordered to hit a batter deliberately and has done it.

This statement by the National League twirler was carried in a copyright Herald-Express story today by John B. Old.

Brosnan, asked if he had deliberately hit a batter, replied: "I have." Asked why, he said: "I was told to."

Old asked: "Then managers, upon occasion, do order their pitchers to deliberately hit a batter, but not with the idea of permanently injuring a player?"

"That's right," replied Brosnan.

"Where do you try to hit them—in the shoulder, hips or legs?" he was asked.

"Usually at his back," said the bespectacled Brosnan. "The worst that could happen would be a cracked rib, but I can't throw that hard."

Brosnan, who has played for the Chicago Cubs, St. Louis Cardinals and Reds, didn't say what managers have ordered him to hit batters.

Schoonmaker Captures Rough Ocean Yachting

By ALFRED MATSON

About nine of the skippers scheduled to take part in yesterday's Ocean Race must have taken a long look at the early morning weather picture, heavy overcast occasional showers and gusty winds and decided it would be best to return to bed and race another day.

Only six boats made the starting line and one of those was many minutes late. The going outside was rough, particularly on the beat up to the Duxbury Reef buoy.

Pete Schoonmaker proved the heavy weather qualities of his Aero 24 by taking an early lead and maintaining it throughout the race. Any chance of copping top honors by Evan Pugh, Belvedere's ardent small boat racer, in his little Shandy, went a-glimmering on that first murderous leg. Just too light in that heavy thrash to windward, Pugh finished in fourth place.

IN THE MONEY

The money finishers: Pete Schoonmaker, Aero 24; in second place, Sacre Bleu, Dr. Preben Jurdig and the Ruthie II, owned by Bill Gray, was third.

The outboard circus over on Lake Merced provided the usual excitement.

Two boats collided on the first turn of the C-racing runabout event, the pilot of the C-101, John Adams, suffered a badly bruised hip.

Despite the unfavorable weather conditions 25,000 spectators were on hand to watch the 120 boats that vied in the many races.

Johnson, Clay In Title Bout

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Harold Johnson, 32, who fought 14 years to become a champion, makes the first defense of his light heavyweight title tonight against Von Clay, a callow youth of 21, only three years a pro.

The two Philadelphians are scheduled for 15 rounds at the Arena for the National Boxing Assn.'s version of the 175-poun crown. Old Archie Moore still is recognized in New York, Massachusetts and Europe as reigning light heavy king.

Promoter Al Lewis expects his first title production to attract a crowd of at least 4,500 paying some $30,000. Johnson will receive 40 per cent of the non-televised—limited radio broadcast— show, and Clay the challenger's usual 20 per cent cut.

Southern California was third, 14 lengths behind the Bruins.

'Hitless' Giants Head South For TV Series With Dodgers

The San Francisco Giants, who hold a six-game bulge over the Los Angeles Dodgers after three seasons, will start Jack Sanford tomorrow night in the first game of the 1961 California Series at L.A.'s Coliseum.

The Dodgers will respond with another righthander, Don Drysdale, who has a career earned-run average of 2.96 against the Giants but lost four of six decisions to them last season.

Sanford is 0-1 this year, Drysdale 2-1.

The Giants go south just one game behind the league leading Dodgers. A sweep of the two-game series would reverse positions.

Manager Alvin Dark said he will stick with his left-handed lineup with southpaw swingers Willie McCovey at first base and rookies Charlie Hiller at second and Tom Haller behind the plate.

He plans to move Felipe Alou, a right-handed hitter, back into the leadoff spot with Harvey Kuenn batting second and Willie Mays third.

Both games will be televised into San Francisco (Channel 2), the first time the home town has seen the Giants on TV.

LEAD SERIES

The Giants lead the Dodgers 36 games to 30 since the clubs came to the West Coast in 1958.

The Giants' leading hitter against the Dodgers in 1960 was Orlando Cepeda, whose average was .369. The Dodgers held Willie Mays to a .275 average and only one home run. Willie hit at least four homers against every other club in the league last year.

Wally Moon, Charlie Neal and Norm Parker led Los Angeles hitters against the Giants last season. Moon hit .327, Neal .306 and Larker .300.

After the Giants' completed their first home stand yesterday, everyone was asking: "Where is that power hitting?"

FINE HURLING

It failed to show up in the club's first home stand under new manager Alvin Dark. Only some fine hurling brought a record of six victories against five losses at Candlestick Park.

The Giants fell to Pittsburgh 8-7 on opening day. Those seven runs were the most the club scored in the opening home stand. Three times they won by 2-1 margins and once 2-0.

It was 2-1 for San Francisco yesterday in the opener of a doubleheader against St. Louis and 7-4 against 'em in the finale as the Cardinals came up five runs in the ninth inning. Three scored on pitcher Maury McDermott's double and he scored moments later on Red Schoendienst's single. Red started the Cardinal scoring with a homer in the first inning off starter Billy Loes.

In the opener, the relief pitching proved superb. Lefty Billy O'Dell took over for Sam Jones in the eighth with one out and runners on first and second. He got the next two batters on grounders.

In the ninth, O'Dell found himself with runners on first and third with one out. Rookie Bob Bolin took over and got Daryl Spencer and McDermott on strikes to preserve Jones' second victory of the campaign.

O'DELL INEFFECTIVE

The second game found O'Dell ineffective in relief of Loes. Rookie Jim Duffalo gave up the big double to McDermott. O'Dell was the loser, Card reliever Lindy McDaniel the winner. Both clubs found themselves with 6-5 records, one game behind league leading Los Angeles.

Felipe Alou, who played left field in the opener and right field in the nightcap, came up with spectacular catches at each position. He hit a single and double in the first game and three singles in the second game to lead the hitting attack. Felipe leads the club for the 11 games with a .341 average including four doubles. As a team, the Giants hit only .223 Willie McCovey has only six hits in 36 trips for a .169 average. His error in the ninth helped the Cardinals in their winning uprising.

Dark has used the hit and run and stolen base to advantage. "All that's been working fine," he says. "The fellows have been playing all right."

But he admits the hitting must improve if the club is to keep its pennant hopes.

Mahaffey, Spahn, Moon Top N.L. Headliners

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Art Mahaffey, 22, Philadelphia right-hander, came within one strikeout of joining Bobby Feller and Sandy Koufax in the record books yesterday by retiring 17 Chicago Cubs on strikes in the top feat of a busy day.

If it had not been for Mahaffey and Frank Sullivan, who teamed up with a startling pair of 1-0 and 6-0 shutouts for the last-place Phillies, the big news might have been Milwaukee's Warren Spahn, who won game No. 289 on his 40th birthday. Spahn just missed a shutout when Don Hoak homered for Pittsburgh in the ninth, but he won 3-1.

Or it might have been Wally Moon, the spectacular Los Angeles Dodger who continued to slap those "moon shots" over the left field screen at the Coliseum. He hit another, his eighth homer of the season, all to the wrong field for a left-handed batter. Moon's hit gave him a .500 batting average and helped the league-leading Dodgers trim Cincinnato 5-1 on a six-hitter by Roger Craig.

San Francisco had a chance to take over first place after beating St. Louis 2-1 in the opener. The Giants took a 4-2 lead into the ninth inning of the second game but the Cardinals rose up with five runs in the ninth and got a split 7-4. Maury McDermott's pinch double drove in three big runs.

DETROIT SIZZLES

Detroit stretched its winning streak to seven games by whipping Los Angeles 3-1 and 3-2 in 11 innings and lengthened the Angels' losing streak to seven games. The Tigers held a half game lead in the American League over Minnesota, a 1-0 winner over Washington. Baltimore thumped New York 4-1 with 13 hits and Cleveland outlasted Kansas City 10-8. Chicoga bounced back with a 7-1 victory in the second gamt to split with Boston, a 4-3 winner in the opener.

Mahaffey was pitching for the Phils' Buffalo farm club in the International League a year ago. They didn't bring him up to the parent club until July 28. He responded by rolling up a 7-3 record. That marked him as a most promising young man. Yesterday's feat may be only the first of many to come from the talented fast baller.

In the first four innings Maraffey struck out nine men. Going to the ninth he had 16. He struck out the first man but fell one short of the record set by Feller of Cleveland in 1938 and tied by Koufax of the Dodgers in 1959. Mahaffey allowed only four hits.

Although Dick Ellsworth allowed only three hits in the first game, the Phils beat him behind Sullivan when Bobby Gene Smith crashed a home run in the ninth.

Spahn was closing in on his 52nd shutout when Hoak hit his home run in the ninth. He gave up seven hits and struck out four, boosting his lifetime total to 2,085. Vern Law, the Pirates' 20-game winner last year, suffered his third straight defeat.

Moon continued his fantastic spring spurt, in the Coliseum where he has hit safely in all 12 games. Don Demeter also homered for the Dodgers and Jerry Lynch smashed his second pinch homer for the Reds.

Ex-Illinois Great To Coach Chicago In ABL

CHICAGO (AP)—Andy Phillip, one of the University of Illinois' all-time greats, yesterday was named head coach of the Chicago Majors, one of eight teams in the new American Basketball League which will begin operations this fall.

Phillip, 39, was an All-American at Illinois during the 1940s when Doug Mills put together the famous Whiz Kids. His appointment was announced by Abe Saperstein, owner of the Majors, acting commissioner of the new league and boss man of the Harlem Globetrotters.

BOWLING ROUNDUP

11 Strikes–297 By Marin Kegler

An unusual amount of bowling pins went down all over Marin County last week, and bowlers are still talking about Chet Moorhead of San Rafael, who rolled 11 straight strikes for a 297, a single game record at Nave Lanes. That same night Moorhead continued with scores of more than 200 in 12 successive games.

Among the outstanding performances turned in by women was at Greenbrae Lanes where Dottie Rosso bowled a high 184 game and high 520 series in the Tuesday Morning Coffee Cuppers League. Two days later in the Splitniks League she again came up with the high game and series: 192-531.

Country Club Bowl had some scorching high games and series. In the "725" Foursome League, Orin Teston rolled a great 646 series with a 224 game thrown in. Russ Sorich racked up a 637 series which included a high game of 239. Clark Carlson bowled a whopping 249 single game and a 633 series. A 619 series and 223 high game was turned in by well-named Ace Addenin, and a 245-605 was amassed by Charles Valsecchi.

In junior activity Gary Stevenson threw an excellent 616 series and padded it with a 223 high game in the All Star Travel League for Country Club Bowl. Phil Hargrave is another high thrower among the junior all stars with 211-234—611.

Lee Karnes bowled a high 617 series and a high game of 233 in the Novato Majors. Also at Nave Lanes, Will Corda rocked down 616 pins in the Hawaiian Mixed Doubles series. He had good games of 205 and 222.

In the Ladies Handicap League at Country Club Bowl, Ruth Smith with a 183 high game and Millie Casci with a 458 series helped put Jim Dougan's State Farm Insurance team into a three game lead in the league and win its sixth straight match.

EM SMITH: 582!

No Stopping Mighty USC In Dual Meet

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Some day a college may put together a track team that can whip the University of Southern California. But it's not going to be helped by bad weather.

The Trojans proved Saturday they are classy in soggy going, capturing their 95th and 96th straight dual meets, beating Oregon 73-58 and Stanford 104-25.

USC has not been beaten in a dual meet since 1945 and there is no sign that anyone will accomplish the feat soon.

With some events of the meet at Stanford run in driving rain, USC scored 83½ to Oregon's 61. Host Stanford scored 17½ and was beat by Oregon in dual scoring 90-37.

Oregon had not been beaten in a duel meet since the Trojans did it two years ago.

CAL TROUNCED

California travelled to Oregon State and was trounced 98 3/5-32 2/5. The Beavers took first place in 12 of the 14 events.

Three victories by versatile Jim Johnson helped UCLA win a Big Five meet from an undermanned Washington team 94⅔-36⅓.

Johnson's first places came when he ran the high hurdles in 14.2, the lows in 23.4 and broad jumped 24 feet 10 inches.

In the USC-Oregon-Stanford meet, Trojan Rex Cawley set a Stanford stadium record when he captured the 440 in 46-3 seconds. He also won the 220-yard low hurdles in 23.4

Oregon's Dyrol Burleson also won two events, turning in a 4:11.5 mile and 1:50.3 for the 880.

Jerry Tarr of Oregon equalled another stadium record when he captured the 120-yard high hurdles in 14 seconds flat.

S.F. AWARDED FRANCHISE IN HOCKEY LEAGUE

VANCOUVER, B. C. (UPI)—Los Angeles and San Francisco will be represented by the teams in the Western Hockey League next season.

The league directors yesterday approved the transfer of the Victoria franchise to Los Angeles and awarded a new franchise to San Francisco.

J. A. Piggott of Saskatoon, Sask., who operated the Victoria franchise, will become head of the New Los Angeles club, which will play its home games in the 14,000-seat Sports Arena in that city.

Coleman Hall of Vancouver, the owner of the new San Francisco franchise, said his team will play in the 11,000-seat Cow Palace. He plans to visit San Francisco this week to arrange for the installation of an ice rink in the Cow Palace.

The W. H. L. directors revealed they hope to attain major league status within five years and pit their champion against the National Hockey League champion for the world title.

The other cities represented in the Western League are Portland, Seattle, Spokane, Vancouver, Calgary, Edmonton and Winnipeg.

Pender-Fullmer Bout Sought For November

BOSTON (AP)—Paul Pender today envisions a title-clearing showdown with Gene Fullmer in November between the pair of partial middleweight champions.

Relaxing after his third successful defense Saturday night against gallant Carmen Basilio, Pender admitted: "I want this Fullmer so bad I can taste it. I want to square this thing away."

Pender, 30, ex-fireman from Brookline, Mass., is considered the world's 160-pound king in Massachusetts, New York and Europe. Fullmer from West Jordan, Utah, is the 48-state National Boxing Assn. champion.

Promoter Sam Silverman —seeking a November Boston Garden date with an eye toward a $200,000 gate and as much as $150,000 more in television money—has been doing long-distance negotiating with Marv Jenson, Fullmer's manager.

Each fighter has a bout standing in his way. Pender meets Terry Downes in London July 3 for what Paul hopes will be a repeat of his seven-round TKO of the Englishman in Boston last January. Pender has been guaranteed $100,000.

Fullmer has Jorge Fernandez on his immediate calendar.

"Money talks," said Pender explaining the local belief the live gate for a Fullmer fight would be larger here than anywhere else. "If we can get together on money, there'll be a fight."

Basilio, one-time middleweight ruler, blinked through a swollen face tatooed by Pender's left jabs and hooks and predicted Paul will not be able to beat Fullmer. Carmen, who had just lost a unanimous 15-round decision to Pender, twice had been stopped by Fullmer.

"I fought them both," Basilio said. "It would be a tough fight but Fullmer would win."

Pender did a convincing job on Basilio, 34, knocking him down for an eight count in the 13th round and nine count in the 15th before 12,168 Garden fans and a national TV audience. Basilio had not been floored in 78 pro bouts.

Pender withstood some jolting bombs by Carmen in the early going before taking over with a stylish offense and defense built on the left hand.

REDWOOD STAR DICK CHAMBERS PREP OF WEEK

For winning four first places and setting two records and tying another, Redwood High School's Dick Chambers has been named Marin County Athletic League's "Prep of the Week" by the Independent-Journal and Radio KTIM.

Chambers' busy week started last Tuesday at Tamalpais High where he broke the Tam pool record in the 200-yard freestyle at 2 minutes, 1.9 second and also won the 400 free.

The powerful freestyler then invaded Drake High's pool Friday, setting a pool record in the 400 free at 4.22.8 and equaling the pool record of 2:01.1 in the 200 free.

He will receive a "Prep of the Week" certificate from the I-J and KTIM.

GRETA AGAIN FAILS HAWAII CHANNEL SWIM

HONOLULU (UPI)—Former Danish Olympic star Greta Andersen gave up her second attempt to swim the treacherout 26 miles across Molokai Channel shortly before midnight today because she couldn't compete with heavy tides.

At one time, Miss Andersen was within eight miles of her destination at Makapuu Point near Oahu's famed Koko Head. However, she had drifted nine and one-half miles from the point when she was pulled from the water at 11:06 p.m.

The attractive swimmer, who began her channel swim from Molokai early yesterday morning, was in the water 22 hours and 41 minutes. Although she was in good condition, she was taken to a hospital for observation and a checkup.

Venturi Vs. Hebert Today In Houston Golf Playoff

HOUSTON (AP)—Jay Hebert met Ken Venturi in an 18-hole playoff today after picking up five stroke in the last five holes of the final round to gain a tie in the $40,000 Houston Golf Classic.

Hebert, the 1960 PGA champion, birdied three of the last four holes yesterday as Venturi, last year's second-leading money winner, took bogies on three of the last five.

Hebert, 38, closed his birdie spre with a 25-foot putt on the final green for a 67 and a 72-hole 276, four under par for the 7,122-yard par 70 Memorial Park course.

Venturi, 29, the Californian who has picked up over $151,000 in less than five years as a pro, missed a 30-foot putt that would have avoided the Classic's third straight playoff.

Hebert had earlier rounds of 69, 71 and 69. Venturi opened with a pair of 70 and closed with a pair of 68s.

Today's round was worth $7,000 to the winner, $3,600 to the loser.

Venturi had shared the third round lead with Peter Thomson and Tommy Bolt. He took command in the final round with birdies on the first two holes and held the lead until he missed the long birdie on the final green.

Venturi dropped a stroke by missing the green on 14. His first shot hit a pine tree on 15 and he took another bogie on a hole Hebert had birdied with an eight-foot putt.

Both birdied 16, but Venturi missed a 10-footer that would have given him an eagle.

Bolt took a bogie on 18 and collected $2,500 for third place at 278. Lionel Hebert, Jay's brother, was the only other player from a starting field of 107 pros to break par over 72 holes. He won $2,200 for 279.

'WE WANT SMOKES'

19 Quentin Convicts In Demonstration

Nineteen San Quentin isolation prisoners have been placed on a diet of "isolation loaf" for staging a demonstration for tobacco.

Isolation loaf, according to Dr. Homer Hastings, prison superintendent of education, is a loaf of meat, vegetables and potatoes cooked without seasoning.

"It is nutritious, but monotonous," Hastings said.

The prisoners voiced their demands by chanting "we want smokes" for about two hours Saturday night. They repeated the performance yesterday morning after throwing the light globes from their cells into the corridor, Hastings said.

Men in isolation are not permitted tobacco, he explained.

They will remain on the tasteless diet until tomorrow morning when they must appear before a disciplinary committee made up of Walter D. Acuff and Louis Nelson, associate wardens, and Herbert Singer, prison psychologist.

There are 30 men, including three condemned men, there because thereis no room for them on Death Row in the isolation unit, according to Hastings. None of the condemned men took part in the demonstration, he said.

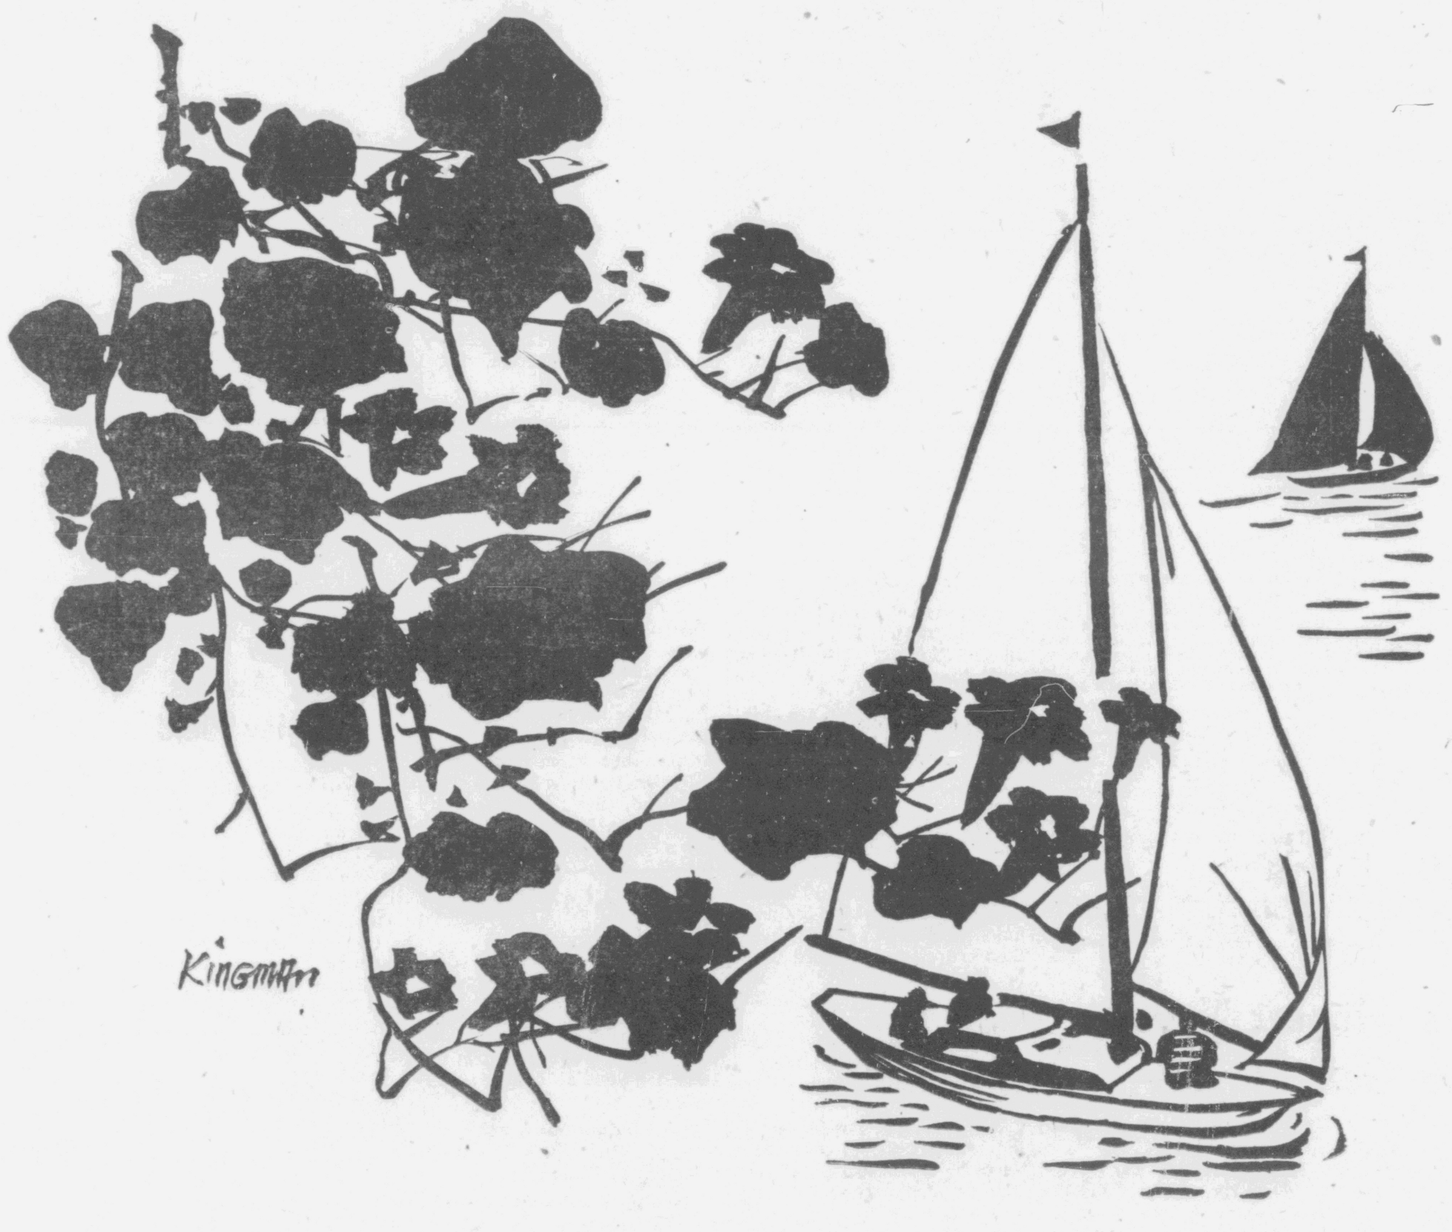

It was not until the 37th year of the National Collegiate Golf Championships, which were begun in 1897, that a school outside the Ivy League won the team championship. Michigan broke the spell in 1934.

Here's how we manage four vacations every month

"We used to have the world's dullest weekends. Now every weekend is a vacation for the whole family. The difference is a symphony of teak, brass and canvas—our spanking new boat! She's part of the Big Plan which Kathryn and I started several years ago. Another part of it is the house we enjoy so. And the trust fund for putting our boys through college.

"Every time we step aboard our new boat I'm glad we put our Big Plan to work."

• • •

The plan didn't seem so big at the time. In fact, it began with an unpleasant situation. Roy and Kathryn were living from one paycheck to the next. They came to Crocker-Anglo for a loan to pay off a stack of bills.

After the loan was repaid, they decided to keep right on making the monthly payments—but to themselves, in care of a C-A savings account.

Thanks to these savings, they were ready when Roy was offered the option to buy a little stock in the company where he worked.

As the company grew, the stock increased in value. Roy talked it over with Crocker-Anglo's investment department and decided to buy even more.

He was preparing for the next step in the Big Plan. Sooner or later, he'd have the chance to buy a branch-office franchise from his company. The chance came.

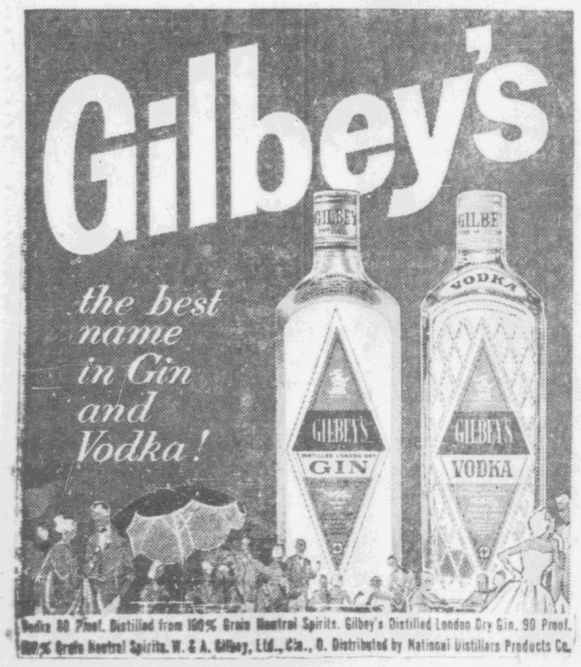

Crocker-Anglo is still part of that Big Plan. Just the other day Roy called our international banking people for advice about some export business he's been offered.

Helping people use their bank for all it's worth is the most satisfying part of our job. It has a way of turning small plans into Big ones... and these into sweet success. Try us.

Old-Fashioned Flavor Keynotes Northgate Market Day, May 17

There will be an old-fashioned flavor to everything—and especially the food—at the Northgate Group's annual Country Bumpkin Market Day on May 17 at the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross. Admission is free and open to the public.

Under the co-chairmanship of Mrs. Grace Graham and Mrs. Leroy Page, this year's Market Day will introduce several innovations.

As the food booth has always been one of the greatest Market Day attractions featuring, as it has, delicious homemade cakes, pies, cookies, rolls, jellies, preserves and pickles, it was decided this year to expand the enterprise.

In addition to all the goodies that have been for sale in the past, the food booth will this year feature a wide variety of casserole dishes from old-fashioned Boston baked beans to anything that the Northgate Group's best cooks decide to serve.

The cooks are planning casseroles with two thoughts in mind; the customer may wish to spend the day at the Center and take home a complete dinner for use that night or the dinner-in-one-dish will be of such a nature that it can be popped into the freezer and there preserved for future use. Mrs. Russell Westover Jr. is chairman of the food booth.

ICE CREAM

Another feature of Market Day, in demand by the public year after year, is the delicious ice cream, made by womanpower in a good, old-fashioned hand cranking freezer with the richest cream and freshest berries as essential ingredients. Mrs. Jackson Bennett will be in charge of this feature.

Still on the subject of food; in spite of rising prices, the cost of the delicious lunch served on Market Day will be the traditional one silver dollar. It will be served from the "Polka Dot Pantry" by members in polka dot costumes under the direction of Mrs. William Cuneo and Mrs. Melvin Duncan.

Once again, the "Dairy Maids" in their cute costumes will be on hand to dispense the freshest eggs, the well-aged cheeses and the delectable chicken for which this booth is noted. The counterparts of the dairy maids, the Farm Hands, will be ready with their fresh fruits and vegetables. Heading the dairy maids will be Mrs. I. J. Ely and the farm hands, Mrs. Marsh Bull.

For children who might not wish a full lunch, the committee has decided to open "Grandma Graces' Kiddie's Kitchen" for the day where hot dogs, milk, soda pop and other short orders will be available.

OTHER BOOTHS

Other Market Day booths will include the "Hat Tree," under the aegis of Mrs. Earl Pennington; "Market Bags," decorated and dispensed by Mrs. Walter Cozad and Mrs. Richard Kure; "Gifts," all beautifully homemade by Mrs. Walter Boland, Mrs. Dion Ramsey-Raisan and their committee; "Books and Records," chairmanned by Mrs. John Buresh; "White Elephants," Mrs. Norman Paterson; "Silent Auction," Mrs. Fred Enemark; "Plants," Mrs. David Dorward; "Guessing Game and Children's Cracker Barrel Grab," Mrs. Paul Spengler.

All Market Day booths will open at 11 in the morning on Wednesday, May 17. The "Silver Dollar Lunch" will be served from noon on.

The Country Bumpkin Market Day steering committee includes, besides Mrs. Graham and Mrs. Page, the Mesdames Winston Jones, Ralph Alden, Rowland Chapman, Paul Spengler, and Allen Zeiss. ALTHOUGH afternoon demonstration of floral arrangements being sponsored by Marin's six cooperative nursery schools on May 3 will be for the ladies, the children shown here had a fine time at the picture taking held at the beautiful Crest Farm, Fairfax, home of Mrs. E. David Campbell, Visiting with Katherine Eubanks, left, who will give the demonstration are, from left, Mrs. Robert Rosenberg and daughter Sissy, little Virginia Sargent, her mother Mrs. A. R. Cooperative Nurseries To Hold 'Spring Decor' Program, May 3

The young mothers who are active in Marin's six cooperative nursery schools will take the afternoon off on Wednesday, May 3 to co-sponsor a different kind of activity that deals with flowers not children —a demonstration of unusual and beautiful floral arrangements by Larkspur florist Katherine Eubanks.

The "Spring Decor" program, planned by Mrs. Eubanks to include a variety of garden flowers from carnations and roses to gladioi and delphiniums, will begin at 1 p.m. at the Corte Madera Recreation Center.

Overall chairman for the event is Mrs. Joseph Rogers of San Anselmo, president of the Marin Council of Co-operative Nursery Schools, who is being assisted by the presidents of the six participating groups—the Mesdames E. David Campbell, San Anselmo; Howard Morse, Terra Linda; Richard Kahn, San Rafael; Robert Alexander, Mill Valley; Twin Cities, (Corte Madera-Larkspur) Marc P. Mott; and Sausalito, Edward Davis.

Proceeds from the day's fund-raising event will be used to provide outside speakers for the groups, to defray costs of member attendance at the California Council of Co-operative Nursery Schools convention, and for new equipment and books, Mrs. Rogers explains.

The co-operative nursery schools are organized by parents, and operated by one or more qualified teachers, Mrs. Rogers explains. All the member schools in the county, except for Sausalito, are part of the State Adult Education Program. Mothers themselves participate at the schools one morning a week and attend a two-hour evening meeting one night a week under this program.

A private cooperative, Sausalito is licensed by the California Department of Social Welfare and is not a part of the Adult Program.

The Marin Council, a member of the California Council, was formed to facilitate mutual assistance among the schools, and to serve as a source of information about cooperative nursery schools. San Anselmo, Twin Cities and Mill Valley are sponsored by the College of Marin, and Terra Linda and San Rafael by the San Rafael High School District.

A quintet of hostesses who will be on hand for the over-all group's fund raising event will be Mrs. Burton Vaupen, Terra Linda; Mrs. Robert Brown, San Rafael; Mrs. David Faw, San Anselmo, Mrs. Ray Perry, Twin Cities, and Mrs. Harvey Hoffman, Mill Valley.

Tickets for the event can still be obtained from any of the following members: Mill Valley, Mrs. Roy B. Montgomery, Mrs. William Marshall Jr., and Mrs. Harvey Hoffman; Twin Cities, Mrs. Del DeMartini, Mrs. T. A. Battaglia, and Mrs. Gary Lovell; San Anselmo, Mrs. R. E. Douglas, Mrs. Faw, and Mrs. Robert E. Mertle; San Rafael, Mrs. C. E. McClain, Mrs. Spencer Greaves, and Mrs. John Stone; and Terra Linda, Mrs. Robert Thalman, Mrs. W. W. Comstock and Mrs. John E. Doane.

A tea for members and guests will follow Mrs. Eubanks' demonstration.

Girl Scouts Learn About Other Countries, Customs

Learning about other countries and their customs is always a fascinating part of the Girl Scout program for Scouts of all ages.

At a combined meeting of Larkspur Troops 116 and 137, Miss Jacqueline Marterer, Redwood High School exchange student from France, was the guest speaker. Discussing the life of young people in France, Jacqueline answered the Intermediate Scouts' questions about schooling, clothes, etc. Leaders of fifth and sixth grade Troop 116 are Mesdames John Bungen, G. E. Walford and P. L. Pinotti. Mrs. J. L. Purkey is leader of seventh grade Troop 137

Miss Marterer was also invited to attend a celebration of the Girl Scout 49th birthday by Brownie Troop 103, when they entertained fourth grade Brownie Troop 140 and its leaders, Mrs. M. R. McCarty and Mrs. Scott Strathairn. Held at Eastman Hall, the Larkspur second graders also invited Mrs. George Daum, Council publicity chairman, to attend their party. The leaders of Troop 103 are Mesdames Vaileos Kapousouz, William Costello, Louis Cimina and E. M. Thompson.

Third and fourth grade Brownie Troop 199 enjoyed a visit from Yusef Inkindi of Africa and Amanda Rudolph of Indonesia, who told about their homes and customs. The Corte Madera Brownies also held an International Food Tasting Party, with each leader contributing two foreign dishes. Mrs. Paul Gray made Indian curried rice and Mexican tostadas; Russian beef stroganoff and Czechoslovakian cookies were made by Mrs. Robert West; and Mrs. E. Moreland Thompson brought German potato salad and Nusbrotle (Swiss cookies).

Folk dances of other countries are being learned by Intermediate Troop 104 of San Anselmo. Under the instruction of Mrs. Robert E. Rohner, the Scouts will spend several month earning the Folk Dancer Badge. Their troop leader is Mrs. C. J. Kealey.

Held at the home of Mrs. George Hartwick, Kentfield, a Pre-Brownie Party introduced the Girl Scout program to the members of the three first grades of A. E. Kent, Wolfe Grade and St. Anselm's Schools, and their mothers. Mrs. Russell Dwyer, troop organizer, explained the various activities that Brownies enjoy. She was assisted by fourth grade Brownies Linda Ball, Carole Bertram, Karen Coleman and Lee Ann Dwyer. Mothers who attended were Mesdames George Ball, George Hartwick, Robert Henderson, E. D. Lewis and John S. Russell.

Pianist Istvan Nadas To Perform For Club

Mill Valley Outdoor Art Club members and guests will hear a recital by Hungarian born concert pianist Istvan Nadas as the program for their guest day meeting Thursday.

Most recently Nadas, who is now living in Mill Valley, has performed to high critical acclaim at the University of California and in a series of standing-room-only lecture-recitals on J. S. Bach, Beethoven, Chopin and Bartok at the University of San Francisco on Thursday evenings.

His weekly performances of preludes and fugues of J. S. Bach's well-tempered clavier—scheduled for complete presentation—over Station KQED have brought hundreds of letters of commendation to the station.

Before coming to the Bay Area as an instructor at the San Francisco Conservatory of Music, Nadas had made a reputation as a recording artist of international renown and had played with many leading symphonies and chamber groups in this country, Europe, South America and Canada.

A pupil of the Hungarian composers Bartok and Kodaly, the pianist holds a degree in composition and conducting from the State Academy of Music in Budapest and a doctorate in philosophy from the University Of Budapest.

He speaks Hungarian, Italian, German, Spanish and English.

For his program Thursday Nadas will play Prelude and Fugue in G Major by Bach, Sonata in D Major, Op. 10 No. 3 by Beethoven and Chopin's Ballade in G Minor, Nocturne No. 14 in F Sharp Minor and Scherzo No. 2 in B Flat Minor.

Mill Valley's Delegates Leave For League Meet

Flying down to Santa Barbara this week to attend the 39th state convention of the League of Women Voters of California's delegates representing the Mill Valley Unit are the newly elected president, Mrs. J. P. Oliver, and Mesdames James Good, Donald Robinson and M. K. Rubinstein.

Convention headquarters are at the Miramar Hotel. The agenda will include a review of the long-time continuing responsibilities of the state league plus considering addition of new continuing responsibilities.

These concern chiefly support of all systematic efforts to revise the constitution, support of measure to promote flexibility and economy in state finance and positions on the state development of water resources.

Of considerable interest is the choice of the new state study item, a recommended choice being the "State's role in local government" — an evaluation of state laws as they affect local governments, especially problems of annexation, consolidation and incorporation; regional and area planning; special districts and financial relationships.

Delegates are expected to report at the regular meetings during the second week in May.

Twin Cities Auxiliary Unit Americanism Meet Set May 9

When St. Patrick's School in Larkspur opens in the fall of 1961, the 50-star flag of the United States of America which will wave from the school grounds will be a gift of the Twin Cities Unit 313 of the American Legion Auxiliary in Larkspur.

Presentation ceremonies at the Larkspur Legion Hall have been scheduled for the Unit's Americanism meeting on May 9. Rev. James J. Healy, pastor of St. Patrick's parish, will be the Unit's guest.

Winners of the Auxiliary's sponsored Americanism Essay Contest from four Marin Schools will also be awarded their bronze and silver medals for first and second place finish. Certificates of Merit will also be awarded to those students receiving Honorable Mention.

Nearly 100 essays were submitted for final judging by students of Neil Cummins, Larkspur-Corte Madera School, Henry C. Hall and Marin Catholic High School.

Unit chairman of the Americanism program, Mrs. George Conroy of San Rafael, will make the official presentations to winning essayists during the public Americanism meeting May 9.

On the panel of judges for selection of the winning essays are Mesdames William Lewis and John Dana of Larkspur and Mr. Charles Pendleton of Corte Madera.

Mrs. Conroy advised Marin winners of the essay contest will compete in district judging. Winners in the auxiliary's 30 districts then vie for state awards in each group. Top award for contestants in grades 10, 11 and 12 is the state's annual $1,000 Americanism Scholarship prize.

Last year in California, 45,000 school children participated in the auxiliary's annual Americanism Essay contest as part of the American Legion Auxiliary's program of fostering a 100 per cent Americanism in the schools and homes of American children.

With an increase in California's school enrollment over last year, participating youngsters in the school essay program is expected to top the 50,000 mark, according to Mrs. Conroy, who advised the auxiliary's Americanism program is now in its 38th year, having been adopted as a state chairmanship in 1923.

ALMANAC

Today is Monday, April 24, the 114th day of the year with 251 more in 1961.

The moon is approaching its full phase.

The morning stars are Jupiter, Saturn and Venus.

The evening star is Mars.

On this day in history:

In 1704, the Boston Newsletter, the first American newspaper to be printed on a regular basis, was published for the first time.

In 1877, northern rule in the south ended with the presidential order to remove federal troops from New Orleans.

In 1898, Spain declared war on the United States.

In 1953, British statesman Winston Churchill was knighted.

In 1953, Moslem women voted for the first time.

A thought for today: Sir Winston Churchill said: "Nothing in life is so exhilarating as to be shot at without result."

Extreme Rebelliousness Of Child May Be Result Of Brain Injury

"Jackie" is a hellion. He is 4, and in kindergarten. He cannot sit still, is terribly noisy, and is unable to follow orders.

Yesterday he got mad at the teacher. He climbed to the top of a bookcase and threw some vases at her. He'll be excluded from school for it.

"Molly" is even worse. She was kicked out before noon of her first day. She had 10 fights in one hour. She screamed constantly.

After the morning recess, the teacher insisted that she be quiet. Molly picked up some long scissors and stabbed the teacher. Exit Molly.

There aren't many kids like Jackie and Molly, thank goodness. At least half of the ones I've seen have been puzzlers. There was no explanation for their behavior. They weren't psychotic, technically. They came from good homes and had intelligent, devoted parents. They'd received good medical care. Their brothers and sisters were normal.

What caused their awful behavior? No one knew.

Now at last we may have an explanation. Some of our worst hellions are suffering from a subtle sort of brain injury. There is a physical basis for their lack of self-control. They can't help being what they are.

Our former tests missed their type of brain damage. But now, new tests are available, new understandings possible. So is a new educational treatment for them.

Do you have a child like Jackie or Molly? Then go to an up-to-date neurologist. Have him make a complete new examination. Atfer that go to a recently trained psychologist. Then have both specialists get together and compare notes. They may come up with some answers.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "Can epilepsy be caused by a skull fracture? Or is it always inherited?"

A. M.

(A) Epilepsy frequently is caused by a head injury. Many epileptics trace their condition to such an accident. Most people with epilepsy are able to prevent attacks by taking the right kinds of medicine.

First Bay Area Telecast Of Giants Set For Tomorrow Over KTVU

An event many baseball fans have been clamoring for takes place tomorrow night. KTVU will carry the first Bay Area telecast of the San Francisco Giants in action since the National League team moved West.

The game, against the Los Angeles Dodgers in the L.A. Coliseum, will begin at 7:55 p.m. with Russ Hodges and Lon Simmons calling the play-by-play. There will be two pregame shows, the major league scores at 7:30 and a "warm-up" at 7:40.

KTVU will also carry Wednesday night's Giant-Dodger hostilities at the same time, knocking out the "Play of the Week" show for that evening. In all, Channel 2 will carry 11 Giant-Dodger games from L.A. during the season.

OTHER GOOD bets tomorrow night: A one-hour musicfest to be hosted by Dean Martin via KRON at 10 o'clock with Tony Martin, Andy Griffith and Tina Louise on the guest list; the appearance of Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer on KPIX's "Career" program (7:30 p.m.) to discuss with Stanford students the military as a profession; and the showing of a film account of famed glacier priest Father Bernard Hubbard's 2,000-mile journey to Eskimo camps on the shores of the Bering Sea on "Expedition" over KGO at 7 o'clock.

AS FOR TONIGHT, a new show, "Biblical Masterpieces," bows in at 7:30 on KQED.

Dr. Bernard Boyd, head of the department of religion at the University of North Carolina, will serve as host of the series which will probe into the literature and history of the Bible. The meaning of new discoveries in archaeology and science will receive special attention.

Tonight Dr. Boyd will look into the controversy that has arisen between religion and science over the first chapters of the Book of Genesis, and will give his reasons why he believes the two factions may be reconciled.

The Monday evening show will be repeated by Channel 9 on Tuesdays at 4 p.m.

AND AFTER THE Biblical program, stay dialed to Channel 9 for James Day's interview of Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas on the 8 o'clock "Kaleidoscope" show. Justice Douglas, whose words are always worth listening to, will discuss his legal and judicial career, his mountain-climbing hobby, and his interest in conservation.

GENERAL WEDEMEYER
The military as a career

Also tonight: A demonstration of successful plastic surgery on "Science in Action," KRON, at 7 o'clock; and the movie, "Rebecca," with Joan Fontaine and Laurence Olivier on KPIX at 11:15. "Rebecca," winner of an Academy Award in 1940 as the best picture of the year, will also be seen Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights at the same time.

Kindergarten Registration

Thursday will be registration day for children entering kindergarten in the Kentfield School District next September, it was announced today by Supt. Harold R. De Pue.

Parents may register their children in the offices of the three schools from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m. Children need not be present, but evidence of their birthdates must be presented.

Eligible children are those who reached their fourth birthday on or before Dec. 2, 1960, De Pue said.

Disaster Alert To Put Radio, TV Stations Off Air

All radio and television stations will be off the air from 1 to 1:30 p.m. Friday because of a statewide disaster test.

Allan K. Jonas, director of the California Disaster Office, emphasized that the test had been scheduled for some time and is part of an annual civil defense training exercise.

Listenders who want to hear the emergency broadcast system as it would actually sound under pre-attack and attack conditions should tune to 640 or 1240 on the standard radio dial. Network stations will carry a message from President Kennedy.

Those who are tuned in to 640 or 1240 during the emergency broadcast and cannot hear the broadcast clearly should write to Conrelrad, Box 110, Sacramento, Jonas announced.

New Moisturizing Colonaid Stops
CONSTIPATION DUE TO DEHYDRATION
without gag, bloat or gripe

Most constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon that loses so much moisture that its contents become so dry they block the bowel; so shrunken they fail to stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.

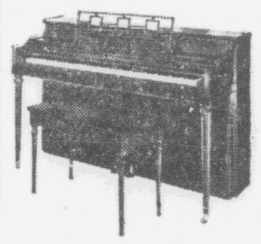

To regain normal regularity, the dry, shrunken contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be remoistened. Second, bulk must be brought to S-T-R-E-T-C-H STIMULATE colon to action; to a normal urge to purge. And, of all laxatives, only new COLONAID possesses its great moisturizing capacity plus its stretch-stimulating bulk. So effective it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, yet is so gentle it has been hospital-proved safe even for women in critical stages of pregnancy.

Superior to old style bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONAID neither gags, bloats nor gripes; won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or food nutrients; in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other reactions.

It's a physiological fact: Exercise tones your body! And COLONAID exercises your colon to tone it against constipation overnight. So, for positive relief from constipation, get amazing, moisturizing new COLONAID today! INTRODUCTORY SIZE 43¢

British, Russ Agree On Laos Truce

Plan Calls For 14-Nation Parley After Cease-Fire

LONDON (UPI)—Britain and the Soviet Union, after weeks of negotiations, today announced agreement on a cease-fire in Laos and appealed to the warring factions to lay down their arms in the interest of international peace.

The announcements, made here and in Moscow, called for the reconvening of the international control commission for Laos and a 14-nation foreign ministers peace conference in Geneva on May 12.

In New Delhi, it was announced that the control commission would be reconvened Friday. The commission—comprised of India, Poland and Canada—would proceed to Laos to verify the cease-fire.

'SERIOUS THREAT'

Britain and the Soviet Union told the warring factions that failure to halt hostilities would pose a "serious threat to peace and security in Southeast Asia." The two governments acted in the cease-fire appeal as co-chairmen of the 1954 Geneva conference that settled the Indochina War.

They also urged the Laotian people to cooperate with the control commission.

The three-stage British plan for a settlement of the Laotian strife had the backing of the United States. Both governments stressed that a cease-fire must be in effect before the 14-nation conference can take place.

SATISFACTION

In Washington, State Department spokesman Lincoln White said the United States will not attend any conference on Laos until it is assured that a cease-fire is in force. However, he said "our initial reaction is one of satisfaction."

In addition to the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union, the proposed conference participants are France, Communist China, Laos, Cambodia, Communist North Viet Nam and South Viet Nam—all of which took part in the 1954 Geneva talks—plus India, Poland, Canada, Thailand and Burma.

Safe Burglars Scared Off, Leave Tools

Would-be burglars, apparently frightened away by police, left their tools on the ground and the heavy safe tied to a company truck Saturday night at Golden State Co., Ltd., 648 Lindaro Street, San Rafael.

Officer Arthur Newman, on patrol at 11:43 p.m., noticed a rear gate to the company yard was open. It had been closed when he passed about 11 o'clock.

Newman called for assistance. Capt. Joseph Brusatori, Sgt. Carl Selby and Officer Thomas Stephenson responded.

As the three entered the yard, they discovered a set of safe-breaking tools on the ground. A rubber hose had been tied to the rear bumper of a company truck, run through an open back door and looped around the safe in a rear office.

The rear door had been broken open, the officers reported.

The thieves apparently had already started to pull the safe out through the open door when frightened away. It had been moved about five feet, police said.

Frank H. McDougall of 776 Monticello Road, Terra Linda, the manager, was called. He found nothing had been stolen. But somebody had eaten part of a quart of coffee ice cream.

Store Robbed, Suspect Nabbed—In A Minute

The Cricket Liquor Store at 929 Fourth Street, San Rafael, was held up about 10:30 p.m. Saturday and the suspected robber caught moments later at Fourth and D Streets.

John Lee Morris Jr., 21, of 1897 Haight Street, San Francisco, was held in Marin County Jail today on armed robbery charge with no bail set.

Emanuel C. Pappas of 250 C Street, San Rafael, co-proprietor, was alone in the liquor store at the time of the hold-up. He told police a man entered with his hand inside his jacket as if holding a gun.

"I need your money bad enough to shoot you for it," the robber told Pappas.

Pappas took a $5 bill from the cash register and handed it to the robber, who grabbed it and fled on foot. Pappas then phoned police.

Within a minute of the hold-up, police were on the way to the store, reported Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa. Sgt. Carl Selby was the first to arrive.

As Selby began to interview Pappas, Officer Charles Hickey, approaching on Fourth Street in a patrol car, saw a man walking at Fourth and D Streets who fitted the description of the robber. Hickey swung to the curb and emerged from his car with drawn gun, ordering the man to surrender.

Morris gave up without a struggle. He had no gun, Officer Hickey discovered.

At the liquor store, Pappas readily identified Morris as the holdup man.

Morris told police that he was broke and hungry when he arrived in San Rafael while hitch-hiking to visit friends in Napa, Chief Chiesa reported. He said he did not think of holding up the liquor store until he saw only one person in it.

JOE, MOE BACK HOME

'Gator Kidnaping Case Is Closed

Police and Junior Museum officials wrote "closed" today on the Case of the Kidnapped Alligators.

And Joe ad Moe, the 'gators were back in their pool at the museum on San Rafael's Albert Park Lane, seemingly quite unconcerned over having spent a night in an apartment house laundry tub.

Three San Rafael boys, though, faced a bit of explaining.

The Great Alligator Kidnapping came to light yesterday morning after someone reported several window panes broken in the museum building. Police called Arthur C. Madsen Jr. of San Anselmo, assistant museum director, to take inventory.

Madsen and the officers found six panes in the auditorium door broken. Entering by way of the broken doors, someone prowled through the museum, thrown vegetables and fish from the animal kitchen onto floors and displays—and stole Joe (30 inches long) and Moe (24 inches) from the pool they share with a couple of dozen turtles.

Police combed the darinage canal that runs along Albert Park Lane, where Moe turned up last month after being missing nearly a year since a previous kidnapping. They found no alligator.

Later yesterday, a San Rafael woman called police. Her 10-year-old son, she said, was "nearly bitten" by one of two alligators in an apartment house laundry tub.

Sgt. Louis Foster, police juvenile officer, went to the apartment house, and there wrung confessions from three boys, aged 9, 10 and 11.

The boys said they threw rocks through the door panes, then reached through to open the door, and ransacked the building. The 11 and 9-year-old each lugged home an alligator. Both put them in a laundry tub in the apartment house where they live.

The 11-year-old's mother told police her son had told her "somebody gave them the alligators."

France Girds To Meet Rebel Invasion Threat

Coup Puts Army In Quandary

By ANDREW BOROWIEC

PARIS (AP) — The right-wing military putsch in Algiers has put the French army in an agonizing dilemma. The choice of whether to obey the president of the republic and fire if necessary on the mutineers or to pick up the banner of revolt to keep the army's oath and "Keep Algeria French."

The oath to maintain French rule over Algeria was solemnly proclaimed with rolling drums and blaring trumpets in the sunlit forum of Algiers after a similar coup in May 1958.

TO POWER

That coup brought President Charles de Gaulle to power.

Now the generals who helped de Gaulle three years ago accuse him of violating his pledge by his willingness to give Algeria independence if that is the choice of the Algerian people.

According to reports filtering from Algeria, the coup was staged by elite Foreign Legion paratroop regiments whose French officers bitterly oppose de Gaulle's Algerian policy.

Added to their dismay at the prospect of another French retreat was fear that Algeria's independence would end the Legion's existence.

OVERSEAS ONLY

According to the laws of France. Foreign Legion units can only be stationed in overseas possessions, loss of Algeria will leave France only a scattering of small islands overseas.

Apparently, shortly after the coup, other units of the French army were joining the revolt.

A great number of army career officers bitterly resent de Gaulle's self-determination plan and his willingness to negotiate with the Moslem rebels. They feel that French withdrawal from Algieria will be a death blow to the army's pride.

Draftees serving in Algeria did not oppose the 1958 coup, and there is little chance they will oppose their officers on a large scale. Thus the fate of the army is in the hands of its officers.

Some 500,000 French soldiers, sailors and airmen serve in Algeria. There are about

CITIES IN CRISIS—Map locates Algiers and Oran, cities where French rebels are reportedly in control, in relation to Paris, where government of President Charles de Gaulle has ordered drastic defense measures against rumored paratroop invasion.

Civilians Given Arms; All Airports Closed

PARIS (AP)—The French government again closed all the nation's airports late today, and renewed its call for vigilance against an airborne invasion by mutinous French forces in Algeria.

Premier Michel Debre issued orders for a repetition of the security steps invoked last night to guard against an attack by paratroopers serving the Algerian military junta. All runways were ordered blocked with trucks, buses and tanks until tomorrow morning. No planes could take off or land.

The air force was instructed to intercept all flights over the territory of metropolitan France. The dramatic move came as Frenchmen and France's major allies rallied behind President Charles de Gaulle in his struggle in the Algerian uprising.

French airmen and sailors in Algeria were reported defying the junta which claims to control all the vast territory.

Paris and other major cities resembled an armed camp. Reservists were called up to strengthen the defenses of France.

Reports reaching Paris said paratroopers controlled by the junta surrounded the airport outside Algiers where navy and air force planes are stationed.

The reports said the paratroopers moved in after the airmen and sailors demonstrated against the junta of Gen. Maurice Challe, himself an air force officer.

Another demonstration of air force discontent with the junta was the flight from Algeria of nine warplanes, including five jets, flew into France to join loyal units.

The rebellious French forces in the North African territory claimed more and more troops were flocking to their banner.

All France had been alerted for a paratroop invasion by the Algerian mutineers, and all plane flights in and out of the troubled country were halted last night. But as the hours passed without invasion, tension eased and planes began moving again. Tight security was maintained at all airfields.

The reservists were called up to augment regular troop units and to provide leadership for the hastily mobilized civil defense militia. Debre said military units will be "reinforced by individual callups which will permit the constitution of reserve units with regular officers."

Volunteers by the hundreds streamed to the Interior Ministry in Paris, clamoring for arms. They were given rifles or carbines and partial uniforms, organized into 10-man squads and sent out to guard public buildings.

As dawn broke over the French capital, thousands of tank-supported troops and security forces were on guard at key points.

Much of France went on a virtual war footing after Debre told a nationwide TV-radio audience last night that an attack from Algeria could come anytime. Rumors flew that 1,500 paratroopers in 30 planes had taken off from Algeria.

This morning the Interior Ministry announced that "fear of what could have happened during the night on the territory of metropolitan France did not materialize."

As public fear of an invasion subsided somewhat, most civilians went to work as usual.

The situation in Algeria remained confused. The insurgent junta claimed the whole army in Algeria had rallied to it. But the French government said Gen. de Pouilly, with hearquarters at Tlemcen, west of Oran, and still loyal to De Gaulle, reported he was in contact with all army detachments in western Algeria with the exception of those in Oran itself.

This would mean that most of the army in the Oran area is standing by de Gaulle. The insurgent junta, broadcasting

Jerusalem was "electric" two days before the opening of the trial of Adolf Eichmann.

When the trial opened, students stopped their studies and "people were glued to their loudspeakers."

"There was a feeling in Kibbutz Mishmar Haemek of tremendous preoccupation, yet people went about their work and listened to the loudspeakers at eating times."

These are observations of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Wheelwright of Green Gulch Ranch, near Muir Beach, who returned yesterday from two weeks in Israel.

Kibbutz Mishmer Haemek, where they stayed, is about 100 miles from Jerusalem in the Jezreel Valley. A kibbutz Wheelwright said, is a cooperative community. The Wheelwrights were not allowed in the Eichmann courtroom. There was no space for visitors.

The Wheelwrights were guests in Israel of Amnon Levi, who, like Wheelwright, is a cattle breeder. Levi visited the

OUT OF HIDING? — Fidel Castro finally—after a week of rumors as to his whereabouts and state of mental health—yesterday put in a four hour and 23 minute appearance on Cuban TV, blasting President John F. Kennedy and the United States. (AP Wirephoto)

'Death For Rebels,' Castro Cries Out In Attack On U.S.

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—A threat of firing squads hung today over hundreds of anti-Castro invaders and others rounded up as "counter-revolutionaries" during the ill-fated invasion of Cuba.

"Counter-revolutionaries must be shot," Fidel Castro announced in his first public appearance in Cuba for a week. "We have to act with hard hands. Don't let the terrorists entertain dreams that they can act with impunity while they persist in these plans. Let them not ask for clemency."

MARATHON

A Cuban audience watching the marathon television-radio broadcast last night in Havana cried "to the wall!"

Castro spoke for four hours and 23 minutes, vilifying the U. S. administration, President John F. Kennedy personally, the Central Intelligence Agency and the U. S. way of life. He compared Kennedy to Adolf Hitler, called him an "international bully" and the Administration "thugs" who threaten the world with war.

458 REBELS

What Castro had to say about the captured rebels—he said there are 458 of them—and others of the thousands rounded up in Cuba on charges of disloyalty to the Communist-dominated regime sent a chill through the Cuban community in exile in Florida.

There was a hint that Castro might spare some from the firing squads. He implied that clemency would depend on a pledge from the United States to end any attempt to oust communism from Cuba.

IMPERIALISTS

Castro put it this way:

"Now the imperialists are promoting a campaign in Latin America to seek clemency (for the invader captives). Certain rulers of Latin America are promoting a movement of condemnation (of Cuba) and a movement for clemency.

"We are going to tell them first to ask the CIA and the United States for clemency for the children who were murdered here, that they have clemency for the victims of their bombs, that the bringing of weapons to Cuba cease, that the supply of explosives stop."

Castro's appearance—he was an hour and a half late on the air—dispelled rumors that he had somehow been put out of commission during the invasion.

He appeared to be in good health. His speech was accompanied by his customary gestures. Occasionally he waved his arms or thumped the table with a clenched fist.

He asserted that his regime had "won over a reactionary, aggressive, brutal enemy.

"The threatt of Kennedy is much like that of Hitler," said Castro. "Hitler threatened small countries. Kennedy threatens small countries."

Should any new invasion attempt be launched, all Latin America would rise violently against the United States, Castro said, and he called for an end to the U. S. "empire."

Roundups of suspected Cubans were reported continuing in Havana, which had the look of a city of terror. Diplomatic sources, in telephone conversations with the United States, pictured a hushed and uneasy city full of fear.

Even the victory parades drew only sparse crowds after waves of weekend arrests kept people in their homes.

'Hard' Defense Policy Vowed By McNamara

NEW YORK (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said today shifts in military requirements and spending under the administration's reappraisal of defenses cannot be softened "to accommodate local or private interests."

Hard choices must be made and "pressures of special interest groups resisted," he said.

In his first formal address as secretary, the former Ford Motor Co. executive said, however, that steps were being taken to ease the impact on communities and industries of military contract cancellations and closing of bases.

AP LUNCHEON

McNama's views were in an address prepared for a luncheon of Associated Press members holding their annual meeting.

In developing the new pattern for defense, McNamara said, he received two basic instructions from President John F. Kennedy:

1. The defense program "must not be constructed within arbitrary budget ceilings."

2. While the size and form of the military organization were undergoing reappraisal to make sure they were adequate and up-to-date, "at the same time every possible effort must be made to eliminate waste, duplication and unjustifiable expenditure."

COMPLETED

The preliminary reappraisal has been completed and the results incorporated into the new budget proposals, McNamara said.

"Our predecessors did a thorough job in preparing their program. As a result of the work we were able to do, however, we have reached different conclusions in a number of areas," the secretary said.

He then listed points already contained in the Kennedy defense budget, among them increases in the Polaris submarine force, Minuteman missile production and long-range airlift for troops and cutbacks in other production items and base closings.

NO TEMPORIZING

"Further temporizing on experimental nuclear aircraft will be brought to a halt. The development program for the B-70 aircraft will be modified. It will be possible to cancel the last two squadrons in the Titan missile program," McNamara said.

"I cite these savings not because economy can be the primary objective of the Department of Defense. I do so rather to emphasize what can be accomplished if hard decisions are faced, if hard choices are made and if the pressures of special interest groups are resisted."

EICHMANN WITNESS

'Nazis Set Jews Back 200 Years'

JERUSALEM (AP)—A witness in Adolpf Eichmann's trial testified today that Nazi Germany wiped out "overnight" the fruits of a 200-year-old struggle by the Jews in Europe to improve their social and political position.

Eichmann, listening intently, began scribbling rapidly on a pad of paper in the prisoner's dock. He was one of the early members of the Nazi Party, joining it in 1931 when it was still outlawed in Austria.

The witness was Dr. Salo Wittmayer Baron, professor of Jewish history at Colunmbia University in New York City.

"The Nazi movement showed that, even in a highly developed country, it was possible to turn back the clock. The steady development from 200 years of struggle by the Jews was set back overnight," Baron said.

The period between the two world wars, he said, marked the "high point of Jewish emancipation in Europe."

The prosecution put Dr. Baron on the stand to delineate the social and political position of the Jews in Europe at the moment when the Nazis came to power, and to show the extent of the damage wreaked between 1933, when Adolf Hitler came to power, and 1945, when he committed suicide amid the ruins of the Third Reich.

Prior to his appearance on the witness stand, Eichmann's attorney, Dr. Robert Servatius, sharply questioned Capt. Avner Less of the Israeli police, who interrogated Eichmann over a period of eight months.

Less repeated that Eichmann's dictated statements—amounting to more than half a million words and now part of the court record—were given freely and not "under duress."

Servatius led Less through a series of questions about the circumstances of the tape-recorded testimony by Eichmann, part of which was played last week. He asked whether "undue influence" had been used on Eichmann, and whether he was told to answer questions about certain matters and not about others.

"I take it there is an intent behind these questions," said the president of the court, Supreme Court Justice Moshe Landau.

"May I ask the witness to answer, yes or no, whether there was any undue influence," Servatius said.

Less replied firmly, "no."

JFK Brother Joins Taylor In CIA Probe

NEW YORK (AP)—Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy is working with Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor in an investigation of the Central Intelligence Agency, the New York Times said today.

A Washington dispatch to the newspaper said President John F. Kennedy asked his brother to help investigate the CIA's part in the Cuban crisis and in all other aspects of the secret defense activities of the United States.

TAYLOR RECALLED

Taylor, former Army chief of staff, was recalled from retirement Saturday to conduct a survey of the organization and capacity of the United States to deal with such things as subversion, counterespionage and guerrilla warfare.

The Times story said in part:

The CIA, which operates under the president and the National Security Council, "helped organize, train, finance and arm the recent unsuccessful efforts of the Cuban refugees to overthrow the Castro government."

TURNS TO BROTHER

The president turned to his brother to help with the investigation because of his confidence in the attorney general and because the CIA's role in the Cuban attack raised a number of highly sensitive political and international problems.

The failure of the Cuban uprising has been generally attributed to a faulty CIA intelligence estimate that the Cuban people were ready to revolt against the regime of Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

Reds Gaining In Laos; U.S. Advisers Missing

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—A new rebel advance southward toward Vientiane brought more key areas under pro-Communist control today. Three U. S. military advisers may have been captured in the latest military thrust.

Rebel troops yesterday pushed 30 miles south to Vang Vieng, a major government military headquarters 80 miles north of Vientiane on the north-south highway to Luang Prabang, the royal capital.

Government troops bolted before the rebel attack and at least 18 were reported killed. It was uncertain how far south the royal Lao troops withdrew and whether they were beaten from Vang Vieng or simply abandoned the town.

Reliable sources said the three unnamed American advisers have been missing since the thrust began. Uniformed U. S. advisers moved to front-line positions among loyal Laotian soldiers last week, hoping to bolster the sagging government forces.

Another American military man is believed held by the pro-Communist rebels. He is an Army major who bailed out when a U. S. military observation plane was shot down in March.

The leftist Pathet Lao forces now hold about one third of Laos and control its narrow waist. They dominate the north-south highway linking Vientiane with Luang Prabang.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

First Forest Fire

CICERO PEAK, S.D. — More than 100 fire-fighters worked through the night to bring under control the first major forest fire of the year in the Black Hills of South Dakota.

Rangers said they hoped to have the blaze under control today unless the wind picked up to gale force again.

High winds fanned the blaze through more than 2,000 acres of tinder-dry ponderosa pine in Wind Cave National Park yesterday.

AP Man Honored

WASHINGTON (AP) — James Marlow, veteran Associated Press columnist, is the winner of the 17th annual Raymond Clapper Award for distinguished Washington reporting.

The award, accompanied by a $1,000 check, is presented annually at the banquet session of the American Society of Newspaper Editors. The society held its yearly session in Washington last week. The award was presented Saturday night.

A Fine Howdy Do

WATERFORD, Conn. (UPI) — Television's Howdy Doody and about 400 other puppets went up in smoke yesterday when flames swept through the workshop of their creator, Rufus Rose.

The puppets, representing about 30 years labor, included some used on the Captain Kangaroo show. They were not insured.

Rose said television shows using his puppets could continue for several months because they were filmed well in advance. Essential puppets can be replaced at the rate of about one a month, he said.

The Opera's On Again

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The San Francisco Opera Assn.'s 1961 season was definitely on today, despite labor difficulties that resulted in cancellation of the season last week.

Opera officials and negotiators for the American Guild of Musical Artists reached agreement Saturday on pay provisions for the opera's choristers, dancers and singers after Mayor George Christopher called a five-hour meeting in his office.

The agreement, providing a 6 per cent pay increase for guild members, must be approved by both opera officials and the union.

Director Kurt Herbert Adler of the opera said, however, that there would definitely be an opera season in September.

Clare Luce Improves

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI) — Officials at St. Joseph's Hospital said today Clare Boothe Luce, former U.S. ambassador to Italy, "is progressing" in her bout with pneumonia.

Mrs. Luce, playwright and wife of magazine publisher Henry Luce, entered the hospital Friday. Doctors said her case is not serious. The hospital supervisor described her condition today as "fairly good."

JFK, Rocky To Confer

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President John F. Kennedy will confer tomorrow with Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York" in his effort to keep major political leaders informed on the Cuban situation.

The White House said the invitation to Rockefeller was issued Friday during a telephone conversation with the governor. An aide said that Rockefeller would fly here tomorrow afternoon.

Kennedy also had a discussion with Truman in a telephone call Friday. He has ordered Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson to give Truman a further briefing tomorrow in Independence, Mo.

JFK Greets Sukarno

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President John F. Kennedy personally greeted Indonesia's President Sukarno on his arrival today for talks which may provide a gauge of U.S. prestige in the wake of the Cuban incident.

Kennedy flew by helicopter directly from his Middleburg, Va., estate, where he spent the weekend, to Andrews Air Force Base, Md., to welcome Sukarno.

Sukarno and his party of eight cabinet ministers arrived on a jet plane from Los Angeles. After the welcome, the two presidents set out by automobile from the nearby air base for the White House for a morning conference and a working lunch with Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Indonesian Foreign Minister Subandrio.

Festival Attendance

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — About half as many persons as expected turned out for California's first annual nine-day Spring Festival. Total attendance was 81,129, an average of 9,014 for each of the nine days.

Festival spokesmen said they had expected about twice that many for the combination State-County Fair.

Fire Claims Family

NORTH BEACH PARK, Md. (UPI)—A nine-member family including six children perished in an early morning fire that apparently broke out as they slept today.

The victims were tentatively identified by state police as William Bowden, 37; his wife, Marisa, 35; Mrs. Bowden's Mother, Mrs. Xenia Farr, 60; and the couple's six children: Erica, 13; Barbara, 11; Cynthia, 9; Martha, 7; Roger, 5, and Christina, 1.

Cause o tfhe fire was not immediately determined but state police said a spark from a fireplace in the large waterfront home might have been responsible.

Mendes Cancels U.C.

BERKELEY (AP)—Pierre Mendes France canceled his engagement to speak at the University of California today.

In a telegram yesterday from France, the former French premier gave no reason for the cancellation. It is believed his action was prompted by the current threat of civil war sweeping his country.

Nerves Produce Variety Of Ills
by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

Too many of us have been told, your trouble is nerves, just nerves.

Nervousness is not unusual. But it should not be dismissed lightly. More and more doctors are coming to the conclusion that nervous tension is the result of a chemical imbalance in the body.

Nerves can cause an upset stomach, pains in the chest, legs and other parts of the body. What causes these pains and the chemical imbalance in the body?

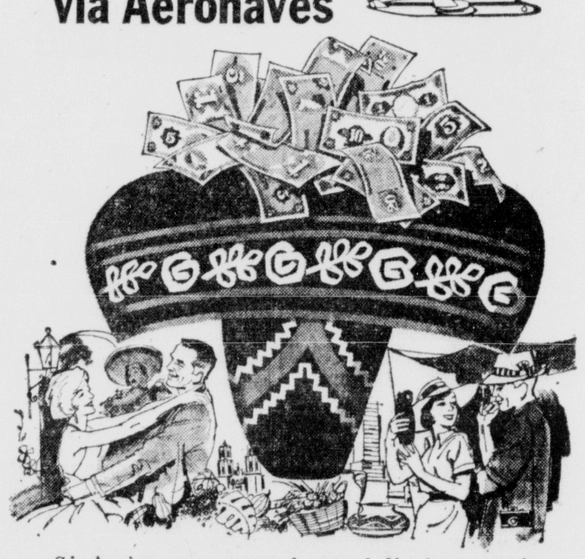

Your spine consists of 24 bone segments. These bones sit on top of each other. They have a hole in the center and through this hole passes your spinal cord and the nerves to all parts of your body.

A fall, a sudden twist or even poor posture may move one of these spinal segments or vertebrae slightly out of line. Nerves become pinched when this happens and a chemical imbalance can result. You begin to feel irritable and have pains and eventually break down in health.

Chiropractors use X-ray and other scientific instruments to determine whether your nervous tension is caused by a misaligned spine. They are well-trained to correct such defects and help restore you to health.

A Church Survey On U.S. Families

By LOUIS CASSELS
U.P. International

John and Ellen Jones are "active" church members.

They get up early every Sunday morning to bring their three children to the 9:15 family worship service at the Suburban Heights Presbyterian Church.

John was reared a Baptist, and Ellen grew up in the Episcopal Church. But they joined the Presbyterian Church when they moved into their new neighborhood, because it is close to their home, and most of thier children's playmates go to Sunday school there.

They have become, in their pastor's favorite phrase, deeply "involved" in the life of their congregation. John is an usher and was chairman of the every-member canvass last fall. Ellen teaches a Sunday school class, and never says no when she's asked to help with a church supper or a bake sale.

Recently one of the Jones' children was seriously injured in an accident. The pastor joined John and Ellen in their anxious vigil at the hospital. It was the first time he had had occasion to talk with them on a deeper level than polite conversation, about life and death and the meaning of the Christian faith.

He was startled to discover that John did not believe in life after death, and that Ellen was strongly attached to the idea of reincarnation. Neither of them had more than a vague conception of the Christian teaching about resurrection and eternal life.

The Jones are not an actual couple. They are a composite of 1,000 typical American Protestant families whose religious attitudes were studied in a four-year, nationwide survey initiated by the United Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

The survey was based on depth interviews conducted by professionally trained workers under the direction of Profs. Roy W. Fairchild of San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo and John Charles Wynn of Colgate Rochester Divinity School. The findings have just been published by Associated Press in a book entitled "Families in the Church: A Protestant Survey."

This is the most careful and comprehensive effort yet made to answer a question that has long haunted clergymen:

How real and how deep is the Christian commitment of the millions of Americans who have joined churches in the postwar "religious revival?"

In the words of Profs. Fairchild and Wynn, the findings are "sobering."

The people covered by this survey were mostly young or middle-aged parents who had, in a classic American pattern, "followed their children to church."

They were not casual members on the fringe of parish life. They were unusually faithful in church attendance, and willing workers in all kinds of congregational activities. Many were church officers or Sunday school teachers.

In such a group, if anywhere, one would expect to find thorough knowledge and profound personal commitment to the essential doctrines of the Christian faith.

But the researchers encountered mature and articulate faith in relatively few of the persons interviewed.

The vast majority were "vague and confused about the church and its beliefs."

"Misunderstandings about the distinctiveness of Christianity were rife," the authors report. "For many, if not most, the Christian faith was either coincidental with moralism, or else about the same as communion with nature."

Many equated Christianity with "the American way of life." And there was a prevalent view that it is important to "have faith" but that it doesn't matter much in what or in whom.

A large majority looked upon the church as "a building with an employed staff and a scheduled program . . . engaged in the same basic business as other character-building agencies." Some said they joined the church because they wanted "a sense of belonging" or wanted to get their children into wholesome activities. Others gave their time and effort to the church in the civic-minded belief that it was "a good thing for a community to have—like substantial banks, swim clubs or a city dump."

The authors summed up the lesson of the survey in one sentence:

"It graphically showed how much additional Christian education is needed by even the active adults of our parish churches today."

The church members who were interviewed recognized this need for themselves. An "overwhelming majority" subscribed to a statement that "parents need as much help as children in understanding the Christian faith."

Marin Author Says 'Pastors Hate Graphs'

Dr. Roy Warren Fairchild, co-author of the recently published book "Families in the Church: A Protestant Survey," will be inaugurated Wednesday as full Professor of Christian education of the San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo.

Also to be inaugurated will be Dr. John R. Bodo as professor of practical theology. The ceremonies will take place at 8 p.m. at the first Presbyterian Church of San Anselmo.

Dr. Fairchild said his survey book was written with a minimum of graphs and charts because "pastors hate them." It was a tedious job to put most of the survey's material into narrative form, commented Dr. Fairchild, who said he plans to continue writing, but not right away.

He is a native of San Francisco and received his bachelor of arts degree from the University of California in 1943, his bachelor of divinity from the seminary at which he now teaches, his master of arts from the University of Chicago and his doctorate from the University of Southern California. His fields were primarily religion and psychology.

Dr. Fairchild taught psychology at Occidental College in Los Angeles for six years and was a Presbyterian University Pastor at the University of Southern California.

Sacramentan Leaps To Death Off Gate Span

Ernest Otto Gross, 61-year-old Sacramento railroad engineer, was talked out of jumping off the Golden Gate Bridge in 1959.

Saturday afternoon he tried again, this time successfully plunging to his death to become the 209th known suicide from the span.

In Gross's car, which he left in the southbound traffic lane, was a bottle of sleeping pills and a note which read:

"God bless all those who tried to help me. E. O. G."

On Dec. 28, 1959, Gross stood on a girder beneath the bridge for 20 minutes while two bridge painters persuaded him not to jump. At that time he told police he was without a family, lonely and despondent.

Mock Drunken Drivng Trial Set For Law Day

A mock jury trial, with a Marinwood radio announcer as the "drunken driver," will be presented before a student audience and jury in Marin Superior Court on May 1, as part of Marin's observance of Law Day.

Students from various high schools in the county will be invited to act as jurors and sit in as audience in the Superior Court of Judge N. Charles Brusatori. Richard V. Bettini, who is in charge of arranging the mock trial, said the method of selecting the jury has not yet been decided.

"The mock trial will be as authentic as possible," said Bettini. The facts of the case will be taken from an actual drunken driving case that was tried three times in Marin Municipal Court last year.

The case is the now-famous "stinger" trial, in which the defendant admitted gulping down four stingers just before hopping on his motor scooter. He toppled over on the Sausalito lateral and was charged with drunken driving.

In the mock trial, the accused will be radio announcer Jim Lang. He will be defended by Deputy Dist. Atty. Hadden Roth, who prosecuted the first "stinger" trial. Roth was one of several "guinea pigs" who swallowed four stingers to test the alcoholic effects of the drinks.

Prosecutor for the mock trial will be another deputy district attorney, Charles L. Convis.

The trial will be repeated twice on May 1, in morning and afternoon. Attorney Bettini will break in during the trial with a commentary to explain the mechanics and legalities of a jury trial to the students.

Planners To Consider New Shopping Center

A new shopping center, with a supermarket and several retail stores, is planned in the East San Rafael Assessment District.

The proposal will come before the San Rafael Planning Commission meeting tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. at the city hall.

Carlisle Rickards seeks architectural approval for the shopping center at the southeast corner of Belvedere and Vivian Streets. Walter Meinberger is presenting a master plan for office and retail stores in the area bounded by Belvedere, Alto and Larkspur Streets.

The planners will also hold public hearings on two rezoning requests. Spero Spiliotis wants duplex and garden apartment zoning for his property between Bayo Vista Way and Scenic Avenue. Henry Ghilotti seeks duplex zoning for property on Irwin Street near Hazel Court.

Other items on the agenda include the following:

Norma Dettmer wants to build a triplex on Fifth Avenue near Scenic.

Richard Stevenson wants four duplexes and one triplex on Elizabeth Way.

Several property owners seek variances on setback and fence height.

9 Items On Hub Agenda

San Anselmo city councilmen will meet at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the city hall with an agenda listing only nine items.

Mayor Carleton G. E. Little has not yet indicated when he would make public an audit survey which a San Francisco accounting firm made five weeks ago. The city council asked for the survey to find out what has been causing confusion and delays in the city's bookkeeping system.

Items listed on the agenda include a report on possible salary changes for the fire chief and police chief, advance vacation pay for employees, road improvement at the Miracle Mile and Sequoia Avenue intersection, and rezoning of property at 29 and 23 Belle Avenue from one-family to multiple dwelling.

Councilmen will also discuss formation of a citizen committee on downtown improvements, and the final map of Rafael Racquet Club subdivision.

8TH GRADES

Junior Grade 'Protection' Ring Broken

A thriving "insurance" business, masterminded by two 14-year-old Santa Venetia School eighth graders, was broken up Saturday when one of the clients complained about the cost of premiums.

The proprietors of the firm, according to Sheriff's Deputy Harvey Teague, were offering "insurance protection" to smaller boys for 25 cents a week.

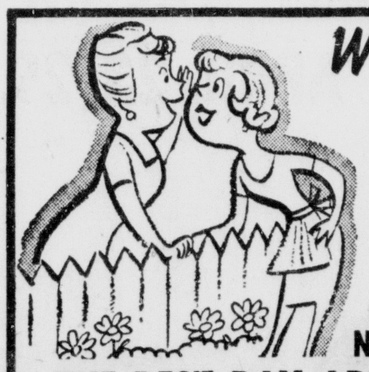

Clients were persuaded to take out the insurance as a guarantee against accidents. The business failed when one of their 13-year-old clients reported the shakedown to his father.

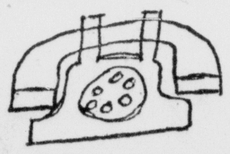

The boy said the two "insurance agents" threatened him with a club when he fell behind in his payments.

The two businessmen were turned over to their parents, Teague said. "I think something can be worked out with their fathers, he said.

NOVATO PASTOR SAYS:

'We Are Empty People In Midst Of Plenty'

Pastor Frank A. Smith told his congregation at the Loma Verde Community Baptist Church in Novato yesterday that "we are empty people in the midst of plenty."

Rev. Smith in his sermon entitled "A Thirsty Land," told the congregation that individuals are not listening for the word of God, and in a sense this causes a "thirst and hunger" that not only destroys individuals, but nations.

Rev. Smith said that "with remarkable insight Amos said, 'Behold, the days are coming, says the Lord God, when I will send a famine on the land; not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the Lord. They shall wander from sea to sea and from north to east; they shall run to and fro, to seek the word of the Lord, but they shall not find it.'

"In Amos' point of view there is a famine more serious than a lack of food, and there is a thirst more disastrous than lack of water. It is a lack in the land of the hearing of the word of God.

"Even very recent history reveals to us that this situation has sometimes developed within nations. The trial of Adolf Eichmann has one haunting question underlying everything else. How could this have happened in the Twentieth Century? How could people lay aside human considerations to follow a half-mad leader even to their own destruction? The beginning was all very innocent. The seeking for national prestige and power to revive a crumbling economy and bring unity to a demoralized people . . . too late comes the realization that man is a moral creature who loses his way and his idenity when he denies righteousness.

"If we consider our own lives against the times in which we live, we shall recognize symptoms of a famine of the Word of God. When the highest standard in the community is the standard set by the community itself; when success is enshrined without consideration of the means by which the success was obtained; when people are treated as things rather than as individuals with inalienable rights; when the increased pace of life places demands upon people who no longer have spiritual resources to meet these demands; then there is evidence that the Word of God is not being heard.

"We are empty people in the midst of plenty," said Rev. Smith.

He declared that "The very heart of the good news is that such a famine is of our own making. Food and water are available for thirsty souls. If we have eyes to see our real need then we can look toward the source of supply. The word of God speaks to us not only of a right relationship to one another as brothers, but also of a personal relationship to God himself. The soul that turns to its maker will find an inexhaustible supply. The prophet Isaiah has voiced God's open invitation, 'Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and he who has no money, come, buy and eat.' The drought is over; the famine is broken when we accept this invitation."

Marin Realtor Elected To Senior Membership In Appraiser Group

With honors being passed out this week to the real estate business, specific congratulations are due Marin realtor Edward P. Morphy, who has just been elected to senior membership in the American Society of Appraisers after approval by the society's international board of examiners. The appointment is considered a high honor in the profession.

Besides being vice president of the Bay Area chapter of the society, Morphy is also active on the legislation committee of the California Real Estate Assn. He was president of the Marin County Real Estate Board in 1959.

MORE ELBOW room needed, not for elbows alone, but for its entire builders hardware department, so Construction Supply Corp. of Greenbrae has leased part of the property of the Hutchinson Co. on the other side of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard East.

A new building to be erected may be ready for occupancy by September. Construction Supply's reinforcing steel department will remain on the present location.

PACIFIC AUTO SALES, which opened at 423 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, last July, has just opened a new location at 415 North Petaluma Boulevard, Petaluma, which may help to scotch any impression that used cars aren't selling.

The firm is a partnership of Ken Moore and Hy (Ho) Silver and now includes Perry Brown of Mill Valley, formerly with Ames Ford Sales.

WE'RE PLEASED to find that Mervyn R. Dowd of Kentfield has recognized talents above and beyond those exhibited by him and wife Bobbie in Ross Valley Playhouse productions where they regularly turn out professional performances.

As agent with the San Francisco branch office of Connecticut General Life Insurance Co., Merv has won the highest honor the company awards its agents by qualifying for the Honor Table of the President's Club. He has made the President's Club six times but the Honor Table is open only to those members who write one million dollars of life insurance a year.

Has he ever been cast in "Double Indemnity," I wonder?

KURT MEIER, imported fabric dealer in Mill Valley who lists his shop as K. Myers simply because more people can find it under that spelling, has recently returned from Europe where he visited textile mills in Italy, France, Germany and Switzerland.

He's already embarked on purchases for the 1962 spring season which, he says, will see softer lines in women's wear.

NEWLY TEAMED up in the construction business are Clyde L. Miller, 1244 Cambridge Avenue, Novato, and James V. Olson, 700 Hilary Drive, Tiburon, as Miller and Olson Construction Co.

Both were previously foremen with the Crocker-McDevitt Enterprises and are local residents of long standing. They are engaging in commercial and residential construction and remodeling.

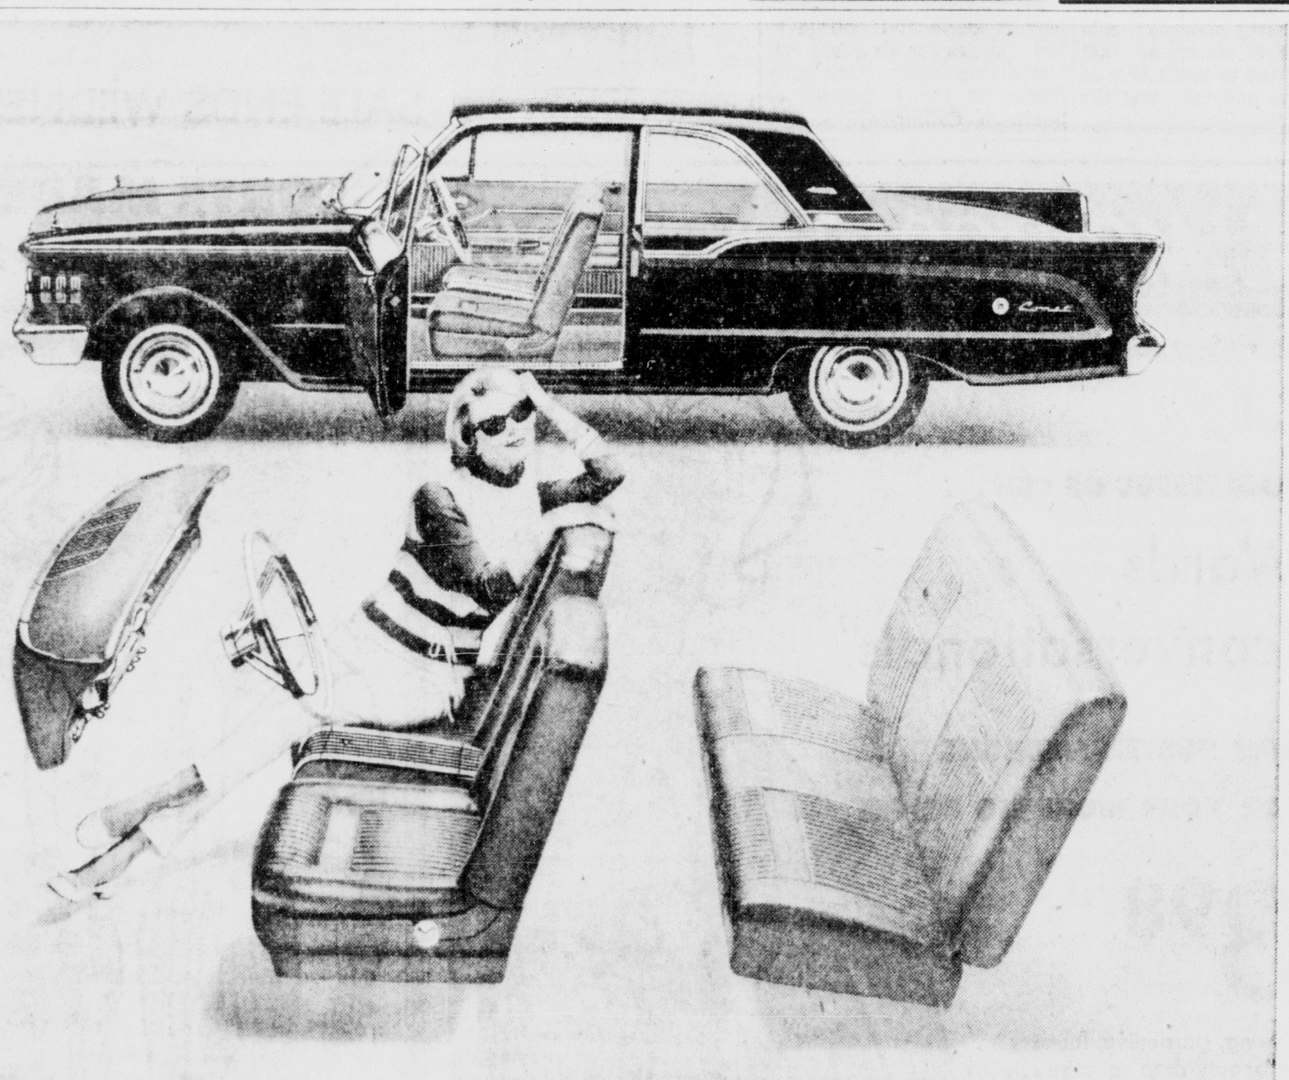

"THE HOUSE of a Thousand Smokes" might be a better name for Ludwig's Smoke Shop of San Anselmo that has now added to its fumidor collection imported cigarettes from countries ranging from A to Y in the alphabet, with Z omitted only because, I suppose, Zanzibar has none of its own making.

I'm told that 30 countries are represented in various blends that will never see the hoopla of TV commercials — from Argentina to Yugoslavia.

Machinists Walkout Now In Second Day

Bergman Manufacturing Co. in San Rafael was "virtually closed as a walkout of machinists continued for the second day.

Daniel T. Bergman, who operates the plant, said pickets were still at the plant gates. He had no comment to make on the walkout or what the disagreement was between management and Machinists Union 238.

Supervisory and clerical personnel were still working, Bergman said.

O. E. McNally, business representative of the union, also had no statement. He said Friday the union and company has been negotiating on a new agreement since before April 1 when the old contract expired.

The walkout began Friday and the plant was picketed over the weekend.

There are four species of wombats. Two have hairy noses and soft coats and two have bare noses and coarse fur which is sometimes made into doormats.

Mountain Play Still In Need Of Cast Members

The Mountain Play Assn. will present "Robin Hood" as its 44th annual production on two Sundays, May 14 and 21, at 2 p.m. at the Mountain Theater atop Mt. Tamalpais.

Advance ticket sales will benefit the National Foundation's new March of Dimes.

Writer-director Dan Totheroh has taken the legend of Robin Hood and his men and woven it into a pageant of history, romance and laughter. More persons are still needed to fill out the cast of 200, according to Totheroh.

Anyone who would like to play a villager, strolling player, one of the King's men or wearer of Lincoln green should contact publicity director Judy Noll in Tiburon.

Dan Scarlett of Mill Valley plays Robin Hood. Larry Allen of Mill Valley is Friar Tuck and Norma Christian of Sausalito is Lady Agnes.

Also in the cast are Elmer Collett of Mill Valley as King Richard, Catherine Mersereau of Belvedere as Ellen, Phillip Vizcarra of San Francisco as Will Scarlet, Victor Keppel of Tiburon as Alan-a-Dale, Mike O'Shaughnessy of San Rafael as Little John, Jim Patrick of San Rafael as Will Sutley.

Burglar Scorns The 200 Pennies

Prosperity Cleaners, 1110½ Grant Avenue, Novato, was still prosperous today because owner Oswald E. Grahl doesn't keep money in the establishment overnight.

Grahl, of 1042 Third Street, Novato, stopped at the store yesterday to find the rear door ajar, he told police. Someone had pried at the lock, then smashed open the door sometime Saturday night.

The burglar apparently took nothing. The only cash in the store was 200 pennies. They were left untouched.

AND TELLS OF SPAIN

A Senorita Views American Customs

FROM MADRID—Amparo Huici, Tamalpais High School exchange student from Madrid, finds parental control of youngsters much less strict in America than in her native land. (Independent-Journal photo)

By BRUCE COLEMAN

In Spain the custom of chaperones for senoritas has been outmoded for 20 years, yet parental control is much more strict than in America.

Authority for this statement is Madrid's Amparo Huici, who is a Tamalpais High School senior under sponsorship of the American Field Service.

Miss Huici (pronounced "Whee-thee") said: "In my family they are not so strict but, yet, they have pretty much control. They always know who I am going with or who my sister is going with.

"They know when we are coming back. Here, the family life with the Pembertons (Miss Huici lives with the family of Dr. and Mrs. William H. Pemberton of 481 Summit Avenue, Mill Valley) is pretty much like mine.

"But, in talking to people of the school, I have found that they consider friends are like brothers and sisters.

"In many families, Americans give the children the idea of democracy and let them talk freely . . . in making a decision, children have almost as much power as parents.

"If they get that idea and practice it over and over, you will find out one day, when they are 18 or 19, the authority of the parents is kind of loose."

She also mentioned that American young people start to work at 13, earn money to buy a car or to go to the movies. "That makes you feel as if you had more power in your hands than you really do," said Miss Huici.

She has three Pemberton "foster sisters": Susan, 17; Laurie, 16, and Heather, 8.

The Spanish girl said that coming to Mill Valley from Madrid was like "coming to a jungle. I was a little scared to begin with, with the deer, flowers and birds."

Miss Huici said that interest in Spain among her schoolmates is rather limited. "You find people here have the idea of black and white. We're right and you're wrong. And they don't think another system could be good.

"For instance, they can't think that Franco is any good for Spain or Castro for Cuba. They just think that democracy is a good thing. They are not real interested in what happens abroad unless it is something like the Congo."

"Everybody asked me at first if I could sing or dance flamenco," Miss Huici said "or if I had a Spanish dress or castenets. I didn't have. No."

Miss Huici will leave Mill Valley June 24, will spend three weeks going through the states, and plans to attend university this fall in Madrid, to study either philosophy or law.

Supreme Court Rules Against Lawyers Mum On Red Links

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court ruled today that a state may refuse to admit to practice any lawyer who refuses to say whether he is a Communist.

The court split 5 to 4 in deciding two cases on this issue. Justice John M. Harlan spoke for the majority both times.

"We think it clear that the 14th Amendment's protection against arbritrary state action does not forbid a state from denying admission to a bar applicant so long as he refuses to provide unprivileged answers to questions having a substantial relevance to his qualifications," Harlan said.

One of the cases was brought to the court by George Anastaplo, a young University of Chicago instructor who has been trying for 10 years to become a member of the Illinois Bar.

Anastaplo refused as a matter of principle to answer questions about membership in the Communist Party, the Ku Klux Klan or the Silver Shirts.

The questions were posed by the committee on character and fitness for the First Appellate Court District in Illinois.

The other appeal was from Raphael Konigsberg, former Los Angeles social worker who won a previous high court decision in 1957.

The court held then that past membership in the Communist Party, if true, does not necessarily mean lack of good moral character. The decision was that the record did not justify keeping Konigsberg out of the California Bar.

But when the case went back to California's Bar Committee, Konigsberg again refused to answer questions as to his party membership.

Caliofrnia law requires that an applicant must be of good moral character and not advocate the violent overthrow of the U.S. government.

Harlan's opinions affirmed decisions of the Supreme Courts of Illinois and California denying admission to the two applicants.

THIS CRASH INJURED THREE—These two cars met head-on in Marin City Saturday, sending both drivers and a passenger to hospitals. Marin Has Bad Traffic Weekend— 18 Hurt In Accidents, 2 Seriously

A rash of traffic accidents injured 18 persons, two of them seriously, in Marin County over the weekend and this morning.

Three Marin City residents were injured in a head-on two-car collision in Marin City Saturday.

Reported in serious condition at Marin General Hospital was Virgie Wortham, 21, of 76 Cole Drive, Marin City. Mrs. Wortham was a passenger in a car driven by Barbara Jean Bailey, 62 Cole Drive, who was transferred from Marin General to Letterman Hospital in San Francisco after being treated for a cut knee.

Driver of the other car, Walter Lenoir, 36, of House 224, was given emergency treatment at Marin General Hospital, then booked at the county jail on a felony drunken driving charge. Freed on $525 bail, he is to appear in court at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday.

California Highway Patrolman Cecil Hooper said Lenoir was driving on the wrong side of Drake Avenue, when he ran into the other car near the Marin City bus depot.

Hospital attendants reported Mrs. Wortham suffering from serious internal injuries and severe cuts on the face.

Mrs. Catherine O'Brien, 38-year-old Petaluma school teacher, was in fair condition at Marin General Hospital after her car went over a bank and overturned on the Waldo Grade just north of the tunnel Saturday afternoon.

California Highway Patrol investigation indicated high winds knocked Mrs. O'Brien's small car out of control at 1:45 p.m. as she was southbound. She suffered a cut scalp and forehead and multiple scrapes and bruises.

Two accidents in close succession injured three persons and piled up traffic on the Waldo Grade during the commuter rush this morning.

Mrs. Jane Bartolucci of San Francisco, teacher at Olive School in Novato and wife of a doctor at Children's Hospital in San Francisco told the California Highway Patrol she swerved right to miss a dead animal on the highway at 7:25 a.m. Her car struck the bank and overturned, throwing Mrs. Bartolucci out. She received emergency treatment at Marin General Hospital and was transferred to Children's Hospital, with possible internal injuries.

Joseph R. Ball, Petaluma rancher, swung his truck left to miss the overturned Bartolucci car. An auto driven by John Peter McGuinness, San Francisco hair stylist, hit the left front bumper of the truck and it overturned. McGuinness suffered minor knee injuries for which he was treated at Marin General Hospital.

George Maes of San Francisco, Fairfax School District janitor and a passenger with McGuinness, was treated at the same hospital for a cut right temple and right leg injuries and transferred to Kaiser Hospital in San Francisco.

There was considerable southbound traffic holdup for 30 minutes due, as with a similar northbound mishap a week ago, solely to curious gawkers.

Mrs. Margarite Finney 46, of 30 Rosebank Avenue, Kentfield, medical records secretary at Ross General Hospital, suffered minor injuries to her neck and right leg when a car driven by her husband, Drayton K. Finney, was involved in a three-car accident on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in San Anselmo Saturday.

Mrs. Finney was given emergency treatment at Marin General Hospital.

San Anselmo police cited Clifton David Belknap, 19 of 4 Altena Street, San Rafael, for following too closely after he drove his auto in the rear end of the Finney auto near Mountain View Avenue at 12:15 p.m. Saturday. Finney's auto was pushed into an auto driven by Marjorie A. Stommel, 38, of Woodacre.

ANOTHER THREE-CAR accident, at 9:32 a.m. Saturday on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in San Anselmo, injured Charles Digesti, 48, of Fairfax.

A CAR DRIVEN BY JACK L. Neureuter, 23, of Oakland, westbound, ran into the rear of a car driven by Rene Neil Jeannett, 28, of Burlingame, police reported. Jeannett's car hit that driven by Digesti, who was treated in Marin General Hospital for neck hurts. Neureter was cited for following too closely.

The third San Anselmo accident, again on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard at 8:15 p.m. Saturday injured David J Frym, 19, of 760 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in the Hub City.

William Stuart Collins, 17, of 15 Del Norte Avenue, San Anselmo, attempting to make a left turn off of Sir Francis Drake, was hit by Frym's auto, police said. Frym suffered back pains and was checked by Marin General Hospital.

Tom Dickson, 31, of Fairfax, was treated at San Rafael General Hospital for a cut nose and scrapes on his hand after he was involved in an auto accident Saturday at 6:25 p.m. at 22 Bolinas Road, Fairfax. No details of the accident were available.

A SIX-YEAR-OLD CORTE Madera youth suffered minor injuries Saturday when he was struck by an auto and thrown about 20 feet in the air, Corte Madera police report.

TREATED IN MARIN GENERAL Hospital for abdominal pains was Gino Pomilia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dominic A. Pomilia of 111 Palm Avenue, Corte Madera.

David Gene Wallace, 16, of Boardwalk 1, Larkspur, told police he was driving on Palm Avenue between 20 to 30 miles per hour when the child ran in front of his vehicle. The accident happened in front of the Pomilia home.

Wallace was cited for driving without due caution.

Two women were injured in a Santa Venetia intersection crash Saturday night.

Driving a new compact car west on Madison Avenue, Barbara Marcia Dvorak, 20, of 581 Miller Creek Road, Marinwood, suffered cuts and bruises when her car was struck broadside by a pickup driven south on Edwards Avenue by Roy J. Johnson, 26, Novato decorator of 729 Sun Lane.

Johnson's aunt, Louise Brognone, 47, of San Francisco, was treated at San Rafael General Hospital for a mild concussion. Miss Dvorak was treated for an injured right arm.

Gloria Jean Mette, 19-year-old Sacramento secretary, ran wide on a curve of the Shoreline Highway near the Petaluma Road intersection yesterday morning and suffered minor bruises and scrapes as her car bounced off a bank. The California Highway Patrol cited her on speeding charge.

A 1/C Larry W. Field of the 78th Operational Maintenance Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base let his small sports car drift against the concrete guard rail at the south end of the Richardson Bay Bridge on Highway 101 at 4 p.m. yesterday as he was driving north.

Field told the California Highway Patrol that he thought he had napped briefly. He was treated at the base hospital for a cut over the left ear.

LYLE STEPLETON, 15, OF 64 PALM LANE, NOVATO, suffered a cut finger and bruised leg Saturday when the bike he was riding collided with a car.

Novato police reported the boy was riding on the sidewalk in front of 764 Diablo Street when Carl T. Hansen, 42, a custodian for the Dixie School District, backed his car out of his driveway. The boy was treated at Hamilton Air Force Base Hospital.

Frankfurter, Warren In Bitter Clash

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A bitter squabble broke out on the Supreme Court bench today between Chief Justice Earl Warren and Justice Felix Frankfurter.

Veteran court observers described it as the bitterest clash in open court between two justices in recent memory.

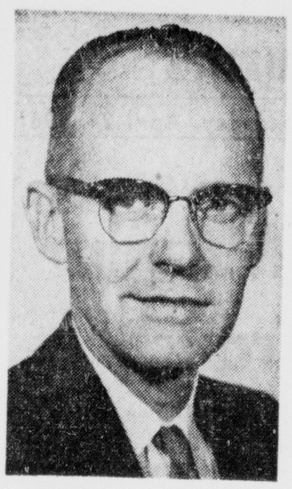

Warren accused Frankfurter of "degrading this court" and of delivering a "lecture . . . a closing argument by the prosecutor to the jury" in giving his reasons for dissenting in a criminal case ruling by the tribunal.

Warren's remarks came after Frankfurther said the tribunal had misinterpreted its appelate function "to turn a criminal appeal into a quest for error."

The clash came after Frankfurter had given his reason for opposing the court's decision to reverse the murder conviction of Willie Lee Stewart on grounds the prosecutor should not have alluded to previous trials in his questioning.

Frankfurter said the court had "plucked" an isolated episode which never was referred to again in the trial to reverse Stewart's conviction for the fatal shooting of a grocer during a 1953 robbery here.

When Frankfurtrer had finished, Warren said: "I must say though I didn't file an opinion in this case, that was not the dissenting opinion that was filed. This was a lecture, this was a closing argument by the prosecutor to the jury properly made in the conference room, but not in the courtroom."

'STONE TO ATOM AGE?'

An Expert Outlines Problems Of Africa

"The trouble in Africa is that it is trying to leap from the stone age to the atomic age in one jump," Donald Stokes, head of the San Francisco office of the British Information Service, told more than 150 members of the Northern Division of the California Library Assn. Saturday at Rubini's Restaurant in Fairfax.

"There is good reason to be sober about considering the world situation today," Stokes said.

Two great forces loose in the world today, he said, are communism and the desire of the "have not" nations to catch up with the "have."

Some of Stokes' comments on "areas of turmoil" were:

Ghana:

"Ghana was 20 to 30 years in preparation to self-government with blacks being trained in self-government positions . . . In spite of the preparation, Ghana has altered into a dictatorship."

British foreign policy:

"What we have done is set up a goal of creating independent countries throughout the world. We have not lost a country, except Ireland, with this policy."

Russia:

"The Russians are slowly learning that they must catch up in everything except heavy engineering."

Cuba:

"If the entire island sank into the Caribbean, there would be no permanent effect . . . The danger is in Castro's effect on the rest of South America."

Red China:

The British "feel that they can't ignore one quarter of the human race. If we do, all they will know will be fed to them through Russia. We must bring China into the rest of the world."

Laos and Vietnam:

"We are going to hear more bad news from Laos and Vietnam. The communists are not thinking of peace, but expansion. The Laos question cannot be settled on a military basis . . . We must show them that our way works best."

British Africa:

"Kenya, 70 years ago, was an uninhabited land. The British put in farms and brought better health standards and jobs for all. Then came the Mau Maus and the British decided to create a multi-racial society. I hope that Africa consolidates into larger areas, instead of little states. Little states throughout history have caused war."

President Kennedy's Peace Corps:

"The Peace Corps is a good idea if done properly. What those pepople need and want is supervision to show them a better way to dig the ditch, not help in digging the ditch."

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Lowering Of Bond Margin Would Aid Rapid Transit

Tomorrow will be a busy day for Marin Sen. John F. McCarthy.

Scheduled for hearings before legislative committees are his measures to establish a Golden Gate Transportation Commission, to regulate billboards along state highways, and to make some 17 changes, mostly technical, in Bay Area Rapid Transit District law.

But the bill which may be the most important of all for the Bay Area is one affecting its rapid transit bonds.

Tomorrow, the Senate Transportation Committee has agreed to hear McCarthy's bill which would lower the per centage by which a rapid transit bond issue must pass, from 66⅔ per cent to 60 per cent.

This is not a new idea. The East Bay Rapid Transit District was successful in lowering its needed bond majority from 66⅔ to 50 per cent, a mere majority, the same percentage needed to pass state bond issues.

We wouldn't want to say we would support lowering the Bay Area per centage that low. On the other hand, the need for rapid transit in the Bay Area is so great — and will become greater —and a system would directly affect so many millions of people, that we would hate to see it decided by a small minority.

Passage by 60 per cent means that for every two No votes, there would have to be three Yes votes. This seems fair; 50 per cent more would have to be for the bonds than against them.

At this point, we don't know how much money we are talking about. We don't know how big the bond issue will be. We don't know whether we will be for or against it when it is finally presented, with all its details and costs worked out. Perhaps, in our opinion, it won't be financially feasible.

That decision is in the future.

At present, because of the great importance of the project, we feel it should have every chance to succeed.

We hope Senator McCarthy is successful in his fight for a lower vote margin.

It's A Good Year Already

With all the talk about recession, business slowdown and such, it was a pleasure today to sit down to lunch with a group of men and women who are having an outstanding year in 1961.

February was a $1,000,000 larger month than February 1960 for multiple listed dwellings sold by Marin's Realtors. March was 61 per cent above March a year ago, we learned.

We were having lunch with 150 real estate brokers, all members of the Marin County Real Estate Board. It was our pleasure to have them as our guests in observance of national Realtors Week.

There was no gloomy talk at that luncheon. 1961 has started out spectacularly, and there is no letup in sight.

We know we can rely on their figures because, as Realtors, they are pledged to conduct their businesses to protect the public against fraud, misrepresentation and unethical conduct. They were sharing with us, as they share with prospective sellers and buyers, their experience, up-to-date information and knowledge.

We certainly enjoyed the luncheon and hope that the Realtors' successes this year presage a good year for all Marin.

Not Itemizing Phone Bill Legal?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I have mailed the following letter:

Public Utilities Commission
State Building
San Francisco

Attached is latest brochure enclosed with the current telephone bill, "TO SAVE MONEY, PHONE CALLS BY THE POUND."

The only difference between grapes and phone calls is that you can see the grapes that you buy.

My question is, Is it legal to expect payment for a bill that is not itemized?

I don't recall the public having any choice as to whether they wanted to pay "by the pound." I don't believe I am alone in saying I want an itemized bill — who feels there is possibility for error even in electronics and who feels the futility of not being able to check the bill as you do for groceries or anything else.

When it is public knowledge that local calls (if 50 or 60 miles is local) are not itemized, it encourages transients in the home to use the phone promiscuously. It also encourages longer calls because you do not realize what you are spending. And all parents like to have some check on their children's calls and contacts which they cannot control if they cannot pinpoint the calls.

The phone company's sweet-voiced, trained, placating reply was that I was practically alone in my thinking and their solution to the problem was to put my phone under lock. Before I do that, I'll do without a phone.

What Will Marin Do For Elderly?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

You recently printed a letter from Mrs. R. E. Sarraille questioning the need for low rent public housing for our elderly in Marin County.

The Housing Authority (and the Board of Supervisors we are sure) has no intent to propose any local extension of our present, nominal, federally-assisted housing program if our senior citizens can be adequately housed otherwise.

However, the results of our recent preliminary survey, which have been submitted to the supervisors, clearly indicate that many of the elderly residents of Marin County have serious housing problems that are not being met. Therefore, as the legally constituted public agency charged with responsibility for developing low rent housing in such instances, we feel obligated to bring this situation to the attention of the community.

There are some 10,000 people in Marin County over 65 years of age. Some 657 of these were sampled in our recent survey, 69 per cent of whom were found to have gross annual incomes under $2,000. However, only 36 per cent of the total questioned were able to find housing within their financial means.

Many of these reported deplorable housing conditions: ("Can't live in mountain cabin another winter—no bathroom —77 years old"; "Apartment over garage will be condemned — cold — 78 years old"; "Basement apartment on hillside—floor giving way—blind in one eye—81 years old"). One out of five of the elderly sampled is in poor health.

Our new 300-unit low rent housing project in Marin City, which is now fully occupied, has just met the needs of the lowest income families displaced in the redevelopment of Marin City. Already, without solicitation, we have received over 100 apparently eligible applications from low income families outside of Marin City—many of whom are elderly. This project cannot, nor was it intended to, meet the full county need for adequate housing for low income local residents.

Therefore, it seems reasonable for a county with such a high average income to give consideration to helping that small portion of its population that is less fortunate through reasons of advanced age, disability, economic insecurity, etc.

The program specifically designed to accomplish this worthwhile objective is the public housing program, which takes only two-tenths of one percent of the total federal budget (about one cent per day from the income tax of the $10,000 per year family), and no local funds.

There are many indications that the county is interested in our development of additional units designed with special consideration for our elderly citizens, just as it endorsed our recent work in Marin City—tangible evidence of the type of homes and service to Marin County that the Housing Authority can produce.

This is not a question of whether or not Marin is a "depressed area" as Mrs. Sarraille put it. The real question is, what can and will Marin do for its senior citizens?

Men Are Bigger And Stronger But Women Live Much Longer

Men are stronger than women. They are also better baseball players, better warriors and better cooks. They are fine girl watchers.

However, women live longer. If this weakness of man could be overcome, man could have time to play more baseball, fight more wars and watch more girls.

There are secrets to long life. Mrs. Frances Silva Campbell, who is 78, and who has worked two hours daily at the Sausalito Public Library as janitress for the past 31 years, through four librarians, discloses one secret: Portuguese soup.

She says this soup has no other ingredients than potatoes, cabbage and big pieces of soup meat. The hardy Mrs. Campbell, who loves people and says "I was born and raised friendly," has no idea of retiring from her job.

MRS. K. W. PEDERSEN of Mill Valley says that smoking cigarillos keeps her youthful, but she also believes strongly in drinking rainwater as an assist to health. "It's good as gold," she says, "and doesn't need boiling."

When it rains she gathers all her pots and pans and sets them outside. Two rains ago she collected five gallons of rainwater. She stores the water in large jars. Mrs. Pedersen drinks it straight and also makes rainwater tea and coffee. Her friends also find it delightful, she said. The only trouble is—she runs out in summer.

TSVETKA DIMITROFF of Mill Valley, mother of Stephen Dimitroff, is a true Bulgarian.

She says that long life (she is about 80) comes from eating yogurt and fasting from meat eating. She eats meat on an average of once every three days.

Mrs. Dimitroff, who was born at Dobromirka (meaning good peace) when Bulgaria was yet under Turkish rule, refuses to speak English.

If a neighbor child is in the apple tree, she tells him to get out in Bulgarian and he understands. At the store she knows a few English words but says, in Bulgarian to her son who is translating, "The American dollar speaks any language. It speaks Bulgarian perfectly."

To her friends in Meier's Bakery, she speaks "half Bulgarian," her son adds. Mrs. Dimitroff came with her late husband and three boys to America 40 years ago with the idea the family would stay long enough to educate the boys.

WHEN THE BOYS grew up and didn't want to return to Bulgaria, Mrs. Dimitroff formed a block about learning to speak English and refused to speak it.

"After speaking the greetings and the pleasantries, what else is important?" Dimitroff said is his mother's belief. "She can't discuss philosophy but she doesn't care about philosophy."

Besides the Dimitroffs, there is but one other Bulgarian in the county and whom Mrs. Dimitroff rarely sees. For hello she says "Drasti." For goodbye "S-bogom," which translates "With God."

DANIEL DAGNEY and Hank Pierroz, Lytton Square girl watchers, say that girl watching keeps men young.

They have watching broken down into hours, days and types. Sunny days are the best watching days, the best times are at 8 a.m., coffee breaks and noon hours; corners are good. Banks have the most girls.

Girls who wear high heels are more fun to watch than those in flats. "They trip along," says Hank who watches, of course, only on his off days.

Khrushchev Seeking To Avoid Test Ban, Not Negotiate One

WASHINGTON — Nikita Khrushchev is taking the apparently irrevocable position that there can be no nuclear test-ban treaty unless the Soviets can veto inspection.

U. S. and British negotiators at the Geneva talks have been hoping against hope that the Soviet delegate was not making a final Kremlin demand when he insisted that the control commission be run by a committee of three who would have to agree unanimously before any action to verify the observance of the treaty could be taken.

Now the Soviet premier is committing himself personally and unreservedly to forbidding any investigation of an unexplained explosion without Soviet permission. The Soviets demand the right to say no at any time.

THUS KHRUSHCHEV dashes the patient hopes of the whole world for successful negotiation of a test ban or even a beginning of disarmament since, if the Soviets are to have a veto over verification, there can be no guarantee against isolation.

It was agreed that the control commission, to verify the observance of the test ban, would be made up of two Russians, two Westerners, and three officials from neutral countries. When there are earth tremors not explained by natural causes, suggesting a possible nuclear explosion, the control commission would have a duty to make a first-hand investigation to determine whether there has been a violation of the treaty.

AT THE GENEVA talks a year ago, the Soviets agreed that there should be a single, neutral administrrator.

Now Khrushchev rejects this provision and, instead, demands that it be headed by a committee of three.

And what of the reason which Khrushchev advances to explain his opposition to a single, neutral administrator? He puts his reason in this sentence:

"I will never entrust the security of the Soviet Union to any foreigner."

This may sound reasonable. No government leader wants to entrust the "security" of his country to a foreigner. But why would the orderly functioning of the test-ban control commission endanger the security of the Soviet Union?

TO DEMAND a veto-at-will over any verification destroys the pretense that Russia wants an inspectable test ban.

Surely a test-ban control commission must be free to function within the terms of the treaty.

At this point, Premier Khrushchev says he will tolerate no inspection against Soviet wishes at any time. This permits only one conclusion—that he is seeking to avoid a test-ban agreement, not negotiate one.

He awoke a second time to see the man kneeling beside the door. He called to his mother, Mrs. Sadie Irene Burwick. The intruder fled, police reported.

Edith J. Parsons, apartment house manager, called the police. Police report that $4 or $5 had been taken from Mrs. Burwick's purse while she slept.

Marinite Jailed After Wild Fight With Hub Police

A San Anselmo man was arrested Saturday after a kicking, slugging match with San Anselmo police.

Donald Atwood Travis, 26, of 223 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, was involved in a fight at the Hide-Away Tavern at 27 Tunstead Avenue, Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani reported.

Officer Andy J. Grimes, in attempting to arrest Travis, was kicked in the groin several times, Chief Buchignani said.

Grimes had to handcuff the struggling Travis. He kicked Grimes on route to the police station and again at the station, he officer reported.

Travis was booked in the county Jail on charges of assault and battery, resisting arrest and disturbing the peace. Bail of $840 was set. He was to appear this afternoon in municipal court.

"We went to Israel thinking it was unnecessary to dig this whole thing up again," said Wheelwright. "It had been done in Nurnberg and, if it were to be held, we felt it should not be in Israel.

"We came away feeling that everybody in the world should reconsider a thing as serious as this—that any human beings could try to exterminate any group of human beings.

"There was no place in the world where it would receive the unbiased attention it is receiving in Israel."

"I felt they wanted their children to hear this so they would keep the spirit of dedication alive," said Mrs. Wheelwright.

"Every hotel was crowded. All you heard was the trial. Jerusalem was electric."

At the Kibbutz where 700 people lived "there wasn't one person that hadn't lost some of his family," Wheelwright said. "They talked little of the trial but it was obvious that it was always in the back of their minds."

Near the end of the Feast of the Passover, Mrs. Wheelwright said, there was a minute of silence in memory of the six million people who were killed.

TV, Disaster Plan Top Agenda At NFL Meeting In S.F.

National Football League owners feel the fledgling American Football League has a better television arrangement than the older NFL. And they plan to do something about it during their annual meeting which began in San Francisco today.

Vic Morabito, owner of the San Francisco 49ers, said the NFL favors a package deal with a single television network. Last year it dealt with three.

Eleven teams, including the 49ers, had contracts with the Columbia Broadcasting System; one with the National Broadcasting co., and another with an organization called Sport Network, Morabito said.

Morabito said he and other NFL owners feel they would get a better break if they could arrange a package deal with one network like the AFL did in its opening season last year

The new thinking among some members is that during the late stages of the pennant race that some of the crucial games be televised nationally. Currently most games are on a regional basis.

"We would televise a game involving the two main contenders," said a spokesman. "It would go into 'open' territory. By that I mean that it would not go into NFL cities where games are being played. But some other cities where there are no NFL franchises."

Denver was mentioned as an example. Denver happens to be the home of a member of the AFL—the Broncos.

DISASTER PLAN

One of the major items on the agenda is a plan to protect its multi-million-dollar investment.

Representatives of clubs from Chicago, New York, Washington, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Cleveland, Minneapolis, Los Angeles, Detroit, Green Bay, Dallas, San Francisco and St. Louis gathered to set up a "disaster" plan and take care of other less urgent business.

The major problem will be to set up a plan to take care of the re-stocking of a club that might have its personnel wiped out in a disaster, such as an airplane crash.

"We must do something in case of a disaster," says Commissioner Pete Rozelle, who will preside at the first NFL meeting in his old home town. "Football as played in the National League is a multi-million-dollar enterprise and we must consider measures to protect it in the face of a possible disaster."

The league already has a financial set-up to handle such a problem. But now it is worried about the personnel re-stocking.

DRAFT SYSTEM

"I guess we probably would have to draft immediately from the other teams," says Morabito. "There would be 13 teams to draw from. So less than three players from each club would be needed to bring the team up to full numerical strength."

NFL teams usually carry 33 players.

It is believed that at least 10 of the 13 teams operating last year made money—most of them big money. Stock in the various clubs is selling at an all-time high. And the owners believe they should protect their investment by keeping the league going on a full schedule, despite any tragedy that might befall them.

There will be other items on the agenda, but they'll take second place.

It is probable that the rival new AFL will come in for some unofficial consideration. So far there hasn't been too much fireworks between the two organizations, although there is a big anti-trust suit on file by the AFL against the NFL.

Scribes Wrongfully Accuse Dark Of Panic In Two-Platoon Move

HANLEY

Politicians, particularly during political campaigns, constantly are screaming foul and charging their opponents with quoting them out of context.

Politics has no monopoly on such chicanery. Sports is a fertile field for such stuff. Columnists love the resultant controversies and, to tell the truth, so does the reading public.

Take, for instance, this mild example of a fellow being quoted out of context.

Some of our contemporaries tried to make it appear Alvin Dark got a bit panicky and reneged on everything he said during the spring when he shuffled his Giant lineup after two straight Cincinnati losses.

It's true the rookie manager did say in Arizon "We are going up or down with Willie McCovey on first base—Orlando Cepeda is not going back there in my thinking."

But he also tacked this pertinent qualification on that statement: "I don't see any reason to give five or six games away early in the season because someone is not hitting. The same applies to defense which is very important."

IT IS abundantly clear that Dark's McCovey-Cepeda statement when properly coupled in context with the qualification was not inconsistent with his lineup shuffle that sent Cepeda back to first in a platoon move of right handers against southpaw pitching.

Yet, some pundits conveniently forgot about the significant qualification in admonishing Dark for not literally living up to his spring statements.

TO MAKE his criticism sound even more authoritative, one writer took the liberty of rephrasing Dark's spring statement on McCovey and Cepeda. He quoted Dark as saying "Under no circumstances will Orlando return to first base."

The man didn't say that. In fact, we have yet to hear him employ such irrevocable phrases as "Under no circumstances." Dark doesn't talk that way.

The McCovey-Cepeda statement was not the only one thrown back at Dark by the pundits who strain so hard in trying to provoke controversies they are in constant danger of mental hernias.

FOLLOWING his announcement he planned to platoon southpaw swinging McCovey and rookies Tom Haller and Chuck Hiller against right handed pitching "at least for the time being," Dark was confronted with another of his spring statements.

He was reminded in typical pundit style that he implied he was an anti-platoon manager when he said in Arizona he would not hesitate using the H & H boys against left handed moundsmen.

But also in typical forgetfulness, the otherwise omniscient pundits made no mention of Dark's declaration that he could not place any percentage on any player "but there is no place on the club for a .210 hitter."

WHEN HE ordered the lineup shuffle, McCovey was batting .200, Haller .130 and Hiller .111.

So what was inconsistent about the man's actions and what he said during the spring? Nothing. The only inconsistencies exist in those hernia threatened minds which seemingly are only happy while trying desperately to provoke controversies when the facts say none exist.

Former Athletics Great Barry Dies

SHREWSBURY, Mass. (UPI)—Former shortstop Jack Barry of Connie Mack's old Philadelphia Athletics, "The man the Hall of Fame forgot," is dead at 73 after a lifetime in baseball.

Barry died late yesterday of lung cancer at his home here. He would have begun his 41st season as Holy Cross baseball coach last week but he was confined to his bed.

A member of Mack's famed $100,000 infield during pre-World War I days, Barry later became so successful as a college coach that he was nicknamed "The Knute Rockne of baseball." His Holy Cross teams had an amazing .800 winning percentages during his years as a coach.

Funeral services will be held here Wednesday.

VENTURI BLOWS LEAD, TIES

San Francisco's Ken Venturi blasted out from behind a tree and took a bogey on the 15th hole of yesterday's final round in the Houston Golf Classic. While he was having his troubles in the home stretch, Jay Hebert rallied to pick up five strokes over the last five holes to tie Venturi for first place with 72-hole cards of 276. They were meeting in an 18-hole playoff today with the winner to collect $7,000. (AP Wirephoto)

REDS' BROSNAN DELIBERATELY HITS BATSMEN

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Jim Brosnan, veteran relief pitcher for the Cincinnati Reds, says that on occasion he has been ordered to hit a batter deliberately and has done it.

This statement by the National League twirler was carried in a copyright Herald-Express story today by John B. Old.

Brosnan, asked if he had deliberately hit a batter, replied: "I have." Asked why, he said: "I was told to."

Old asked: "Then managers, upon occasion, do order their pitchers to deliberately hit a batter, but not with the idea of permanently injuring a player?"

"That's right," replied Brosnan.

"Where do you try to hit them—in the shoulder, hips or legs?" he was asked.

"Usually at his back," said the bespectacled Brosnan. "The worst that could happen would be a cracked rib, but I can't throw that hard."

Brosnan, who has played for the Chicago Cubs, St. Louis Cardinals and Reds, didn't say what managers have ordered him to hit batters.

Schoonmaker Captures Rough Ocean Yachting

By ALFRED MATSON

About nine of the skippers scheduled to take part in yesterday's Ocean Race must have taken a long look at the early morning weather picture, heavy overcast occasional showers and gusty winds and decided it would be best to return to bed and race another day.

Only six boats made the starting line and one of those was many minutes late. The going outside was rough, particularly on the beat up to the Duxbury Reef buoy.

Pete Schoonmaker proved the heavy weather qualities of his Aero 24 by taking an early lead and maintaining it throughout the race. Any chance of copping top honors by Evan Pugh, Belvedere's ardent small boat racer, in his little Shandy, went a-glimmering on that first murderous leg. Just too light in that heavy thrash to windward, Pugh finished in fourth place.

IN THE MONEY

The money finishers: Pete Schoonmaker, Aero 24; in second place, Sacre Bleu, Dr. Preben Jurdig and the Ruthie II, owned by Bill Gray, was third.

The outboard circus over on Lake Merced provided the usual excitement.

Two boats collided on the first turn of the C-racing runabout event, the pilot of the C-101, John Adams, suffered a badly bruised hip.

Despite the unfavorable weather conditions 25,000 spectators were on hand to watch the 120 boats that vied in the many races.

Johnson, Clay In Title Bout

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Harold Johnson, 32, who fought 14 years to become a champion, makes the first defense of his light heavyweight title tonight against Von Clay, a callow youth of 21, only three years a pro.

The two Philadelphians are scheduled for 15 rounds at the Arena for the National Boxing Assn.'s version of the 175-poun crown. Old Archie Moore still is recognized in New York, Massachusetts and Europe as reigning light heavy king.

Promoter Al Lewis expects his first title production to attract a crowd of at least 4,500 paying some $30,000. Johnson will receive 40 per cent of the non-televised—limited radio broadcast— show, and Clay the challenger's usual 20 per cent cut.

Cal Crew Breezes

LOS ANGELES (AP)—California's varsity crew breezed to a six-length victory over UCLA Saturday in the third annual Ben Wallis Memorial Regatta at Ballona Creek.

Southern California was third, 14 lengths behind the Bruins.

'Hitless' Giants Head South For TV Series With Dodgers

The San Francisco Giants, who hold a six-game bulge over the Los Angeles Dodgers after three seasons, will start Jack Sanford tomorrow night in the first game of the 1961 California Series at L.A.'s Coliseum.

The Dodgers will respond with another righthander, Don Drysdale, who has a career earned-run average of 2.96 against the Giants but lost four of six decisions to them last season.

Sanford is 0-1 this year, Drysdale 2-1.

The Giants go south just one game behind the league leading Dodgers. A sweep of the two-game series would reverse positions.

Manager Alvin Dark said he will stick with his left-handed lineup with southpaw swingers Willie McCovey at first base and rookies Charlie Hiller at second and Tom Haller behind the plate.

He plans to move Felipe Alou, a right-handed hitter, back into the leadoff spot with Harvey Kuenn batting second and Willie Mays third.

Both games will be televised into San Francisco (Channel 2), the first time the home town has seen the Giants on TV.

LEAD SERIES

The Giants lead the Dodgers 36 games to 30 since the clubs came to the West Coast in 1958.

The Giants' leading hitter against the Dodgers in 1960 was Orlando Cepeda, whose average was .369. The Dodgers held Willie Mays to a .275 average and only one home run. Willie hit at least four homers against every other club in the league last year.

Wally Moon, Charlie Neal and Norm Parker led Los Angeles hitters against the Giants last season. Moon hit .327, Neal .306 and Larker .300.

After the Giants' completed their first home stand yesterday, everyone was asking: "Where is that power hitting?"

FINE HURLING

It failed to show up in the club's first home stand under new manager Alvin Dark. Only some fine hurling brought a record of six victories against five losses at Candlestick Park.

The Giants fell to Pittsburgh 8-7 on opening day. Those seven runs were the most the club scored in the opening home stand. Three times they won by 2-1 margins and once 2-0.

It was 2-1 for San Francisco yesterday in the opener of a doubleheader against St. Louis and 7-4 against 'em in the finale as the Cardinals came up five runs in the ninth inning. Three scored on pitcher Maury McDermott's double and he scored moments later on Red Schoendienst's single. Red started the Cardinal scoring with a homer in the first inning off starter Billy Loes.

In the opener, the relief pitching proved superb. Lefty Billy O'Dell took over for Sam Jones in the eighth with one out and runners on first and second. He got the next two batters on grounders.

In the ninth, O'Dell found himself with runners on first and third with one out. Rookie Bob Bolin took over and got Daryl Spencer and McDermott on strikes to preserve Jones' second victory of the campaign.

O'DELL INEFFECTIVE

The second game found O'Dell ineffective in relief of Loes. Rookie Jim Duffalo gave up the big double to McDermott. O'Dell was the loser, Card reliever Lindy McDaniel the winner. Both clubs found themselves with 6-5 records, one game behind league leading Los Angeles.

Felipe Alou, who played left field in the opener and right field in the nightcap, came up with spectacular catches at each position. He hit a single and double in the first game and three singles in the second game to lead the hitting attack. Felipe leads the club for the 11 games with a .341 average including four doubles. As a team, the Giants hit only .223 Willie McCovey has only six hits in 36 trips for a .169 average. His error in the ninth helped the Cardinals in their winning uprising.

Dark has used the hit and run and stolen base to advantage. "All that's been working fine," he says. "The fellows have been playing all right."

But he admits the hitting must improve if the club is to keep its pennant hopes.

Mahaffey, Spahn, Moon Top N.L. Headliners

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Art Mahaffey, 22, Philadelphia right-hander, came within one strikeout of joining Bobby Feller and Sandy Koufax in the record books yesterday by retiring 17 Chicago Cubs on strikes in the top feat of a busy day.

If it had not been for Mahaffey and Frank Sullivan, who teamed up with a startling pair of 1-0 and 6-0 shutouts for the last-place Phillies, the big news might have been Milwaukee's Warren Spahn, who won game No. 289 on his 40th birthday. Spahn just missed a shutout when Don Hoak homered for Pittsburgh in the ninth, but he won 3-1.

Or it might have been Wally Moon, the spectacular Los Angeles Dodger who continued to slap those "moon shots" over the left field screen at the Coliseum. He hit another, his eighth homer of the season, all to the wrong field for a left-handed batter. Moon's hit gave him a .500 batting average and helped the league-leading Dodgers trim Cincinnato 5-1 on a six-hitter by Roger Craig.

San Francisco had a chance to take over first place after beating St. Louis 2-1 in the opener. The Giants took a 4-2 lead into the ninth inning of the second game but the Cardinals rose up with five runs in the ninth and got a split 7-4. Maury McDermott's pinch double drove in three big runs.

DETROIT SIZZLES

Detroit stretched its winning streak to seven games by whipping Los Angeles 3-1 and 3-2 in 11 innings and lengthened the Angels' losing streak to seven games. The Tigers held a half game lead in the American League over Minnesota, a 1-0 winner over Washington. Baltimore thumped New York 4-1 with 13 hits and Cleveland outlasted Kansas City 10-8. Chicoga bounced back with a 7-1 victory in the second gamt to split with Boston, a 4-3 winner in the opener.

Mahaffey was pitching for the Phils' Buffalo farm club in the International League a year ago. They didn't bring him up to the parent club until July 28. He responded by rolling up a 7-3 record. That marked him as a most promising young man. Yesterday's feat may be only the first of many to come from the talented fast baller.

In the first four innings Maraffey struck out nine men. Going to the ninth he had 16. He struck out the first man but fell one short of the record set by Feller of Cleveland in 1938 and tied by Koufax of the Dodgers in 1959. Mahaffey allowed only four hits.

Although Dick Ellsworth allowed only three hits in the first game, the Phils beat him behind Sullivan when Bobby Gene Smith crashed a home run in the ninth.

Spahn was closing in on his 52nd shutout when Hoak hit his home run in the ninth. He gave up seven hits and struck out four, boosting his lifetime total to 2,085. Vern Law, the Pirates' 20-game winner last year, suffered his third straight defeat.

Moon continued his fantastic spring spurt, in the Coliseum where he has hit safely in all 12 games. Don Demeter also homered for the Dodgers and Jerry Lynch smashed his second pinch homer for the Reds.

BOWLING ROUNDUP

11 Strikes—297 By Marin Kegler

An unusual amount of bowling pins went down all over Marin County last week, and bowlers are still talking about Chet Moorhead of San Rafael, who rolled 11 straight strikes for a 297, a single game record at Nave Lanes. That same night Moorhead continued with scores of more than 200 in 12 successive games.

Among the outstanding performances turned in by women was at Greenbrae Lanes where Dottie Rosso bowled a high 184 game and high 520 series in the Tuesday Morning Coffee Cuppers League. Two days later in the Splitniks League she again came up with the high game and series: 192-531.

Country Club Bowl had some scorching high games and series. In the "725" Foursome League, Orin Teston rolled a great 646 series with a 224 game thrown in. Russ Sorich racked up a 637 series which included a high game of 239. Clark Carlson bowled a whopping 249 single game and a 633 series. A 619 series and 223 high game was turned in by well-named Ace Addenin, and a 245-605 was amassed by Charles Valsecchi.

In junior activity Gary Stevenson threw an excellent 616 series and padded it with a 223 high game in the All Star Travel League for Country Club Bowl. Phil Hargrave is another high thrower among the junior all stars with 211-234—611.

Lee Karnes bowled a high 617 series and a high game of 233 in the Novato Majors. Also at Nave Lanes, Will Corda rocked down 616 pins in the Hawaiian Mixed Doubles series. He had good games of 205 and 222.

In the Ladies Handicap League at Country Club Bowl, Ruth Smith with a 183 high game and Millie Casci with a 458 series helped put Jim Dougan's State Farm Insurance team into a three game lead in the league and win its sixth straight match.

EM SMITH: 582!

No Stopping Mighty USC In Dual Meet

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Some day a college may put together a track team that can whip the University of Southern California. But it's not going to be helped by bad weather.

The Trojans proved Saturday they are classy in soggy going, capturing their 95th and 96th straight dual meets, beating Oregon 73-58 and Stanford 104-25.

USC has not been beaten in a dual meet since 1945 and there is no sign that anyone will accomplish the feat soon.

With some events of the meet at Stanford run in driving rain, USC scored 83½ to Oregon's 61. Host Stanford scored 17½ and was beat by Oregon in dual scoring 90-37.

Oregon had not been beaten in a duel meet since the Trojans did it two years ago.

CAL TROUNCED

California travelled to Oregon State and was trounced 98 3/5-32 2/5. The Beavers took first place in 12 of the 14 events.

Three victories by versatile Jim Johnson helped UCLA win a Big Five meet from an undermanned Washington team 94⅔-36⅓.

Johnson's first places came when he ran the high hurdles in 14.2, the lows in 23.4 and broad jumped 24 feet 10 inches.

In the USC-Oregon-Stanford meet, Trojan Rex Cawley set a Stanford stadium record when he captured the 440 in 46-3 seconds. He also won the 220-yard low hurdles in 23.4

Oregon's Dyrol Burleson also won two events, turning in a 4:11.5 mile and 1:50.3 for the 880.

Jerry Tarr of Oregon equalled another stadium record when he captured the 120-yard high hurdles in 14 seconds flat.

S.F. AWARDED FRANCHISE IN HOCKEY LEAGUE

VANCOUVER, B. C. (UPI)—Los Angeles and San Francisco will be represented by the teams in the Western Hockey League next season.

The league directors yesterday approved the transfer of the Victoria franchise to Los Angeles and awarded a new franchise to San Francisco.

J. A. Piggott of Saskatoon, Sask., who operated the Victoria franchise, will become head of the New Los Angeles club, which will play its home games in the 14,000-seat Sports Arena in that city.

Coleman Hall of Vancouver, the owner of the new San Francisco franchise, said his team will play in the 11,000-seat Cow Palace. He plans to visit San Francisco this week to arrange for the installation of an ice rink in the Cow Palace.

The W. H. L. directors revealed they hope to attain major league status within five years and pit their champion against the National Hockey League champion for the world title.

The other cities represented in the Western League are Portland, Seattle, Spokane, Vancouver, Calgary, Edmonton and Winnipeg.

Pender-Fullmer Bout Sought For November

BOSTON (AP)—Paul Pender today envisions a title-clearing showdown with Gene Fullmer in November between the pair of partial middleweight champions.

Relaxing after his third successful defense Saturday night against gallant Carmen Basilio, Pender admitted: "I want this Fullmer so bad I can taste it. I want to square this thing away."

Pender, 30, ex-fireman from Brookline, Mass., is considered the world's 160-pound king in Massachusetts, New York and Europe. Fullmer from West Jordan, Utah, is the 48-state National Boxing Assn. champion.

Promoter Sam Silverman —seeking a November Boston Garden date with an eye toward a $200,000 gate and as much as $150,000 more in television money—has been doing long-distance negotiating with Marv Jenson, Fullmer's manager.

Each fighter has a bout standing in his way. Pender meets Terry Downes in London July 3 for what Paul hopes will be a repeat of his seven-round TKO of the Englishman in Boston last January. Pender has been guaranteed $100,000.

Fullmer has Jorge Fernandez on his immediate calendar.

"Money talks," said Pender explaining the local belief the live gate for a Fullmer fight would be larger here than anywhere else. "If we can get together on money, there'll be a fight."

Basilio, one-time middleweight ruler, blinked through a swollen face tatooed by Pender's left jabs and hooks and predicted Paul will not be able to beat Fullmer. Carmen, who had just lost a unanimous 15-round decision to Pender, twice had been stopped by Fullmer.

"I fought them both," Basilio said. "It would be a tough fight but Fullmer would win."

Pender did a convincing job on Basilio, 34, knocking him down for an eight count in the 13th round and nine count in the 15th before 12,168 Garden fans and a national TV audience. Basilio had not been floored in 78 pro bouts.

Pender withstood some jolting bombs by Carmen in the early going before taking over with a stylish offense and defense built on the left hand.

REDWOOD STAR DICK CHAMBERS PREP OF WEEK

For winning four first places and setting two records and tying another, Redwood High School's Dick Chambers has been named Marin County Athletic League's "Prep of the Week" by the Independent-Journal and Radio KTIM.

Chambers' busy week started last Tuesday at Tamalpais High where he broke the Tam pool record in the 200-yard freestyle at 2 minutes, 1.9 second and also won the 400 free.

The powerful freestyler then invaded Drake High's pool Friday, setting a pool record in the 400 free at 4.22.8 and equaling the pool record of 2:01.1 in the 200 free.

He will receive a "Prep of the Week" certificate from the I-J and KTIM.

GRETA AGAIN FAILS HAWAII CHANNEL SWIM

HONOLULU (UPI)—Former Danish Olympic star Greta Andersen gave up her second attempt to swim the treacherout 26 miles across Molokai Channel shortly before midnight today because she couldn't compete with heavy tides.

At one time, Miss Andersen was within eight miles of her destination at Makapuu Point near Oahu's famed Koko Head. However, she had drifted nine and one-half miles from the point when she was pulled from the water at 11:06 p.m.

The attractive swimmer, who began her channel swim from Molokai early yesterday morning, was in the water 22 hours and 41 minutes. Although she was in good condition, she was taken to a hospital for observation and a checkup.

Venturi Vs. Hebert Today In Houston Golf Playoff

HOUSTON (AP)—Jay Hebert met Ken Venturi in an 18-hole playoff today after picking up five stroke in the last five holes of the final round to gain a tie in the $40,000 Houston Golf Classic.

Hebert, the 1960 PGA champion, birdied three of the last four holes yesterday as Venturi, last year's second-leading money winner, took bogies on three of the last five.

Hebert, 38, closed his birdie spree with a 25-foot putt on the final green for a 67 and a 72-hole 276, four under par for the 7,122-yard par 70 Memorial Park course.

Venturi, 29, the Californian who has picked up over $151,000 in less than five years as a pro, missed a 30-foot putt that would have avoided the Classic's third straight playoff.

Hebert had earlier rounds of 69, 71 and 69. Venturi opened with a pair of 70 and closed with a pair of 68s.

Today's round was worth $7,000 to the winner, $3,600 to the loser.

Venturi had shared the third round lead with Peter Thomson and Tommy Bolt. He took command in the final round with birdies on the first two holes and held the lead until he missed the long birdie on the final green.

Venturi dropped a stroke by missing the green on 14. His first shot hit a pine tree on 15 and he took another bogie on a hole Hebert had birdied with an eight-foot putt.

Both birdied 16, but Venturi missed a 10-footer that would have given him an eagle.

Bolt took a bogie on 18 and collected $2,500 for third place at 278. Lionel Hebert, Jay's brother, was the only other player from a starting field of 107 pros to break par over 72 holes. He won $2,200 for 279.

'WE WANT SMOKES'

19 Quentin Convicts In Demonstration

Nineteen San Quentin isolation prisoners have been placed on a diet of "isolation loaf" for staging a demonstration for tobacco.

Isolation loaf, according to Dr. Homer Hastings, prison superintendent of education, is a loaf of meat, vegetables and potatoes cooked without seasoning.

"It is nutritious, but monotonous," Hastings said.

The prisoners voiced their demands by chanting "we want smokes" for about two hours Saturday night. They repeated the performance yesterday morning after throwing the light globes from their cells into the corridor, Hastings said.

Men in isolation are not permitted tobacco, he explained.

They will remain on the tasteless diet until tomorrow morning when they must appear before a disciplinary committee made up of Walter D. Acuff and Louis Nelson, associate wardens, and Herbert Singer, prison psychologist.

There are 30 men, including three condemned men, there because thereis no room for them on Death Row in the isolation unit, according to Hastings. None of the condemned men took part in the demonstration, he said.

Western Weekend Deadlines Set

The deadline for entering Novato's Western Weekend Parade, store decoration contest and barbershop quartet competition has been set for June 3.

Deadline for entering the Western Weekend Queen contest is May 27, Chairman Ronald L. DeBeaumont announced today.

David G. Douglass is chairman of the parade and president of the Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsors of the annual celebration, June 16-18. Dr. Lyle Johnson is chairman of the store front decoration contest; John Beckman is head of the vocal contest.

It was not until the 37th year of the National Collegiate Golf Championships, which were begun in 1897, that a school outside the Ivy League won the team championship. Michigan broke the spell in 1934.

Here's how we manage four vacations every month

"We used to have the world's dullest weekends. Now every weekend is a vacation for the whole family. The difference is a symphony of teak, brass and canvas—our spanking new boat! She's part of the Big Plan which Kathryn and I started several years ago. Another part of it is the house we enjoy so. And the trust fund for putting our boys through college.

"Every time we step aboard our new boat I'm glad we put our Big Plan to work."

• • •

The plan didn't seem so big at the time. In fact, it began with an unpleasant situation. Roy and Kathryn were living from one paycheck to the next. They came to Crocker-Anglo for a loan to pay off a stack of bills.

After the loan was repaid, they decided to keep right on making the monthly payments—but to themselves, in care of a C-A savings account.

Thanks to these savings, they were ready when Roy was offered the option to buy a little stock in the company where he worked.

As the company grew, the stock increased in value. Roy talked it over with Crocker-Anglo's investment department and decided to buy even more.

He was preparing for the next step in the Big Plan. Sooner or later, he'd have the chance to buy a branch-office franchise from his company. The chance came.

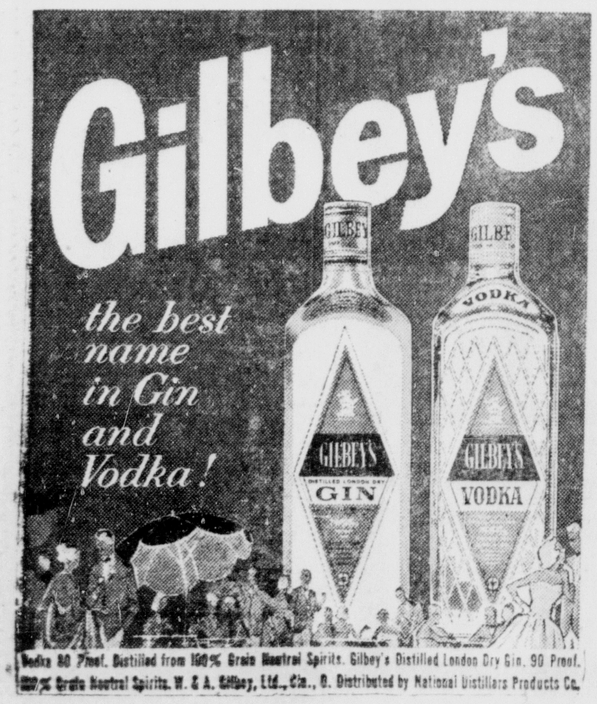

Crocker-Anglo is still part of that Big Plan. Just the other day Roy called our international banking people for advice about some export business he's been offered.

Helping people use their bank for all it's worth is the most satisfying part of our job. It has a way of turning small plans into Big ones... and these into sweet success. Try us.

Old-Fashioned Flavor Keynotes Northgate Market Day, May 17

There will be an old-fashioned flavor to everything—and especially the food—at the Northgate Group's annual Country Bumpkin Market Day on May 17 at the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross. Admission is free and open to the public.

Under the co-chairmanship of Mrs. Grace Graham and Mrs. Leroy Page, this year's Market Day will introduce several innovations.

As the food booth has always been one of the greatest Market Day attractions featuring, as it has, delicious homemade cakes, pies, cookies, rolls, jellies, preserves and pickles, it was decided this year to expand the enterprise.

In addition to all the goodies that have been for sale in the past, the food booth will this year feature a wide variety of casserole dishes from old-fashioned Boston baked beans to anything that the Northgate Group's best cooks decide to serve.

The cooks are planning casseroles with two thoughts in mind; the customer may wish to spend the day at the Center and take home a complete dinner for use that night or the dinner-in-one-dish will be of such a nature that it can be popped into the freezer and there preserved for future use. Mrs. Russell Westover Jr. is chairman of the food booth.

ICE CREAM

Another feature of Market Day, in demand by the public year after year, is the delicious ice cream, made by womanpower in a good, old-fashioned hand cranking freezer with the richest cream and freshest berries as essential ingredients. Mrs. Jackson Bennett will be in charge of this feature.

Still on the subject of food; in spite of rising prices, the cost of the delicious lunch served on Market Day will be the traditional one silver dollar. It will be served from the "Polka Dot Pantry" by members in polka dot costumes under the direction of Mrs. William Cuneo and Mrs. Melvin Duncan.

Once again, the "Dairy Maids" in their cute costumes will be on hand to dispense the freshest eggs, the well-aged cheeses and the delectable chicken for which this booth is noted. The counterparts of the dairy maids, the Farm Hands, will be ready with their fresh fruits and vegetables. Heading the dairy maids will be Mrs. I. J. Ely and the farm hands, Mrs. Marsh Bull.

For children who might not wish a full lunch, the committee has decided to open "Grandma Graces' Kiddie's Kitchen" for the day where hot dogs, milk, soda pop and other short orders will be available.

OTHER BOOTHS

Other Market Day booths will include the "Hat Tree," under the aegis of Mrs. Earl Pennington; "Market Bags," decorated and dispensed by Mrs. Walter Cozad and Mrs. Richard Kure; "Gifts," all beautifully homemade by Mrs. Walter Boland, Mrs. Dion Ramsey-Raisan and their committee; "Books and Records," chairmanned by Mrs. John Buresh; "White Elephants," Mrs. Norman Paterson; "Silent Auction," Mrs. Fred Enemark; "Plants," Mrs. David Dorward; "Guessing Game and Children's Cracker Barrel Grab," Mrs. Paul Spengler.

All Market Day booths will open at 11 in the morning on Wednesday, May 17. The "Silver Dollar Lunch" will be served from noon on.

The Country Bumpkin Market Day steering committee includes, besides Mrs. Graham and Mrs. Page, the Mesdames Winston Jones, Ralph Alden, Rowland Chapman, Paul Spengler, and Allen Zeiss. Mrs. Paul McArdle will be treasurer for the day and Mrs. Walter M. Baird is publicity chairman. Mrs. James Heynemann is coordinator.

Delta Gamma Meeting Set In Belvedere

The home of Mrs. A. F. Bridge, 8 Maybridge Road in Belvedere, will be the scene of the April luncheon meeting at 12 o'clock Wednesday, for Delta Gamma Alumnae of Marin.

Mrs. Bridge's daughter, Mrs. Robert M. Joses, will assist with hostess duties — as will Mrs. John Hoefer of Belvedere, Mrs. J. H. Smith Jr. of Greenbrae, and Mrs. George Steel of San Rafael. New Delta Gammas in the county are urged to call one of the hostesses to make arrangements for attending the luncheon.

Pursuant to Delta Gamma's international project for support of and aid to the visually handicapped, the Marin group on Saturday will present a check to Guide Dogs For the Blind at the school's graduation exercises. Presentation will be made by Mrs. Arthur Sestak of Mill Valley—a co-chairman of the Delta Gamma's recent and successful "play-sponsoring event" at the Tiburon Theatre.

Cornhuskers To Mark Eighth Anniversary

In celebration of their eighth anniversary, the Cornhusker Square Dance Club is planning a party on Saturday, April 29 at McNears Barn. Guest caller for this event will be Ken Oburn of Campbell.

Co-chairmen are Bill Houston and Bob Lindskog. Working on the decorations are Helene and Joe O'Brien, Louise and Fred Judson, and Bernice and Gil Cooke. On the food committee are Dorothy and Frank Faulkner, Arnesta and Joe Degard, and Dorothy and Bob Swendeman.

The young mothers who are active in Marin's six cooperative nursery schools will take the afternoon off on Wednesday, May 3 to co-sponsor a different kind of activity that deals with flowers not children—a demonstration of unusual and beautiful floral arrangements by Larkspur florist Katherine Eubanks.

The "Spring Decor" program, planned by Mrs. Eubanks to include a variety of garden flowers from carnations and roses to gladioi and delphiniums, will begin at 1 p.m. at the Corte Madera Recreation Center.

Overall chairman for the event is Mrs. Joseph Rogers of San Anselmo, president of the Marin Council of Co-operative Nursery Schools, who is being assisted by the presidents of the six participating groups—the Mesdames E. David Campbell, San Anselmo; Howard Morse, Terra Linda; Richard Kahn, San Rafael; Robert Alexander, Mill Valley; Twin Cities, (Corte Madera-Larkspur) Marc P. Mott; and Sausalito, Edward Davis.

Proceeds from the day's fund-raising event will be used to provide outside speakers for the groups, to defray costs of member attendance at the California Council of Co-operative Nursery Schools convention, and for new equipment and books, Mrs. Rogers explains.

The co-operative nursery schools are organized by parents, and operated by one or more qualified teachers, Mrs. Rogers explains. All the member schools in the county, except for Sausalito, are part of the State Adult Education Program. Mothers themselves participate at the schools one morning a week and attend a two-hour evening meeting one night a week under this program.

A private cooperative, Sausalito is licensed by the California Department of Social Welfare and is not a part of the Adult Program.

The Marin Council, a member of the California Council, was formed to facilitate mutual assistance among the schools, and to serve as a source of information about cooperative nursery schools. San Anselmo, Twin Cities and Mill Valley are sponsored by the College of Marin, and Terra Linda and San Rafael by the San Rafael High School District.

A quintet of hostesses who will be on hand for the over-all group's fund raising event will be Mrs. Burton Vaupen, Terra Linda; Mrs. Robert Brown, San Rafael; Mrs. David Faw, San Anselmo, Mrs. Ray Perry, Twin Cities, and Mrs. Harvey Hoffman, Mill Valley.

Tickets for the event can still be obtained from any of the following members: Mill Valley, Mrs. Roy B. Montgomery, Mrs. William Marshall Jr., and Mrs. Harvey Hoffman; Twin Cities, Mrs. Del DeMartini, Mrs. T. A. Battaglia, and Mrs. Gary Lovell; San Anselmo, Mrs. R. E. Douglas, Mrs. Faw, and Mrs. Robert E. Mertle; San Rafael, Mrs. C. E. McClain, Mrs. Spencer Greaves, and Mrs. John Stone; and Terra Linda, Mrs. Robert Thalman, Mrs. W. W. Comstock and Mrs. John E. Doane.

A tea for members and guests will follow Mrs. Eubanks' demonstration.

The Marin Panhellenic is composed of representatives from 18 Greek letter alumnae organizations in Marin County.

High school seniors and junior college girls who are considering attending colleges banning national sororities are invited to attend with their mothers. The purpose of this annual meeting is to furnish information on rushing procedures.

Mrs. George R. Mallory president of the Panhellenic group, will introduce Mrs. Eric Wilkinson, first vice president, who will act as moderator of a panel to discuss and answer questions such as: "Why join a sorority?", "What is Panhellenic?", "What is expected of me during rushing?"

The girls will have the opportunity to meet alumnae from some of the following schools: University of California at Berkeley, Los Angeles, and Santa Barbara; San Jose State, University of Nebraska; University of Arizona, University of Oregon and Oregon State; and several others.

Girl Scouts Learn About Other Countries, Customs

Learning about other countries and their customs is always a fascinating part of the Girl Scout program for Scouts of all ages.

At a combined meeting of Larkspur Troops 116 and 137, Miss Jacqueline Marterer, Redwood High School exchange student from France, was the guest speaker. Discussing the life of young people in France, Jacqueline answered the Intermediate Scouts' questions about schooling, clothes, etc. Leaders of fifth and sixth grade Troop 116 are Mesdames John Bungen, G. The leaders of Troop 103 are Mesdames Vaileos Kapousouz, William Costello, Louis Cimina and E. M. Thompson.

Third and fourth grade Brownie Troop 199 enjoyed a visit from Yusef Inkindi of Africa and Amanda Rudolph of Indonesia, who told about their homes and customs. The Corte Madera Brownies also held an International Food Tasting Party, with each leader contributing two foreign dishes. Mrs. Paul Gray made Indian curried rice and Mexican tostadas; Russian beef stroganoff and Czechoslovakian cookies were made by Mrs. Robert West; and Mrs. E. Moreland Thompson brought German potato salad and Nusbrotle (Swiss cookies).

Folk dances of other countries are being learned by Intermediate Troop 104 of San Anselmo. Under the instruction of Mrs. Robert E. Rohner, the Scouts will spend several month earning the Folk Dancer Badge. Their troop leader is Mrs. C. J. Kealey.

Held at the home of Mrs. George Hartwick, Kentfield, a Pre-Brownie Party introduced the Girl Scout program to the members of the three first grades of A. E. Kent, Wolfe Grade and St. Anselm's Schools, and their mothers. Mrs. Russell Dwyer, troop organizer, explained the various activities that Brownies enjoy. Pianist Istvan Nadas To Perform For Club

Mill Valley Outdoor Art Club members and guests will hear a recital by Hungarian born concert pianist Istvan Nadas as the program for their guest day meeting Thursday.

Most recently Nadas, who is now living in Mill Valley, has performed to high critical acclaim at the University of California and in a series of standing-room-only lecture-recitals on J. S. Bach, Beethoven, Chopin and Bartok at the University of San Francisco on Thursday evenings.

His weekly performances of preludes and fugues of J. S. Bach's well-tempered clavier—scheduled for complete presentation—over Station KQED have brought hundreds of letters of commendation to the station.

Before coming to the Bay Area as an instructor at the San Francisco Conservatory of Music, Nadas had made a reputation as a recording artist of international renown and had played with many leading symphonies and chamber groups in this country, Europe, South America and Canada.

A pupil of the Hungarian composers Bartok and Kodaly, the pianist holds a degree in composition and conducting from the State Academy of Music in Budapest and a doctorate in philosophy from the University Of Budapest.

He speaks Hungarian, Italian, German, Spanish and English.

For his program Thursday Nadas will play Prelude and Fugue in G Major by Bach, Sonata in D Major, Op. 10 No. 3 by Beethoven and Chopin's Ballade in G Minor, Nocturne No. 14 in F Sharp Minor and Scherzo No. 2 in B Flat Minor.

Mill Valley's Delegates Leave For League Meet

Flying down to Santa Barbara this week to attend the 39th state convention of the League of Women Voters of California's delegates representing the Mill Valley Unit are the newly elected president, Mrs. J. P. Oliver, and Mesdames James Good, Donald Robinson and M. K. Rubinstein.

Convention headquarters are at the Miramar Hotel. The agenda will include a review of the long-time continuing responsibilities of the state league plus considering addition of new continuing responsibilities.

These concern chiefly support of all systematic efforts to revise the constitution, support of measure to promote flexibility and economy in state finance and positions on the state development of water resources.

Of considerable interest is the choice of the new state study item, a recommended choice being the "State's role in local government" — an evaluation of state laws as they affect local governments, especially problems of annexation, consolidation and incorporation; regional and area planning; special districts and financial relationships.

Delegates are expected to report at the regular meetings during the second week in May.

Twin Cities Auxiliary Unit Americanism Meet Set May 9

When St. Patrick's School in Larkspur opens in the fall of 1961, the 50-star flag of the United States of America which will wave from the school grounds will be a gift of the Twin Cities Unit 313 of the American Legion Auxiliary in Larkspur.

Presentation ceremonies at the Larkspur Legion Hall have been scheduled for the Unit's Americanism meeting on May 9. Rev. James J. Healy, pastor of St. Patrick's parish, will be the Unit's guest.

Winners of the Auxiliary's sponsored Americanism Essay Contest from four Marin Schools will also be awarded their bronze and silver medals for first and second place finish. Certificates of Merit will also be awarded to those students receiving Honorable Mention.

Nearly 100 essays were submitted for final judging by students of Neil Cummins, Larkspur-Corte Madera School, Henry C. Hall and Marin Catholic High School.

Unit chairman of the Americanism program, Mrs. George Conroy of San Rafael, will make the official presentations to winning essayists during the public Americanism meeting May 9.

On the panel of judges for selection of the winning essays are Mesdames William Lewis and John Dana of Larkspur and Mr. Charles Pendleton of Corte Madera.

Mrs. Conroy advised Marin winners of the essay contest will compete in district judging. Winners in the auxiliary's 30 districts then vie for state awards in each group. Top award for contestants in grades 10, 11 and 12 is the state's annual $1,000 Americanism Scholarship prize.

Last year in California, 45,000 school children participated in the auxiliary's annual Americanism Essay contest as part of the American Legion Auxiliary's program of fostering a 100 per cent Americanism in the schools and homes of American children.

With an increase in California's school enrollment over last year, participating youngsters in the school essay program is expected to top the 50,000 mark, according to Mrs. Conroy, who advised the auxiliary's Americanism program is now in its 38th year, having been adopted as a state chairmanship in 1923.

ALMANAC

Today is Monday, April 24, the 114th day of the year with 251 more in 1961.

The moon is approaching its full phase.

The morning stars are Jupiter, Saturn and Venus.

The evening star is Mars.

On this day in history:

In 1704, the Boston Newsletter, the first American newspaper to be printed on a regular basis, was published for the first time.

In 1877, northern rule in the south ended with the presidential order to remove federal troops from New Orleans.

In 1898, Spain declared war on the United States.

In 1953, British statesman Winston Churchill was knighted.

In 1953, Moslem women voted for the first time.

A thought for today: Sir Winston Churchill said: "Nothing in life is so exhilarating as to be shot at without result."

Extreme Rebelliousness Of Child May Be Result Of Brain Injury

"Jackie" is a hellion. He is 4, and in kindergarten. He cannot sit still, is terribly noisy, and is unable to follow orders.

Yesterday he got mad at the teacher. He climbed to the top of a bookcase and threw some vases at her. He'll be excluded from school for it.

"Molly" is even worse. She was kicked out before noon of her first day. She had 10 fights in one hour. She screamed constantly.

After the morning recess, the teacher insisted that she be quiet. Molly picked up some long scissors and stabbed the teacher. Exit Molly.

There aren't many kids like Jackie and Molly, thank goodness. At least half of the ones I've seen have been puzzlers. There was no explanation for their behavior. They weren't psychotic, technically. They came from good homes and had intelligent, devoted parents. They'd received good medical care. Their brothers and sisters were normal.

What caused their awful behavior? No one knew.

Now at last we may have an explanation. Some of our worst hellions are suffering from a subtle sort of brain injury. There is a physical basis for their lack of self-control. They can't help being what they are.

Our former tests missed their type of brain damage. But now, new tests are available, new understandings possible. So is a new educational treatment for them.

Do you have a child like Jackie or Molly? Then go to an up-to-date neurologist. Have him make a complete new examination. Atfer that go to a recently trained psychologist. Then have both specialists get together and compare notes. They may come up with some answers.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "Can epilepsy be caused by a skull fracture? Or is it always inherited?"

A. M.

(A) Epilepsy frequently is caused by a head injury. Many epileptics trace their condition to such an accident. Most people with epilepsy are able to prevent attacks by taking the right kinds of medicine.

No. 450—April 17, 24, May 1, 8, 1961

NOTICE INVITING SEALED PROPOSALS OR BIDS SANITARY SEWERAGE PROJECT 1961-1

Pursuant to the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913, and the resolution directing this notice adopted on April 11, 1961, by the Sanitary Board of Sanitary District No. 5 of Marin County, said Board invites sealed proposals or bids for the construction of sanitary sewer lines, manholes, lateral connections and appurtenances as more particularly described in Resolution of Intention No. 61-18 adopted by said Board on April 11, 1961, which resolutions are on file in the office of the Secretary and to which reference is hereby expressly made for a more particular description of the work to be done.

All of said work is to be done at the places and in the particular locations, of the forms, sizes and dimensions and of the materials, and to the lines and grades and at the elevations as shown and delineated upon the plans, profiles and specifications made therefor and preliminarily approved by said Board on April 11, 1961.

Payments will be made in cash by said District to the contractor in accordance with the provisions of the specifications and on itemized estimates duly certified and approved by the Engineer of Work submitted in accordance therewith, based on labor and materials incorporated into said work during the preceding month by the contractor.

Notice is hereby given that on April 11, 1961, the Board adopted a resolution determining the general prevailing rate of per diem wages to be paid to the various craftsmen and laborers required to construct said improvements, a copy of which wage scale is contained in and made a part of the specifications for said work, to which reference is hereby made for further particulars.

All proposals or bids shall be accompanied by a cashier's or certified check payable to the order of the District, amounting to ten per cent (10%) of the bid, or by a bond in said amount and payable to said District signed by the bidder and a corporate surety, or by the bidder and two sureties who shall justify before any officer competent to administer an oath, in double said amount and over and above all statutory exemptions. Said check shall be forfeited or said bond shall become payable to said District in case the bidder depositing the same does not, within 15 days after written notice that the contract has been awarded to him, enter into a contract with the District.

Contractor shall furnish to District a faithful performance bond and labor and material bond as required in said specifications.

Said sealed proposals shall be delivered to the Secretary of said District on or before 7:30 o'clock P.M. on the 15th day of May, 1961, 2001 Paradise Drive, Tiburon, California, said time being at least fourteen days from the time of publication of this notice. Bids will be publicly opened, examined and declared on said day and hour.

A copy of the plans and specifications may be obtained from Kenneth Frost Associates, 1610 Tiburon Boulevard, Tiburon, California, upon deposit therefor of $10.00.

First Bay Area Telecast Of Giants Set For Tomorrow Over KTVU

An event many baseball fans have been clamoring for takes place tomorrow night. KTVU will carry the first Bay Area telecast of the San Francisco Giants in action since the National League team moved West.

The game, against the Los Angeles Dodgers in the L.A. Coliseum, will begin at 7:55 p.m. with Russ Hodges and Lon Simmons calling the play-by-play. There will be two pre-game shows, the major league scores at 7:30 and a "warm-up" at 7:40.

KTVU will also carry Wednesday night's Giant-Dodger hostilities at the same time, knocking out the "Play of the Week" show for that evening. In all, Channel 2 will carry 11 Giant-Dodger games from L.A. during the season.

OTHER GOOD bets tomorrow night: A one-hour music-fest to be hosted by Dean Martin via KRON at 10 o'clock with Tony Martin, Andy Griffith and Tina Louise on the guest list; the appearance of Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer on KPIX's "Career" program (7:30 p.m.) to discuss with Stanford students the military as a profession; and the showing of a film account of famed glacier priest Father Bernard Hubbard's 2,000-mile journey to Eskimo camps on the shores of the Bering Sea on "Expedition" over KGO at 7 o'clock.

AS FOR TONIGHT, a new show, "Biblical Masterpieces," bows in at 7:30 on KQED.

Dr. Bernard Boyd, head of the department of religion at the University of North Carolina, will serve as host of the series which will probe into the literature and history of the Bible. The meaning of new discoveries in archaeology and science will receive special attention.

Tonight Dr. Boyd will look into the controversy that has arisen between religion and science over the first chapters of the Book of Genesis, and will give his reasons why he believes the two factions may be reconciled.

The Monday evening show will be repeated by Channel 9 on Tuesdays at 4 p.m.

AND AFTER THE Biblical program, stay dialed to Channel 9 for James Day's interview of Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas on the 8 o'clock "Kaleidoscope" show. Justice Douglas, whose words are always worth listening to, will discuss his legal and judicial career, his mountain-climbing hobby, and his interest in conservation.

Also tonight: A demonstration of successful plastic surgery on "Science in Action," KRON, at 7 o'clock; and the movie, "Rebecca," with Joan Fontaine and Laurence Olivier on KPIX at 11:15. "Rebecca," winner of an Academy Award in 1940 as the best picture of the year, will also be seen Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights at the same time.

Students To Give Rotary Club Talk

Adaline E. Kent School eighth graders will speak before the San Anselmo Rotary Club Wednesday noon in the Legion Log Cabin. Topic of the discussion will be "The United Nations as an Effective Agency or Arbitration." Moderating the program will be their teacher, William Fennone.

Student speakers are Bill Crossley, Linda Griffin, Josette Sommers, Bob Green, Charlette Brunel and Sharon Walter. The special program is being held in recognition of public schools week.

Redwood High Band Concert

The Redwood High School band will offer a concert in the school gymnasium Friday at 8 p.m.

Sidney Gordon, director, said the 47-member band will perform martial music including "Victory at Sea" and "Variations on a Shaker Melody." Featured will be a trumpet trio made up of Eric Rossel, Dan Chollar and Bill Shrader, playing "Bugler's Holiday."

Three students, Roxanna Reed, Thomas Graefe and Dan Smith, will conduct the band.

Kindergarten Registration

Thursday will be registration day for children entering kindergarten in the Kentfield School District next September, it was announced today by Supt. Harold R. De Pue.

Parents may register their children in the offices of the three schools from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m. Children need not be present, but evidence of their birthdates must be presented.

Eligible children are those who reached their fourth birthday on or before Dec. 2, 1960, De Pue said.

Disaster Alert To Put Radio, TV Stations Off Air

All radio and television stations will be off the air from 1 to 1:30 p.m. Friday because of a statewide disaster test.

Allan K. Jonas, director of the California Disaster Office, emphasized that the test had been scheduled for some time and is part of an annual civil defense training exercise.

Listenders who want to hear the emergency broadcast system as it would actually sound under pre-attack and attack conditions should tune to 640 or 1240 on the standard radio dial. Network stations will carry a message from President Kennedy.

Those who are tuned in to 640 or 1240 during the emergency broadcast and cannot hear the broadcast clearly should write to Conrelrad, Box 110, Sacramento, Jonas announced.

POLIO is not a thing of the past! There is no reason to believe that you, your children, or babies, are any more immune to it now than you ever were—if you do not have Salk vaccine shots!

It takes only a few minutes to get your shots. Arrange for them now. Call your family physician or local health department for information.

Young parents should be especially careful in protecting themselves and babies against POLIO. Start babies on their series of shots between the ages of 6 and 8 weeks.

New Moisturizing Colonaid Stops
CONSTIPATION DUE TO DEHYDRATION
without gag, bloat or gripe

Most constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon that loses so much moisture that its contents become so dry they block the bowel; so shrunken they fail to stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.

To regain normal regularity, the dry, shrunken contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be remoistened. Second, bulk must be brought to S-T-R-E-T-C-H STIMULATE colon to action; to a normal urge to purge. And, of all laxatives, only new COLONAID possesses its great moisturizing capacity plus its stretch-stimulating bulk. So effective it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, yet is so gentle it has been hospital-proved safe even for women in critical stages of pregnancy.

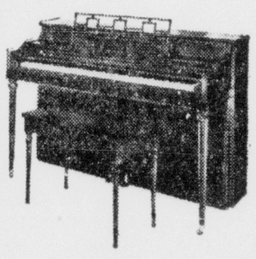

Superior to old style bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONAID neither gags, bloats nor gripes; won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or food nutrients; in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other reactions.

It's a physiological fact: Exercise tones your body! And COLONAID exercises your colon to tone it against constipation overnight. So, for positive relief from constipation, get amazing, moisturizing new COLONAID today! INTRODUCTORY SIZE 43¢
